LIST OF VALUABLE MUSIC BOOKS

Published by

JOHN CHURCH & CO.,

N. Y. Office, 805 Broadway. 66 West 4th Street, - - CINCINNATI.

BLISS.—Gospel Songs. A choice collection of Hymns and Tunes for Gospel Meetings, Prayer Meetings, Sunday Schools, etc., by P. P. Bliss. 128 pages; price, bds. 35 cents; $3.60 a dozen.

"Gospel Songs" is unquestionably the most successful book of its class that has ever been printed. Between its covers is gathered the most powerful collection of revival songs, that ever fell from the inspired pens of religious workers. In "Gospel Songs," are all of the first and brightest of P. P. Bliss' gems of sacred song, including "Almost Persuaded" "Brightly Beams our Father's Mercy," "Calling Now," "Daniel's Band," "Free from the Law," "Hallelujah 'tis Done," "Hold the Fort," "I am so Glad, etc.," "Jesus of Nazareth," "Let the lower lights be burning," "Meet me at the Fountain," "Precious Promise," "Remembered," "Waiting and Watching," "When Jesus Comes," etc., etc.

——Welcome Tidings. A new collection of Sacred Songs for the Sunday School, by Rev. Lowry, W. H. Doane and Ira D. Sankey, embracing the New Hymns and Music by the late P. P. Bliss. 160 pages. Price, 35 cents; $3.60 a dozen.

"Welcome Tidings" contains the later songs and hymns of P. P. Bliss, together with a large selection of the new and good pieces by Messrs. Lowry, Doane, McGranahan, Sankey, and liberal contributions from many of the best known composers of sacred song. It is the only work authorized by the executors of the family of Mr. Bliss to contain his last songs. "Welcome Tidings" is purely a Sabbath School Music Book.

——The Song Tree. A collection of New Songs, Duets, Trios and Quartets, by P. P. Bliss. 96 Pages, sheet music size. Bds. $1.75, cloth $2.25.

This favorite work for parlor and concert purposes, stands alone in its peculiar style and excellence. It is a reservoir, from which may be drawn new and effective pieces for public singing. It contains an unequaled collection of great variety, humorous and earnest, and it is the only book of secular and concert songs compiled by Mr. Bliss.

——Sunshine for Sunday Schools. A collection of original and selected music, by P. P. Bliss. 160 pages. Price, 35 cents; $3.60 per dozen.

"Sunshine," is the last book prepared by Mr. Bliss unaided expressly for Sunday Schools. It is a book for all sections and all classes—a book of bright songs, full of feeling and intense melody, that will never wear out.

——The Joy. A collection of music for Classes, Choirs and Conventions. By P. P. Bliss. 192 pages. Price, 75 cents; $7.50 per dozen.

In every department of this excellent book, are some of the most characteristic and interesting of its author's compositions. Glees, choruses, part-songs, anthems, etc., and selections from the old masters, together with a complete "Singing Class," and department of "Practical Exercises," combine to make "The Joy" one of the best of its kind.

——The Charm. A collection of Sabbath School music, by P. P. Bliss. 160 pages. Price 35 cents; $3.60 a dozen.

In this little book, very many of the Gospel songs which have become celebrated in every land were first printed. It also contains a number of Mr. Bliss' first, as good as the best, which owing to their peculiar adaptability to the work for which they were composed, have not followed their companions out of the Sunday School into the wide world.

——Gospel Hymns and Sacred Songs. By P. P. Bliss and Ira D. Sankey. 112 pages. Price 35 cents; $3.60 a dozen.

This book has been sent into almost every corner of the earth. It is believed to contain many of the most useful and popular pieces to be found in the whole library of Christian Song. This book and "Gospel Hymns No. 2," are the ones so extensively used in the services of Messrs. Moody and Sankey, Whittle and McGranahan and other revivalists.

——Gospel Hymns, No. 2. By P. P. Bliss and Ira D. Sankey. 112 pages Price 35 cents; $3.60 a dozen.

"Realizing the need of new Hymns and Sacred Songs in the meetings conducted by Messrs. Moody, Whittle and others, we have compiled this volume. It will be found to contain a large number of new Gospel songs, never before published, together with many of the most useful and popular Hymns of the day, both new and old."—Extract from Preface.

BURROWES.—The Piano Forte Primer. Containing the rudiments of music and a guide to practice. By J. F. Burrowes. Improved edition, 72 pages. Price, 30 cents.

BUTTERFIED.—Ruth, the Gleaner. A musical drama, in five acts. Composed for Chorus, Solos and Orchestra. By J. A. Butterfield. 160 pages. Price, paper, $1.00; boards, $1.25.

"Ruth, the Gleaner" has been pronounced "the most remarkable work, both for its historical accuracy and musical excellence, ever produced by an American composer." The melodies are fresh and possessed of a charm that lays hold of the hearer's mind and is not easily dispersed.

CINCINNATI Music Reader. First book. A collection of exercises and songs in one part, for grades H, G and F. Prepared by the teachers of music in the public schools of Cincinnati. 48 pages. Price, 15 cents; $1.00 a dozen.

———Second Book. A collection of exercises and songs in two parts. By the teachers of music in the Cincinnati schools. 48 pages. Price, 15 cents; $1.00 a dozen.

———Complete. A collection of exercises and songs in one and two parts, prepared by the teachers in the public schools of Cincinnati. 75 pages. Price, 25 cts; $2.00 a doz.

To many of the exercises in these "Music Readers" suitable words have been set, adding much to their interest. A number of the songs are to be taught by rote. German words are also printed with many of the songs.

DOANE.—The Silver Spray. A collection of popular Sabbath School Music. By W. Howard Doane. 160 pages. Price, 35 cents; $3.60 per dozen.

This standard collection may be called a pioneer in its class. It contains an immense amount of good Sunday School music that will never grow old.
———See also "Welcome Tidings."

DOWLING.—The Crown of Sunday School Songs: Consisting principally of the works of Geo. F. Root and P. P. Bliss. Edited by L. H. Dowling. 160 pages. Price, 35 cents; $3.60 per dozen.

GUTTERSON.—The Months and Seasons. A cantata, designed for the closing of Day Schools, Exhibitions, Concerts, etc. By A. C. Gutterson. 29 pages. Price, 20 cents; $2.00 a dozen.

In this work each month is represented by a solo, setting forth its peculiarities, hence it is equally adapted to all seasons of the year. It is a sprightly, interesting little work, received everywhere with great enthusiasm.

HANDEL'S Dettingen Te Deum. (Composed in the year 1743.) In vocal score with separate accompaniment for the organ or piano-forte. Arranged by Vincent Novello. 71 pages. Price, paper, 50 cents; boards, 75 cents; cloth, $1.00.

JOHNSON.—Domestic Concert Collection. For Social Singing Associations. By A. N. Johnson. 81 pages. Price, 35 cents; $3.60 per dozen.

———The True Singing School Text Book. Containing a complete course of instruction in the art of reading music, together with a complete system for Elementary Singing Schools. By A. N. Johnson. 192 pages. Price, 75 cents: $7.00 per dozen.

JONES.—Songs for the New Life. Designed for public, social and private christian uses. Edited by Rev. D. E. Jones. 276 pages. Price, cloth, $1.60.

LA BLACHE'S Method of Singing. A rational analysis of the principles according to which the studies should be directed for developing the voice and rendering it flexible. With examples for illustration and progressive exercises. By Louis La Blache. Revised and carefully corrected edition. 102 pages. Price, $3.00.

———Abridged edition. 60 pages. Price, $2.00.

LISZT'S Prometheus. Vocal score with English and German text. 87 pages. Price, paper, $1.00; boards, $1.25; cloth, $1.50.

This edition of one of the best of the great Liszt's inspirations is believed to be the only one in an English dress. It is a superb work for societies and festivals.

MENDELSSOHN'S Elijah. Oratorio. English words by W. Bartholomew, Esq. In vocal score, with separate accompaniments for the organ or piano-forte. Large-type edition. 296 pages. Price, paper, $1.00; boards, $1.38; cloth, $1.75.

McGRANAHAN and CASE.—The Choice. A choice collection of sacred and secular music for Elementary and Advanced Singing Classes, Choruses, Institutes and Conventions. By Jas. McGranahan and C. C. Case. 192 pages. Price, 75 cts; $7.50 a dozen.

Aside from one or two of Mr. Palmer's celebrated books of this class, the "Choice" has met with greater favor than any others in popular use.

O'KANE.—Every Sabbath. A collection of music adapted to the wants and capacities of Sunday Schools, the Home Circle and Devotional Gatherings. By T. C. O'Kane. 160 pages. 35 cents; $3.60 a dozen.

PALMER.—The Song Herald. A collection of new and original music for Singing Classes, Day Schools, College Choirs, Conventions, etc. By H. R. Palmer. 192 pages. Price, 75 cents; $7.50 per dozen.

"The Song Herald" is the latest work of the kind by the originator of the class of works to which it belongs. As over 250,000 of his works of this class have been sold, and the "Song Herald" is an improvement upon all predecessors it is safe to predict for it an immense success.

———The Song King. For Singing Classes, Day Schools and Conventions. By H. R. Palmer. 192 pages. Price, 75 cents; $7.50 per dozen.

———The Song Queen. A collection of music for Singing Classes, Choirs and Conventions. By H. R. Palmer. Price, paper, 50 cents; $5.00 per dozen.

This was the first book published for the purpose intended. It met a want and has set the example which has been followed as closely as possible by many imitators. Of this and the "Song King" combined, there have been sold over 250,000 copies!

———Songs of Love. For the Bible School. Choice hymns and tunes adapted for the use of Sunday Schools, Prayer and Praise Meetings, Bible Classes, Anniversaries, etc. To which is added a carefully prepared series of week-day studies to carry the children step by step through the elementary principles of musical notation. By H. R. Palmer. 160 pages. Price, 35 cents; $3.60 a dozen.

———Concert Choruses. Consisting of solos, duets, trios, quartetes, and choruses, arranged from the works of the great masters, ancient and modern, to which are added many of the author's most pleasing concert anthems and choruses, the whole forming a valuable and interesting collection for the use of Musical Conventions, Societies, High Schools or the Home Circle. By H. R. Palmer. 192 pages. Price, 75 cts; $7.50 a doz ———Theory of Music. A practical guide to the study of Thorough-Bass, Harmony, Musical Composition and Form, for those who wish to acquire a knowledge of the principles of the science, either with or without a teacher: including 730 questions which are illustrated by 582 examples from the works of the best writers on musical science. By H. R. Palmer. 168 pages. Price, cloth $1.00.

"I am certain the work will prove of decided value to all who make use of it."—Dudley Buck.
"I shall recommend it to my pupils and others as a book from which they can obtain the most useful information with the least effort and in the easiest way."—Wm. Mason.

ROOT.—The New Musical Curriculum. For piano-forte playing, singing and harmony. Containing progressive exercises, pieces, songs and technics, in all the keys, to which is prefixed a glossary of musical terms and signs. By Geo. F. Root. 168 pages. Price, $3.00.

There are but few wide-awake teachers of music who have examined this standard work, that do not accord it the first place among all the piano instructors. It is a clear and pleasant course, upon an entirely different plan from any other, and is the only work that makes singing and playing go hand in hand. It is daily increasing in sale and popularity.

———Model Organ Method. A book of graded instruction for the reed or cabinet organ, with which are connected lessons, exercises, pieces, voluntaries, interludes and vocal music, with organ accompaniment. Selected, compiled or composed by Geo. F. Root. 160 pages. Price, $2.50.

All that has been said of the Curriculum applies also to this excellent work. It is the latest organ method by this highly successful author, and it is unquestionably the best popular organ intructor in existence.

———The Prize. A collection of songs, hymns, chants, anthems and concert pieces, for the Sunday School. By Geo. F. Root. 192 pages. Price, 35 cents; $3.60 per doz.

———The Choir and Congregation. A collection of music on a new plan, for the Service of Song in the House of the Lord. By Geo. F. Root. 320 pages. Price, boards, $1.50; cloth, tinted paper, $2.00.

"We are sure that this work of Dr. Root's is destined to be successful. It fills a place long wished by congregations who desire to take part in this most pleasing part of church-worship, while the choir still has its field of usefulness,—both choir and congregation needing each other's services."—Chicago Tribune.

———Choir and Congregation Hymn Book. Containing words of the hymns, anthems and responsive services of the "Choir and Congregation." 144 pages. Price, boards, 35 cents; $3.60 per dozen. Cloth, 50 cents; $4.80 per dozen.

———The Musical Fountain, enlarged. A collection of temperance music, for public and social meetings and the home circle, to which is appended the odes of the Good Templars. By Geo. F. Root. 126 pages. Price, 35 cents.

———The Triumph. A collection of music containing an introductory course for congregational singing, Theory of Music and Teacher's Manual, for Singing Schools and Musical Conventions; and tunes, hymns, anthems and chants for choirs. Edited by Geo. F. Root. 400 pages. Price, $1.50; $13 50 per dozen.

——The Trumpet of Reform. A collection of songs, hymns, chants and set pieces for the Grange, the Club, and all industrial and reform organizations. By Geo. F. Root. 168 pages. Price, 50 cents.

The only comprehensive work of the kind. A large portion of the words and music has been prepared expressly for mass-meetings, pic-nics and celebrations of all kinds.

——The New Song Era. A book of instruction and music for elementary and advanced Singing Classes, Choirs and Conventions. Edited by F. W. Root. Revised by Geo. F. Root. 192 pages. Price, 75 cents; $7.50 per dozen.

Contains the celebrated Canon "Ecco quel fiero," by Costa, with English words; the Hallelujah from "Messiah," in a key and form to be made practicable for Conventions; the inimitable "Fairies' Chorus;" beautiful Opera Choruses, and fifty other gems, secular and sacred, some simple and some for more advanced singers. A good book.

——The Maennerchor. A collection of music for men's voices, preceded by brief elementary instructions and lessons, suited both for quartette and chorus singing. Designed for religious and social use in the College, the Seminary, the Church, the Concert Room, and the Home. By Geo. F. Root. 112 pages. Price, 75 cents; $7.50 per dozen.

ROOT.—The School of Singing. A method at once simple, comprehensive and complete, for voice development, execution and the art of singing. Illustrated with songs and solfeggios largely selected from the compositions of the great masters. Also a course of instruction in singing at sight, all adapted to the requirements of teachers and pupils, private lessons and classes. By Frederic W. Root. 168 pages. Price, $3.00.

ROOT and MURRAY.—Pacific Glee Book. A collection of secular music; consisting of part songs, solos and choruses, glees and operatic arrangements. Edited by F. W. Root and J. R. Murray. 304 pages. Price, $1.25.

RYAN'S True Instructors. A series of low-priced books of instruction and music for the various instruments, embracing piano, cabinet organ, violin, flute, violoncello, cornet, flageolet, fife, bugle, drum, accordeon, banjo, flutina, etc. 80 pages in each. Price, 75 cents.

This is incomparably the best series of the kind. Every book is strongly bound and contains a large lot of good popular music.

SHAW.—Sparkling Jewels. For the Sunday School. A new collection of choice music. By K. Shaw. 96 pages. Price, 30 cents; $3.00 per dozen.

SHRYOCK'S Mammoth Music Charts. A series of exercises designed for use in schools and singing classes. Printed on large sheets, 36x42 inches, with notes 1½ inches in diameter. By W. Shryock. Price, $15.00.

STRAUB.—The Golden Rule. A collection of songs, hymns and chants, for Sunday Schools, Juvenile Classes, Festivals, Anniversaries and the Home Circle. By S. W Straub. 158 pages. Price, 35 cents; $3.60 per dozen.

WAGNER.—Lohengrin. With English and German words. By Richard Wagner. The only American edition. 163 pages. Price, paper, $1.25; cloth, $1.50.

WEBER.—The Village Organist. A new school for the cabinet organ. Containing elementary principles, rudimental exercises, original lessons and progressive studies, marches, waltzes, voluntaries and a collection of sacred and secular songs, arranged upon a pleasing and practical plan. By Wm. Weber. 159 pages. Price, $2.

WHITTEMORE and BLACKMAN.—Graded Singers, Book 1. For primary schools and juvenile classes. By E. E. Whittemore and O. Blackman. 96 pages. Price, 25 cents.

——Graded Singers, Book 2. For district schools and intermediate department of graded schools. By E. E. Whittemore and O. Blackman. 154 pages. Price, 50 cents.

——Graded Singers, Book 3. For grammar, intermediate, or district schools, seminaries, singing classes, etc. By E E. Whittemore and O. Blackman. 176 pages. Price, 75 cents.

——Graded Singers, Book 4. For high schools, conventions, choirs and all classes and choruses of male and female voices combined. By E. E. Whittemore and O. Blackman. 224 pages. Price, $1.00.

The attention of all who are trying to raise the standard of music in our educational system is directed to the series of Graded Singers above named. The first work carries through the lower four grades; the second is carefully graded and pays attention to solfeggios, vocalizing, voice, tune, singing out of tune, etc.; the third is complete in itself, and is the best book in print for Female Seminaries; the fourth is a carefully graded selection of music for the general singing class. The entire series presents a chain of graded instruction and music unexcelled and in many respects inapproachable.

HISTORICAL.

The Documentary History of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Vermont.

As but five hundred copies of this work were ever printed, and it is not stereotyped, we cannot promise to furnish even every Vermont Churchman now living in the State, to say nothing of those out of the State, with a copy.

It is no evidence of great foresight that we say that the time is not distant when copies will be sought for at twice the present price—sought for, but not found.

We call the attention of Librarians to this statement and warn them to procure one of the very few copies which remain for sale, in the hands of the Publishers. We shall send them for the present at $3.50 in cloth, $4.25 in half turkey.

Akin to the above is a work, by the same author, entitled

The History of the Eastern Diocese.

Subscriptions to it are now being received, at $3.00 per volume in cloth, or $3.75 in half turkey. Should the number of subscribers warrant it, it will be stereotyped; but as this must be determined before printing at all, those who wish for the work, or are willing to assist in its publication, are requested to make the same known without unnecessary delay. Prospectuses, prepared for names, will be sent to all who may request them. They give further information concerning the plan of the work.

Further back in the line of History, we publish

Historical Sketches of the Church of England and of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, by the Rev. M. S. Royce, late of the diocese of Tennessee.

This does not pretend to be a work for scholars, but simply for those who wish a succinct statement of salient points. That much is given in very pleasing and attractive style—so much so that even a young person who takes up the book will hardly lay it down without reading it through. Price 75 cents in cloth, or 25 cents in paper covers.

DEVOTIONAL AND RELIGIOUS.

WILSON'S SACRA PRIVATA, 16mo. cloth, large, plain type. Too well known to need words of commendation. Price reduced to 50 cents. Should be on every Christian's table.

CHRISTIANITY AND MODERN INFIDELITY—THEIR RELATIVE INTELLECTUAL CLAIMS COMPARED. By the Rev. R. W. Morgan, Perpetual Curate of Tregynon, Montgomeryshire, England. Bound in full cloth, 440 pages, price $ 1.50; or, cheaper style, paper covers, 60 cents.

This book ought to be in every Christian's house. It ought to be read by every thinking man. Of it Bishop Williams says, "I have long known, valued and used it, and am greatly rejoiced to find it reprinted in a cheap and accessible form. It will be used in this Divinity School as a text book, or at least, a book of reference." Bishop Kerfoot says, "Morgan's book on Modern Infidelity I have for some years known and valued as one of the ablest and most timely defences of our Faith. I could not name any book that could be a better preventive or cure of skeptical doubts. Every believer ought to promote its circulation."

AN ORDER FOR A SECOND EVENING SERVICE IN THE CHURCHES IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW JERSEY, set forth by the Bishop (Doane.) Those who do not know this little book may need to be told that the notation of the Psalms contained in it is from the "People's Psalter" of the Rev. Dr. Muhlenburg, and also that it contains the Collects for all the Sundays in the year, Collects for the Season of Confirmation, the Collects at the end of the Communion Office, and several "Hymns from Holy Scripture," pointed, adapted to the Greater Festivals, &c.

It is thought that it may be used in other dioceses as well as in New Jersey, and that as the type is good, it will be found very acceptable to all Rectors who hold a third Service, but especially to those where the Service is partly choral. It is a 12mo. of 84 pp,, bound in cloth, and will be sold hereafter at 40 cents, with a discount on quantities.

THE END OF CONTROVERSY CONTROVERTED—by the late Bishop Hopkins, of Vermont. No person interested in the controversy between the Church Catholic and the Roman schism should be without this learned and interesting work. Price, reduced, in two volumes, cloth, $ 2.00.

A METHODIST IN SEARCH OF THE CHURCH—by S. Y. Mc Masters, D. D., LL. D. Thls book has had a large sale. We have disposed of the plates and offer the balance of the edition at 40 cts in paper covers or 60 cts. in cloth. It is a standard work.

(By the REV. THOMAS APPLEGATE.)

THE PRECIOUS GIFT—100 pages, cloth 12mo. $ 1.00.

THE EVENING TWILIGHT AND THE GLORIOUS DAWNING, cloth 12mo. $ 2.00.

PALESTINE, EGYPT AND SCOTLAND. This book consists of three very interesting Lectures, many times delivered by the author, delineating the characteristic features of the several countries, and alluding to many pleasing incidents connected with them. 200 pp., cloth 12mo. $ 1.25.

TRACTS.

TRACTS FOR MISSIONARY USE—By Bishop Lay and others; comprising twenty-two different Essays, mostly doctrinal and adapted to give instruction to any mind sufficiently disciplined to be called "inquiring." THE BOOK OF PRAYER FOR THE HOUSE OF PRAYER. This is a small 16 mo. tract by Bishop Stevens, of Pennsylvania, and the more you read it the better you will like it. Every Churchman should have a stock on hand. Price 6 cents.

THE ORIGIN AND DESIGN OF THE CHRISTIAN MINISTRY. This is Bishop McIlvaine's celebrated sermon. Price 5 cents.

CANDID HINTS CONCERNING THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH Paper covers, 24 pp. 12mo. Price 5 cents.

THE SECOND ADAM AND THE NEW BIRTH; or the doctrine of Baptism as contained in Holy Scripture. By the author of "The Sacrament of Responsibility." Paper covers, 112 pp., 12mo. Price 15 cents.

UNITY AND ITS RESTORATION—by Hugh Miller Thompson, D. D Those Christians who profess to desire the unity of the Church, should circulate this Tract as a means of promoting it. We have sold the plates. Will sell the balance of the Tracts at 15 cts. each or $1.25 per dozen, postage added, if by mail.

A PREPARATION FOR CONFIRMATION, by the Rt. Rev. C. T. Quintard, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Tennessee. We have a few copies of this very useful and popular work left, and will send them, in paper covers, at 10 cts., or in cloth at 20 cts., with discount in quantities, till the stock is exhausted.

A FAMILIAR STATEMENT CONCERNING THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES. This is a mere leaflet by Bp. Huntington, but contains the "gist of the whole matter." Thousands of them have been distributed and tens of thousands more of them should be. We send a hundred by mail for 50 cents, or a thousand for $ 3.75.

THE SACRAMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY, or Testimony of Scripture to the Teaching of the Church on Holy Baptism, with special reference to the case of infants, and answers to objections. This is a tract of sufficient interest and value to entitle it to a large sale. Samples sent by mail for 10 cents.

THE REVIVAL SYSTEM AND THE PARACLETE. This is a tract of nearly a hundred pages, the matter of which appeared many years ago in the Church Journal. Many will like to know what the Church Revival system is, and they can find out by reading this tract. Price 12 cents.

THE GOOD WAY; or why Christians, of whatever name, may become Churchmen. The title of this tract explains itself. The price is 15 cents.

CONFIRMATION, or Laying on of Hands; its authority and nature. This is the well known tract by Dr. Fuller. Every clergyman should have a supply. Price 8 cents.

PRACTICAL DIRECTIONS FOR THE OBSERVANCE OF LENT. A Homily for Ash Wednesday. This is the well known Hand Book, of about 60 pp., 24mo. by Bishop Southgate, which he says might have been greatly extended in size, but it was thought better to furnish a few leading hints than to embarrass the mind with multiform directions. It is put up in stiff paper covers, and sold at 8 cents. We will send a dozen, by mail, for 65 cents received with the order.

LOUTRON, or WATER BAPTISM; by the Rev. Samuel Fuller, D. D. There are many Clergymen of the Church who think this the best book in existence to put into the hands of inquirers on the subject of Baptism. Price, in paper covers, 20 cts.

CONSIDERATIONS FOR A CANDID MIND ENQUIRING AFTER DIVINE TRUTH.—Twelve pages 12mo. 3 cents.

THE CHRISTIAN MINISTRY—by the late Rt. Rev. James Hervey Otey, D. D. LL. D. Bishop of the Diocese of Tennessee. Paper covers, 48 pp., 12mo., price 8 cents.

LEGION, OR FEIGNED EXCUSES. By the author of "A letter to a member of a Church Choir." Paper covers, 116 pp. 12mo., price 15 cents.

LETTERS TO A BAPTIST. By a Layman of Alabama. Paper covers, 36 pp., 12mo., price 6 cents.

REVERENCE IN THE SANCTUARY. By a Layman. This book, like many others on this list has been long out of print. It is republished now as one not less needed than when first issued. Put up in handsome covers, 64 pp., 24mo., price 6 cts.

PLAIN WORDS ABOUT INFANT BAPTISM, by Rev. William Burkitt, author of "Expository Notes on the New Testament," 2d ed., with new notes, 124 pp. 18mo. paper covers, 15 cts. Ten copies sent by mail for $ 1.00.

We send to all applicants the following convenient Order List, which those receiving can use for ordering, by simply filling the blanks appropriately.

The subscribers are desirous of being more extensively known as

MANUFACTURERS OF BOOKS.

They have been engaged in the business for over forty years, and have worked for some of the foremost publishing houses in the country—and are now so employed.

But as their works are situated upon a never failing water power and they have been continually increasing their machinery, their powers of production are by no means yet taxed to their utmost.

They have a Paper Mill, Printing Office, Bookbindery and Stereotpye Foundery, all under one roof; they give personal supervision to everything which is done by them, and all their work will be found up to contract.

While they prefer work which is wanted in large editions, they are proportionally grateful for any smaller jobs which may be committed to them.

There is nothing in the shape of a book which they cannot make, but they seek printed work rather than account and other blank books.

They will promptly make estimates on samples or specifications submitted to them for any party meaning business and having the money to pay. They do not wish to buy any copy nor copyrights, but simply to do the manufacturing for those who can and will pay. Their own list of publications is as large as they care to make it and applications need not be made to them to publish at their own risk.

Their prices will be found lower than those of city manufacturers, for the same kind of work, because their expenses are not so great. They do not particularly solicit work which you "don't care how it's done," but still can do cheap work well for a near approach to the price of "slop work" in some places. If you wish any kind of books made, then, from a primer or a tract or advertising circular, to a big dictionary or quarto bible, and from a hundred to a million copies, drop them a line and learn their terms before making your contract.

Yours Truly,

JUSTICES' BLANKS.

The following lists of Blanks for the use of Justices of the Peace in Ohio will be found very complete, and the Blanks themselves of the latest and most approved forms. The publishers have aimed to incorporate into them such improvements as have been suggested from time to time by those most experienced in their use. They are neat, uniform, and printed on good white paper, with the proper blanks for indorsement on the back of each.

The Blanks are arranged somewhat in the order of their use.

The first column indicates the number of Blanks to a sheet, and the second column the price per quire.

JUSTICE'S CIVIL DOCKET.

This Docket has been carefully prepared from the most approved forms, and will recommend itself to general use, for the following reasons:

1. It insures greater uniformity in the proceedings as they appear upon the record, which is very desirable in all that pertains to legal matters.

2. It suggests readily to the Justice the different items required in the Record, and in the Fee Bill in the margin, and somewhat the order in which they occur. Thus, if the suit is an ordinary one by summons, strike out the words "Bond and Affidavit, Complaint," and then record the Bill of Particulars.

If it is a suit in Attachment, strike out "Complaint," and record the Affidavit, etc.

If it is a suit in Replevin, strike out "Bill of Particulars, Bond, and" and "Complaint," and record the Affidavit, etc.

If it is a suit in Forcible Detainer, strike out "Bill of Particulars, Bond, and Affidavit," and record the Complaint, etc.

So in filling the next blank after "Issued Summons," if in Attachment, follow with Order of Attachment and Notice to Garnishee, to (John Smith), Constable, etc.

So in the Marginal Fee List, each item that may arise in ordinary suits is so placed as to call attention to it readily, and thus will be likely to save to the Justice more in Fees than will pay the difference in cost between this and the ordinary blank Docket.

JUSTICE'S CRIMINAL DOCKET.

This Docket possesses all the advantages which have recommended our Civil Dockets, and secured for it general use and favor among the Justices of Ohio. In this, also, we give full Marginal Fee List for Justices and Constables, and which, by calling the attention of the Justice to the Fees to which he is entitled, will, in a short time, more than repay the difference in cost between this and the ordinary blank Docket.

Complete Works of A. J. Davis.

COMPRISING TWENTY-NINE UNIFORM VOLUMES, ALL NEATLY BOUND IN CLOTH.

Principles of Nature: Her Divine Revelations, and a Voice to Mankind.

(In Three Parts.) Thirty-Second Edition, just published, with a likeness of the author, and containing a family record for marriages, births and deaths. This is the first and most comprehensive volume of Mr. Davis, comprising the basis and ample outline of the Harmonial Philosophy. It is a work of unprecedented character, the author being exalted to a position which gave him access to a knowledge of the structure and laws of the whole material and spiritual universe. It treats upon subjects of the profoundest interest and most unspeakable importance to the human race. Its claims are confessedly of the most startling character, and its professed disclosures, with the phenomena attending them, are in some respects unparalleled in the history of psychology..... 3,50

Great Harmonia: Being a Philosophical Revelation of the Natural, Spiritual and Celestial Universe.

In five volumes, in which the principles of the Harmonial Philosophy are more fully elaborated and illustrated.

Vol. I. THE PHYSICIAN. In this volume is considered the Origin and Nature of Man; the Philosophy of Health; the Philosophy of Disease; the Philosophy of Sleep; the Philosophy of Death; the Philosophy of Psychology; and the Philosophy of Healing..... 1,50

Vol. II. THE TEACHER. In this volume is presented the new and wonderful principles of "Spirit and its Culture;" also, a comprehensive and systematic argument on the "Existence of God." Its chapters are entitled: My Early Experience; My Preacher and his Church; the True Reformer; Philosophy of Charity; Individual and Social Culture; the Mission of Woman; the True Marriage; Moral Freedom; Philosophy of Immortality; the Spirit's Destiny: Concerning the Deity..... 1,50

Vol. III. THE SEER. This volume is composed of twenty-seven Lectures on every phase of Magnetism and Clairvoyance in the past and present of human history. The whole ground of Psychology, Clairvoyance and Inspiration is traversed and examined in detail, and the conclusions obtained are believed to be entirely consistent with the principles of Nature, and with the author's personal experience..... 1,50

Vol. IV. THE REFORMER. This volume, devoted to the consideration of "Physiological Vices and Virtues, and the Seven Phases of Marriage," treats upon the uses of the conjugal principle, which tend directly either to demolish or to upbuild man's moral and physical nature; right views of marriage and parentage; woman's rights and wrongs; laws of attraction and marriage; transient and permanent marriage; temperaments; the rights and wrongs of divorce, etc., the entire work acting powerfully in the direction of mankind's regeneration and happiness..... 1,50

Vol. V. THE THINKER. The most comprehensive volume of the series. Part First is a description of the Truthful Thinker, and an analysis of the nature and powers of mind. Part Second—the Pantheon of Progress, comprising psychometrical delineations of Egyptian, Chaldean, Persian, Greek, Pagan, Jew, Christian, Roman and Protestant characters, most prominent and useful in history, with the central ideas taught by each, illustrating the philosophy of universal progress. Part Third—the Origin of Life and the Law of Immortality. No book extant contains any such argument as that running through the chapters on "Immortality," or any such metaphysics as distinguish the "Pantheon of Progress"..... 1,50

Magic Staff. An Autobiography of Andrew Jackson Davis.

A well-authenticated history of the domestic, social, physical and literary career of the author, with his remarkable experiences as a Clairvoyant and Seer. A book of great interest to old and young, containing one of the most singular and touching child-histories ever recorded. It is unlike any of the author's other works, and peculiarly adapted to interest, and at the same time instruct, those unacquainted with his peculiar philosophy. In this volume (including the autobiographical parts of "Arabula" and "Memoranda," which enter largely into the author's personal experiences) the public will find a final answer to all slanders and misrepresentations. Thousands of copies of the "Magic Staff" have been sold in the United States, and the demand, instead of being supplied, is increasing. This work is very attractive to children and young minds, and three or four copies should be in the library of every "Children's Progressive Lyceum."..... 1,75

A Stellar Key to the Summer-Land.

Illustrated with Diagrams and Engravings of Celestial Scenery. The teachings of this grand book are entirely original, and direct the mind and thoughts into channels hitherto wholly unexplored. Designed to furnish scientific and philosophical evidences of the existence of an inhabitable sphere or zone among the suns and planets of space; adapted to all who seek a solid, rational, philosophical foundation on which to rest their hopes of a substantial existence after death. The descriptions of physical scenery and the constitution of the Summer-Land, its location, and domestic life in the spheres, are new and wonderfully interesting. Arabula; or, The Divine Guest.

Preëminently a religious and spiritual volume. "I am Arabula; I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall have light and life; he that loveth me, keepeth my commandments." To some extent a continuation of the author's autobiography, but chiefly a record of deeply interesting religious experiences, involving alternations of faith and skepticism, lights and shades, heaven and hades, joys and sorrows, considered as to their causes. Also containing a new collection of Living Gospels from Ancient and Modern Saints..... 1,50

Approaching Crisis; or, Truth vs. Theology.

This is a close and searching criticism of Dr. Bushnell's Sermons on the Bible, Nature, Religion, Skepticism, and the Supernatural. The errors and absurd teachings of Orthodox clergymen are overthrown by arguments that are pronounced perfectly unanswerable. It is affirmed by many of the most careful readers of Mr. Davis's works, that the best explanation of the "Origin of Evil" is to be found in the Review. Answers to Ever-Recurring Questions from the People.

(A Sequel to "Penetralia.") This popular volume is alive, all through, with new ideas and inspirations. These answers comprise a wide range of subjects, embracing points of peculiar interest and the highest value, connected with the Spiritual Philosophy and Practical Reform. All persons capable of putting a question should read this book, as it will largely serve to awaken inquiry and develop thought on the part of the reader.... 1,50

Children's Progressive Lyceum.

A Manual, with Directions for the Organization and Management of Sunday Schools, adapted to the Bodies and Minds of the Young, and containing Rules, Methods, Exercises, Marches, Lessons, Questions and Answers, Invocations, Silver-Chain Recitations, Hymns and Songs. Lyceum organizers will find it most economical to purchase the Manual in large quantities. Every Lyceum should be well supplied with these little books, so that all, both visitors and members, can unite in singing the songs of the Spirit, and all join as one family in the beautiful Silver-Chain Recitations. The abridged edition is no longer in print, experience having proved the far greater value to Lyceums of the original complete Manual. Death and the After-Life.

Thousands upon thousands of this wonderful little volume have been sold and read. The "Stellar Key" is the philosophical introduction to the revelations contained in this book. We believe Mr. Davis regards this work as Part II. of the "Stellar Key." But most persons read the second part first; then, if any doubts remain in the intellect, the "Key" (Part I.) is the most satisfactory book to read and study. The fact that we are so often compelled to get out new editions of "Death and the After-Life," proves that the thinking public outside, as well as Spiritualists, are deeply impressed with its teachings. Some idea of this little volume may be gained from the following table of contents: 1—Death and the After-Life; 2—Scenes in the Summer-Land; 3—Society in the Summer-Land; 4—Social Centres in the Summer-Land; 5—Winter-Land and Summer-Land; 6—Language and Life in Summer-Land; 7—Material Work for Spiritual Workers; 8—Ultimates in the Summer-Land; 9—Voice from James Victor Wilson. This enlarged edition contains more than double the amount of matter in former editions, and is enriched by a beautiful frontispiece, illustrating the "formation of the Spiritual Body," Paper Covers. 50

Morning Lectures.

A series of Twenty Popular Discourses. This is in many respects the most important and useful work of the author. The range of subjects treated is wide, and the most profound principles and spiritual perceptions are popularized in the form of extemporaneous lectures, and adapted to the daily wants of searchers after knowledge. Many anxious minds may in this volume find the consolation and instruction which they earnestly seek from day to day, but fail to find in more superficial works. The subjects of the various discourses are as follows: Defeats and Victories; the World's True Redeemer; the End of the World; the New Birth; the Shortest Road to the Kingdom of Heaven; the Reign of Anti-Christ; the Spirit and its Circumstances; Eternal Value of Pure Purposes; Wars of the Blood, Brain and Spirit; Truths, Male and Female; False and True Education; the Equalities and Inequalities of Human Nature; Social Centres in the Summer-Land; Poverty and Riches; the Object of Life; Expensiveness of Error in Religion; Winter-Land and Summer-Land; Language and Life in the Summer-Land; Material Work for Spiritual Workers..... 1,50

Harbinger of Health.

Containing Medical Prescriptions for the Human Body and Mind. It is a plain, simple guide to health, with no quackery, no humbug, no universal panacea. It imparts knowledge whereby any individual may be greatly assisted in resisting and overcoming the assaults of disease, and enjoying uninterrupted good health. More than three hundred prescriptions, for the cure of over one hundred forms of disease, are given. As a book of family reference, it is adapted to universal use. The first volume of the "Harmonia" "The Physician," this work, "The Harbinger of Health," and the author's last work, entitled "Mental Disorders, or Diseases of the Brain and Nerves"—these three books alone would make a reliable medical library for a family, or for a student of Philosophy and the Science of Life and Health. Eighteenth edition... 1,50

Harmonial Man; or, Thoughts for the Age.

Designed to enlarge man's views concerning the political and ecclesiastical condition of America, and to point out the paths of reform. Also considers scientific themes which concern man's social and personal happiness, comprising the meteoric laws, and the philosophy of controlling rain. Revised and re-stereotyped, so that this popular work is uniform with the other volumes. Paper..... 50

Memoranda of Persons, Places and Events.

Embracing Authentic Facts, Visions, Impressions, Discoveries in Magnetism, Clairvoyance and Spiritualism. Also, Quotations from the Opposition. With an Appendix, containing Zschokke's Great Story, "Hortensia," vividly portraying the difference between the Ordinary State and that of Clairvoyance. Readers will find a great variety of those fresh and fleeting "impressions" of the inspired seer, carefully set down by his own hand for a period of over twenty-two years, that will let them further than ever into his own nature and the mysterious realms which his vision is permitted to penetrate and search..... 1,50

Philosophy of Special Providences.

The author's "vision" of the harmonious works of the Creator is fully given in this bright little book. He illustrates by a series of clairvoyant visions, and lastly by an "Argument," the whole chain of special providences which mankind attribute to the direct acts of the Deity. Thousands of copies of this delightful and convincing work have been sold, and the demand is on the increase.

Penetralia, Containing Harmonial Answers.

New edition from entirely new plates, printed and published in style of the Harmonia. This work, which at the time was styled by the author "the wisest book" from his pen, has been long prominently before the American public. While the topics are mainly theological and spiritual, many questions of practical interest and value are answered, thus rendering the volume an acquisition to the student and philosopher, as well as the theologian. Some of the chapters are overflowing with rare and glorious revelations of the realities of the world beyond the grave..... 1,75 Philosophy of Spiritual Intercourse.

Here are the contents: The Guardianship of Spirits; the Discernment of Spirits; the Stratford Mysteries; the Doctrine of Evil Spirits; the Origin of Spirit Sounds; Concerning Sympathetic Spirits; the Formation of Circles; the Resurrection of the Dead; A Voice from the Spirit-Land; the True Religion. This work has been translated into the French and German, and is deservedly very popular. It contains an account of the very wonderful Spiritual Developments at the house of Rev. Dr. Phelps, Stratford, Conn., and similar cases in all parts of the country. This volume is the first from the author directly on the subject of "Spiritualism," and its positions and principles and good counsels have stood the test of twenty years of the most varied and searching experiences by thousands of mediums and investigators. It is now offered in a new and beautiful form, with only a slight advance upon the price of the old editions. In cloth binding.. 1,25

The Inner Life; or, Spirit Mysteries Explained.

This is a Sequel to "Philosophy of Spiritual Intercouse," recently revised and enlarged. It presents a compend of the Harmonial Philosophy of "Spiritualism," with illustrative facts of spiritual intercourse, both ancient and modern, and a thorough and original treatise upon the laws and conditions of mediumship. It comprises a Survey of Human Needs; Definition of Philosophy and Spiritualism; the Spiritual Congress; Visions at High Rock Cottage; the Delegations and Exordia; Table of Explanation; Classification of Media; Classification of Causes; Revelations from Pandemonium; Assertion vs. Fact; Voice to the Insane; Benefits of Experience; Phenomena of the Spiritual Spheres. The Temple: On Diseases of the Brain and Nerves.

Developing the Origin and Philosophy of Mania, Insanity and Crime; with full Directions and Prescriptions for their Treatment and Cure. This large, handsome volume treats the question of Insanity and Crime from a Spiritual and Psychological standpoint. Herein we find a comprehensive and thorough exposition of the various diseases of the brain and nerves, in which he develops the origin and philosophy of mania, insanity and crime, and presents the reader with full directions for their treatment and cure. No subject on the roll of modern treatment appeals with more vivid force to the general attention, as there certainly is none from which the public might expect more satisfactory treatment from a clairvoyant like Mr. Davis. A "Glossary," giving the definition and pronunciation of difficult words, is printed at the end of the volume. The book contains 460 pages, is beautifully printed and bound, uniform with the "Harmonia," "Harbinger of Health," etc., with an Original Frontispiece illustrative of "Mother Nature Casting (D)evils Out of Her Children." The Fountain: With Jets of New Meanings.

Illustrated with 142 Engravings. Beautiful paper, fine press-work, superior binding. The contents of two chapters (viz: XIII and XIV) in this original book brought down upon Mr. Davis the alarming charge of "Recantation." But while the criticisms on the errors and extremes of many in the ranks of Spiritualism are conceded to be just and timely, the charge that the author had "gone back" on the spiritual facts and principles is seen to be without foundation. In fact, this attractive little volume is teeming with thoughts for men and pictures for children. The young, as well as the old, can read it, and study its lessons and illustrations with ever-increasing pleasure and profit. It covers a wide range of topics, including much needed lessons upon the Mission and Treatment of Dumb Animals; the Essential Conditions of Human Progress; of Advancing Civilization; the Claims and Rights of Labor, of Women, of Indians, of Children, and of the Unfortunate and Vicious. Cloth binding, in good style..... 1,00

Tale of a Physician; or, The Seeds and Fruits of Crime.

In Three Parts—complete in one volume. Part I—Planting the Seeds of Crime; Part II—Trees of Crime in Full Bloom; Part III—Reaping the Fruits of Crime. A wonderfully interesting book. Society is unveiled. Individual miseries, and the great crimes caused by circumstances, are brought to light. Mr. Davis has, after twenty years, fulfilled his promise. (See his sketch of a night visit to a Cave on Long Island, detailed in "The Inner Life.") In this volume the reader is introduced to distinguished men and noted women in New Orleans, Cuba, Paris and New York. The startling trials and tragical events of their lives are truthfully recorded. This book is as attractive as the most thrilling romance, and yet it explains the producing causes of theft, murder, suicide, fœticide, infanticide, and the other nameless evils which afflict society and alarm all the friends of humanity.

Sacred Gospels of Arabula.

(Just published.) This attractive little volume has been long needed. It is a complete compend (republished from "Arabula,") of the sacred and wonderful "Inspirations of Original Saints"—writers, both women and men whom the popular churches have combined to ostracise and reject as unorthodox and Infidel. Mr. Davis has summoned these martyrs to popular opinion, and the result is this needed publication, which, in its loftiness of purpose, catholicity of spirit, and wealth of research, cannot but be regarded as the flowering forth of the life and labors of the gifted writer.

The beauty of language, the depth of religious purity, the reverential and profound philosophy, which characterize the contents of this truly entitled "Sacred Book," will endear it to every sincere lover of truth. We expect to sell thousands of copies in a few months. We have published this little volume in first-rate style, in both plain and ornamental covers, and uniform with the previous series of volumes. It is especially adapted to interest and convince skeptics, and not less to delight and strengthen the faith of enlightened believers.

Darwinism vs. Spiritualism; or, The Conflict between Darwinism and Spiritualism.

A pamphlet of nearly forty pages, treating of The Five Forces; The Genesis of Man; The Early Appearance of the Fœtus; The Unity of the Human Species; Sexual Selection; The Line of Demarcation between Plants and Animals, and between Animals and Men; Have Insects and Animals Immortal Souls? The Growth and Destiny of Man. In this valuable and pungent pamphlet the author treats of the origin of primal man; of the unity of the human species; of the gradations of human progress; of sexual selections, etc., etc. Admitting evolution, he denies the Darwin doctrine that man descended from animals. He draws very pointedly the line of demarcation between men and animals, and between animals and plants. While allowing that insects and animals of earth think and reason, he denies their individualized immortality, taking the ground that those seen by clairvoyants were the outbirths of the spirit spheres. Footfalls on the Boundary of Another World.*

With narrative illustrations. This is a standard work, without which no library is complete. The author's comprehensive researches are mainly directed to the evidence of spontaneous manifestations from the spiritual world, and to this end ancient and modern times and people are made to contribute authentic facts in large numbers. The many-phased phenomena are carefully analyzed and compared, and the general tendency of all shown to demonstrate the reality of a spiritual world in immediate relationship with the material. The spirit and temper of the book are sincere and genuine, and the entire subject is presented with the utmost clearness and felicity. Cloth..... 1,75

Debatable Land between this World and the Next.

The main object of this book is to afford conclusive proof, aside from historical evidence, of immortality. It shows that we of to-day have the same evidence on that subject as the apostles had. More than half the volume consists of narratives in proof of this—narratives that will seem marvelous—incredible at first sight, to many—yet which are sustained by evidence as strong as that which daily determines, in our courts of law, the life and death of men. This book affirms that the strongest of all historical evidences for modern Spiritualism are found in the Gospels, and that the strongest of all proof going to substantiate the Gospel narratives are found in the phenomena of Spiritualism. Works of Henry C. Wright.

[His books are truly religious, in the best sense, without doctrinal and pulpit cant—manly and pure, frankly addressed to the real wants of men and women, to their present condition, to save their bodies and their minds, to develop the heaven of the day that is passing, and to recommend its bliss in preference to the theological prospective kind, which is a reward for soundness of doctrine rather than for soundness of body and soul.]

Empire of the Mother over the Character and Destiny of the Race.

The author's earnest style excites the deepest and most serious thought, the profoundest aspiration; and his arguments, with facts for their basis, carry the conviction that pre-natal education, like inception and organization, rests solely with the soul and body of the mother. Paper..... 50

Errors of the Bible, Demonstrated by the Truths of Nature; or, Man's only Infallible Rule of Faith and Practice.

Twelve years of the author's life were spent in an earnest study of the Bible, in the languages in which it purports to have been written, conscientiously believing that in searching it he should find eternal life. What he did find—its truths and its errors—is here stated with characteristic plainness and ability. Fourth edition. Paper..... 35

Works of Moses Hull.

Question Settled: A Careful Comparison of Biblical and Modern Spiritualism.

The author's aim, faithfully to compare the Bible with modern phenomena and philosophy, has been ably accomplished. The Adaptation of Spiritualism to the Wants of Humanity; Its Moral Tendency; the Bible Doctrine of Angel Ministry; the Spiritual Nature of Man, and the Objections Offered to Spiritualism, are all considered in the light of Nature, history, reason and common sense, and expressed clearly and forcibly. Cloth, beveled boards..... 1,50

Which: Spiritualism or Christianity?

A Friendly Correspondence between Moses Hull, Spiritualist, and W. F. Parker, Christian. Rev. Mr. Parker is one of the most eloquent preachers and debaters in the West, and has presented his side of the question at issue with more than ordinary acumen; thus enabling Mr. Hull to meet the opposition to Spiritualism in its strongest form. The letters are friendly, logical, witty and caustic. They will not only instruct but thoroughly amuse those who read them. Cloth..... 75 Contrast: Evangelicalism and Spiritualism Compared.

This new work by Mr. Hull—the well-known lecturer on Spiritualism—is designed as a companion to the "Question Settled." It is a most able production, and is a perfect storehouse of facts for those who wish to defend Spiritualism, or find arguments against the assumptions of Orthodoxy. The following are some of the subjects treated on: What is Spiritualism? Comparative Evidence of the Bible and Spiritualism; Teachings of the Bible and Spiritualism; The Mission of Spiritualism; The Cui Bono of Spiritualism; Minor Questions; Acts of the Apostles and Spiritualism; More of the Same; What is Evangelicalism? Works of Prof. William Denton.

Geology: The Past and Future of our Planet.

This is a book for the masses—a book that should be read by every intelligent man in the country. He tells the Story of Creation, as reported in "the great volume of Nature," in a masterly manner, and with a fascination that arrests attention. Crowding a great amount of information into his pages, and divesting them of technicalities in which the science of Geology is so frequently obscured, he treats of the External Appearance of the Earth, and its Internal Structure; the Immense Age of the Earth; Progress of the Globe to this Time; Poetry in Geology; A Backward-Looking Time; Tendency of Mankind to Look into the Future; and the Destiny of the Earth..... 1,50

A Common Sense View of King David and His Times.

By H. H. Mason, A. M. For the purpose of presenting King David and His Times in a full and impartial light, it is proposed, in this history, to remove the illusive veils thrown around them by a superstition possessed of the dangerous power to blind, and bend in slavish submission at its shrine, all who, moved either by honest conviction or craftily concealed hypocrisy, yield themselves up to its influence. All about Charles H. Foster, the Wonderful Medium.

The compiler of this work, George C. Bartlett, says in the introduction: "While making an extended tour through the principal cities of the United States with Mr. Foster, I made it my especial business to invite the editors of the principal newspapers and journals to investigate the phenomena as they occurred in Mr. Foster's presence. The reader must bear in mind that, in nearly every case, these articles have been written by men who are opposed to Spiritualism. In some instances, we are compelled to say, that on account of the unpopularity of the cause in some quarters, it was deemed inexpedient by the writers to give the more incredible and startling occurrences as they were witnessed. Notwithstanding this, this little volume is put forth with the hope that it may lead persons to investigate these phenomena, who, unbelieving now, may be led to believe in a spiritual life. This accomplished, it will not go forth in vain." Paper..... 15

Biography of Mrs. J. H. Conant, the World's Medium of the 19th Century.

This book contains a history of the Mediumship of Mrs. Conant from childhood to the present time: together with extracts from the diary of her physician; selections from letters received verifying spirit communications given through her organism at the Banner of Light Free Circles; and spirit messages, essays and invocations from various intelligences in the other life. The whole being prefaced with opening remarks from the pen of Allen Putnam, Esq., who says, in his "Prefatory Remarks," "Objection was made to styling Mrs. Conant the 'World's Medium' on the title page. The reply was that for many years the doors of her circle-room have, tri-weekly, been thrown freely open to the world—to all comers whatsoever, and that it is in this sense only—viz., her accessibility by the world, and the extent to which the world has approached her, that she is here called the World's Medium." This volume, so long in contemplation, presents the skeptic, in a condensed form, an Earnest, Unequivocal and Individual Example of the Good wrought by Spiritualism. Its perusal cannot fail to cheer our struggling Media, by reason of the lessons flowing from the early trials and hardships borne by this most remarkable instrument of communion between the worlds of embodied and disembodied mind. Its pages will portray to the public, in a highly definitive degree, a view of the work being wrought through the feeble of earth to the astonishment of the wise, for the liberalizing and spiritualizing of public opinion. Read it, doubters of immortality, and refute its proofs if you can! Peruse it, hearts who grow weary of the battle of life, whatever be your creed, and be comforted! Examine it, Spiritualists, and find therein proof-texts, incidents and arguments which cannot fail of bringing to you even a stronger conviction of the verity of your philosophy! A fine Steel Plate Portrait of the Medium adorns the work. 324 pp., cloth..... 1,50

Bible Marvel-Workers, and the Power which helped or made them perform Mighty Works, and utter Inspired Words; together with some Personal Traits and Characteristics of Prophets, Apostles and Jesus, or New Readings of "The Miracles."

By Allen Putnam, A. M., author of "Natty, a Spirit;" "Spirit Works Real, but Not Miraculous;" "Mesmerism, Spiritualism, Witchcraft and Miracle;" "Tipping his Tables," etc., etc., etc. Mr. Putnam has here, in his uniformly candid and calm spirit, furnished an unusually vivid, interesting and instructive volume of about 240 pages. He here allows what he incidentallycalls "The Guide-Book of Christendom" to tell the story of its own origin and character, and mostly in its own words and facts. Biblical light leads his way, and as he moves on he finds and points out fact after fact, view after view, meaning after meaning, attaching to old familiar mental pictures and forms of Bible scenes and personages which possess the charm of novelty, while they generate conviction that they are true and valuable. Without questioning the genuineness or truth of any part of the Bible itself, and without attack upon any sect, denomination or individual, Mr. Putnam, following the clear leadings of light which John the revelator furnished, examines most of the prominent Bible marvels and personages, and presents to the public a work which will show to most readers spots where they have been accustomed to overlook very plain and distinct information lying upon the very surface of our English Bible, which, if recognized, will lead devoted lovers of the Bible, and its contemners also, to estimate it with discriminating justice. The book is simple and easy to be understood; (the author says that it is written for the masses, rather than for scholars and critics;) and it is well adapted to supply the wants it is intended to meet. The character and merits of this book need only acquaintanceship to make it a popular favorite. Cloth. 1,25

Child's Guide to Spiritualism.

By Lucy M. Burgess. The author of this little work has performed her task in the face of a great difficulty, viz., the opposition of Spiritualists to anything savoring of creeds; but the best wisdom is to avail ourselves of everything of which we can make a proper use in the important matter of training the minds of our children. It is to them we must look in the future for the harmonious carrying out of those plans which dwellers on the other shore are constantly developing. We take great pains to impress the minds of grown up people with the truths of Spiritualism. Spiritualists have no schools. Our children attend schools where orthodox ideas are constantly instilled, and it is our duty to do all we can to counteract such influences, for the children absorb orthodox ideas almost without knowing it. This work, then, has been undertaken from the feeling that there was urgent need of it. Flexible cloth covers..... 25

Claims of Spiritualism: Embracing the Experience of an Investigator.

By a Medical Man. This intensely interesting narrative of personal experience in the investigation of Spiritualism through mediums, by a medical gentleman of education and religious culture, is written in so fair and candid a spirit as most happily to disarm all prejudice at the outset, while he at once interests the sympathies of the reader in his cautious but thorough methods of investigation, so that if one does not inevitably adopt his conclusions, he at least desires to repeat the experiments for himself. Debatable Land between this World and the Next.

By Robert Dale Owen. The main object of this book is to afford conclusive proof, aside from historical evidence, of immortality. It shows that we of to-day have the same evidence on that subject as the apostles had. This book affirms that the strongest of all historical evidences for modern Spiritualism are found in the Gospels, and that the strongest of all proof going to substantiate the Gospel narratives are found in the phenomena of Spiritualism. Does Matter Do It All?

A Reply to Professor Tyndall's Latest Attack on Spiritualism. By Epes Sargent. We need not commend this carefully worded paper to public attention. After answering in becoming terms the Professor's unmannerly gibe at Spiritualism, Mr. Sargent takes up what the same assailant has to say of "the promise and potency of matter," as the sufficient factor in explanation of the mind manifest in the universe, and presses home some pretty sharp proofs of Mr. Tyndall's superficial accomplishments as a metaphysician. This reply will, we think, claim a good deal of attention, not only from Spiritualists, but from the religious public, as it shows strikingly some of the weak points of modern materialism. Paper..... 5

Danger Signals; An Address on the Uses and Abuses of Modern Spiritualism.

By Mary F. Davis. This eloquent and comprehensive pamphlet is especially needed in the present "crisis." While it reveals the sublime inner life of true Spiritualism, it most pointedly and compactly portrays the errors and abuses that abound. Mrs. Davis's effective utterances at once protect the friends and enlighten the enemies of truth and progress. Her timely discourse should and will have a very extensive circulation. It is something you can safely hand to a skeptical neighbor. Paper..... 15

Death, in the Light of the Harmonial Philosophy.

By Mary F. Davis. A whole volume of philosophical truth is condensed into this little pamphlet. "The truth about Death," says the author, "never breaks upon us until the light of the Spiritual Universe shines into the deep darkness of the doubting mind. Until this higher revelation is given to the understanding, the outward fact of Death strikes one with the awful force of Fate." The following subjects are treated: Universal Unity of Things; Nature Without and Within Man; The Absolute Certainty of Death; The Soul's Supremacy to Death; Degrading Teachings of Theology; The Infallible Teachings of Nature; Harmonial Views of Life and Destiny; Man, the Highest Organization; The Reality and Experiences of Death; Spiritual Intercourse through Spirit-Culture; The Soul and its Aspirations Identical; The Last Scene of All. Flashes of Light from the Spirit-Land:

Through the Mediumship of Mrs. J. H. Conant. Compiled and Arranged by Allen Putnam, author of "Spirit Works;" "Natty, a Spirit;" "Mesmerism, Spiritualism, Witchcraft and Miracle," etc., etc. This comprehensive volume of more than four hundred pages will present to the reader a wide range of useful information, scientific disquisition, theologic explication, geographic description and spiritual revelation. The disembodied minds of Theodore Parker, William Ellery Channing, Thomas Paine, Rev. Henry Ware, and many other distinguished lights of the past, here speak to the embodied intelligences of to-day. Their utterances, as given through the lips of Mrs. J. H. Conant, recorded by the pen of the phonographic scribe, and published from time to time in the Message Department, on the sixth page of the Banner of Light, have awakened the greatest interest in society concerning the origin of man, the duty devolving upon each individual, and the destiny of the race, as treated from the several standpoints which the freedom from artificial constraint, and the added light of the spirit-world, render inevitable to the reflecting soul entering it in obedience to the fiat of natural law. The book is composed of extracts from answers to some of the most important questions proposed at the Banner of Light Free Circles. Cloth..... 1,50

Footfalls on the Boundary of Another World.*

With narrative illustrations. By Robert Dale Owen. This is a standard work, without which no library is complete. The author's comprehensive researches are mainly directed to the evidence of spontaneous manifestations from the spiritual world, and to this end ancient and modern times and people are made to contribute authentic facts in large numbers. The many-phased phenomena are carefully analyzed and compared, and the general tendency of all shown to demonstrate the reality of a spiritual world in immediate relationship with the material. The spirit and temper of the book are sincere and genuine, and the entire subject is presented with the utmost clearness and felicity. Cloth..... 1,75

Golden Memories of an Earnest Life. A Biography of A. B. Whiting: Together with Selections from His Poetical Compositions and Prose Writings.

Compiled by his sister, R. Augusta Whiting. This work is published in response to the general demand for a reliable resumé of the life, labors and wonderful mediumistic experiences of our arisen fellow-laborer in the cause of human freedom and progress. It has been carefully prepared by his sister, from his own journals and letters; and from her intimate personal knowledge of all the important facts embodied, cannot fail to be accurate in every particular. This book is one that will be of interest to every Spiritualist, and to all who are interested in rare and curious developments of mental phenomena, while the travel and adventures of seventeen years of public life furnish incidents both instructive and amusing for the general reader. Part second of the work contains a number of beautiful poems, including the words of many of his songs, both published and unpublished. With this exception none of the poems have ever before appeared. Mr. J. M. Peebles furnishes a characteristic introduction. The book is embellished with a fine Steel Portrait of the individual whose life it portrays. Cloth..... 1,50

†Hafed, Prince of Persia:

His Experiences in Earth-Life and Spirit-Life, being Spirit Communications received through Mr. David Duguid, the Glasgow Trance-Painting Medium, with an Appendix, containing Communications from the Spirit Artists Ruisdal and Steen. Illustrated by Fac-similes of Forty-five Drawings and Writings, the Direct Work of the Spirits. This strange book can be outlined to the general reader only by offering selections from it. The medium, David Duguid, a Scotch cabinet-maker, has for some time past attracted special attention to himself for his remarkable powers; and this stout volume is the result of the service to which the spirits have put him, containing as it does the most striking communications from ancient spirits, who made paintings and drawings in his presence without the help of human hands. These pictures illustrate the communications, which are historical in the most genuine sense. We can only say that they are wonderful for their simplicity, their beauty, and their direct power. Hafed lived on earth 1900 years ago, was a Persian chief or prince, afterwards a priest and head of the Magi, and in old age a follower of Christ, for whose sake he suffered martyrdom. Mental-Cure.

Illustrating the Influence of the Mind on the Body, both in Health and Disease, and the Psychological Method of Treatment. By Rev. W. F. Evans. The design of this original treatise is to explain the nature and laws of the inner life of man, and to contribute some light on the subject of Mental Hygiene, which is beginning to assume importance in the treatment of disease, and to attract the attention of physiologists. The author has aimed to illustrate the correspondence of the soul and body, their mutual action and reaction, and to demonstrate the casual relation of disordered mental states to diseased physiological action, and the importance and mode of regulating the intellectual and affectional nature of the invalid under any system of medical treatment. Mystery of Edwin Drood, Completed by the Spirit-pen of Chas. Dickens.*

The press declare this work to be written in "Dickens's happiest vein!" To show the demand there is for it, it may be well to state that the first edition of 10,000 copies was sold in advance of the press. The Boston Traveller of July 28th, 1873, says: "Since last Christmas the medium has been at work steadily and assiduously, producing a work which resembles Dickens so closely as to make one start, as though hearing the voice of one long silent in the grave. The style, to the very minutiæ of chapter headings, is thoroughly Dickensian. If Mr. Charles Dickens had written the work, we should say that he had inherited his father's ability and manner to a greater degree than the heir of any other literary man with whom we are acquainted." From the Hartford (Conn.) Times: "It is almost equally remarkable, whether one regards it as a literary fraud or a real manifestation of some of the mysterious and puzzling phenomena of Spiritualism. One thing is apparent: the quoted extracts from the ghostly second volume do, undeniably, exhibit many characteristics of Dickens as a writer." There are forty-three chapters in the whole work, which embrace that portion of it written prior to the decease of the great author, making one complete volume of about 500 pages, in handsome cloth binding. Man and His Relations:*

Illustrating the Influence of the Mind on the Body; the relations of the faculties and affections to the organs and their functions, and to the elements, objects, and phenomena of the external world. By Prof. S. B. Brittan. For fifteen years the author has been employed in researches which have at length resulted in the production of this extraordinary book, covering the wide range of Vital and Mental Phenomena, as exhibited in Man and the Animal World. It is, however, especially devoted to Man—to the constitution and immortal existence of the Soul; its present Relations to the Body; to the external forms and internal principles of Nature, and to the realm of Universal Intelligence. Poems from the Inner Life.

By Lizzie Doten. Tenth edition. This handsome volume opens with the wonderful experiences of the author, who is peculiarly gifted as a trance medium and public speaker. Her platform labors have for a long time been unceasing, and the deep religious and spiritual tone of her discourses have extended her influence far beyond the limit of her voice, through the instrumentality of the press. But it is chiefly for her mediumistic power to give utterance to poems noble, exalted and thrilling, pervaded with a spirit religious and elevating, that she is most specially known. This volume contains the gems of the inspirational utterances, given chiefly before public audiences, under direct spirit influence. Several of them are attributed to the spirit of Edgar A. Poe. They have all the rhythmic beauty, grandeur and imagery of his productions in earth-life, but far surpass these in exaltedness of conception and purity of purpose. Others are by the inspiration of Shakspeare, Burns, A. W. Sprague; but in many cases the author's name is not recorded. The Biographical Introduction gives a succinct account of the means by which these poems are given to the world. The peculiar influence which each spirit exercised over the medium is stated, and the unmistakable certainty and significance of this higher phase of spiritual communion is beautifully portrayed. The book is a valuable addition to the evidences in favor of spirit intercourse, and of its ennobling tendencies. Cloth.

Poems of Progress.

By Miss Lizzie Doten, author of "Poems from the Inner Life." Illustrated with a fine steel engraving of the inspired author. These beautiful "Songs of the Angels" should be in every household, as every Spiritualist, every free-thinker, every reformer, and every lover of the good, the beautiful and the true, will find in these noble poems a source of inspiration and strength. A quality of spirit pervades these utterances that seems to run through the gamut of all soul experiences, and every heart finds acquaintance in them. Unrest is quelled and made calm; the storms of passion, the blindness of desire and the griefs of sorrow and discouragement are by turns subdued, cured and assuaged under their beneficent influence. The structure of her verse is remarkably smooth and harmonious, and its melody well becomes such genuine sermons in song. Her ear is quick to detect faulty rhythms, while she possesses a happy faculty of marrying sound to sense. The intellectual and spiritual quality of Lizzie Doten's poems, far more even than their high literary merit, commend this volume and the "Poems from the Inner Life" to the highest appreciation of the public, and the widest circulation. Poems.

By the well-known medium, Achsa W. Sprague. A brief sketch of the gifted author precedes these poems. She was for many years a public speaker on the Spiritual Philosophy, having been developed for the work by spirit influence. Her health ultimately failed, and during convalescence she dictated many poems, only a selection from which appears under the above title. "The Poet," containing four thousand six hundred lines, was committed to paper in seventy-two hours, and was finished within three weeks of its commencement. It is a colloquial production, and describes the career and powers of an "Improvisatrice"—one endowed with the mediumistic gift by which this volume was produced. Another dramatic poem of three thousand lines was completed in four and a half days. The volume is replete with lofty thought and valuable instruction. Cloth..... 1,00

Planchette; or, The Despair of Science.*

By Epes Sargent. This is a clear and intelligible account of modern Spiritualism, its phenomena, and the various theories regarding it. It is a complete library, with a convenient index for the reader's reference at the end. It supplies the history of the modern developments in a form most convenient to refer to, furnishes all the material needed to enlighten even a cursory reader respecting their significance, reviews the manifestations of the past so as to trace the great law of communication visibly through the life of man, and spreads out a map of the whole subject, including the various phases of its development, through all classes of media and every sort of condition, up to the present time. It is wonderfully interesting, and characterized by perfect freedom from extravagance of manner or opinion. Cloth..... 1,25

Problem of Life and Immortality.

An inquiry into the Origin, Composition and Destiny of Man. A Lecture delivered before the Boston Young Men's Christian Union, Jan. 3, 1861: with Recent Additions. By Loring Moody. This book deals with the grandest problem which can challenge human thought, in a clear, strong, common-sense way, and so freed from the high-sounding phrases and obscure methods of the metaphysician as to be easily understood by the commonest minds. The proofs of God (or an Infinite Intelligence, which presides over and operates through the varied processes of the universe,) are drawn altogether from the facts of Nature, and are so clearly, strongly and logically stated, that there is no escape from the conclusions reached. The appendix of the work is wholly devoted to an exposure of the weaknesses and fallacies of materialism. Cloth..... 75

Spirit Invocations;

Or, Prayers and Praises publicly offered at the Banner of Light Circle-Room Free Meetings, by more than One Hundred Different Spirits, of various Nationalities and Religions, through the Vocal Organs of the late Mrs. J. H. Conant. Compiled by Allen Putnam, A. M., author of "Bible Marvel-Workers," "Natty, a Spirit," "Spirit Works Real, but not Miraculous," etc. Mr. Putnam has with skillful hand arranged in this volume, in comprehensive fashion, many living gems of thought, which are clothed in eloquence of diction, and thrill the prayerful heart with spiritual fervor. From the soulful petitions scattered through its pages the doubters of Spiritualism's capability to minister to the devotional side of man's nature can draw ample proof that he is in error. The weary of heart will find in its holy breathings for strength, sent out to a higher power, rest from the cares that so keenly beset the pilgrim in life's highway. The sick in soul may from its demonstrations of the divine possibilities within, drink of the waters of spiritual healing and rejoice; and the desolate mourner can compass, through its unvailment of the certainty of reünion with the departed, a consolation which nothing earthly can take away. The persistent existence of the human soul, the ennobling power of the future state, the gradual bettering of even mortal conditions, the glorious culmination of progression under the great law of the Infinite, and the sure presence over all and in all of the eternal spirit of Truth, are here acknowledged and set forth in earnest, fearless, and yet reverent guise, by many leading minds in their day and generation, the walls of whose widely differing earth conditions have fallen at the touch of the great Angel of Change, and who have become blended by after-development into a band of brothers in the pursuit of Truth—a glorious prophecy of what mankind shall yet be when the Kingdom of that Truth shall come, and its will be done on earth as in the heavens! Spiritual Pilgrim: A Biography of James M. Peebles.

THIRD EDITION—REVISED AND CORRECTED.

By J. O. Barrett. Preface by Emma Hardinge. With a fine steel portrait of Mr. Peebles. Perhaps none of the phenomenal personages of the spiritual movement can furnish a more striking, instructive and interesting theme for the biographer than J. M. Peebles. His early education and connection with the ministry in phases of religious belief utterly opposed to the great modern revelation; his long, patient and self-sacrificing labors for the promotion of Spiritualism, when, Saul-like, he became inspired as its apostle; his admirable and scholarly contributions to its literature, and the vast geographical areas over which his experiences have extended in both hemispheres—all contribute to render this biography at once one of the most interesting and important that the movement can furnish. The Spirits' Book;

Containing the Principles of Spiritist Doctrine on the Immortality of the Soul: the Nature of Spirits and their Relations with Men: the Moral Law: the Present Life, the Future Life, and the Destiny of the Human Race, according to the Teachings of Spirits of high degree, transmitted through various Mediums, collected and set in order by Allan Kardec. Translated from the French, from the Hundred and Twentieth Thousand, by Anna Blackwell. At an hour when many skeptics, trained to the need of text books for aid in searching out knowledge concerning life and its belongings, both now and to come, are turning their attention to the claims of the Spiritual Philosophy, this sterling volume is calculated to fill an important place in the popular demand, and to do much good by the enlightenment of the inquiring. It is also a work which the oldest and most confirmed disciple of the Spiritual Dispensation can consult and mentally digest with profit. The translator's preface, by Anna Blackwell, giving as it does a fine and readable sketch of Rivail's (or "Kardec's") experiences, and the exquisitely finished steel-plate portrait of this celebrated gentleman, are of themselves worth almost the entire price of the book. Printed from duplicate English plates, on fine tinted paper, large 12mo, 438 pp., cloth, beveled boards, black and gold..... 1,75

By Kersey Graves. Second edition, corrected and revised. This wonderful and exhaustive volume by Mr. Graves will, we are certain, take high rank as a book of reference in the field which he has chosen for it. The amount of mental labor necessary to collate and compile the varied information contained in it must have been severe and arduous indeed, and now that it is in such convenient shape the student of free thought will not willingly allow it to go out of print. But the book is by no means a mere collation of views or statistics; throughout its entire course the author—as will be seen by his title-page and chapter heads—follows a definite line of research and argument to the close, and his conclusions go, like sure arrows, to the mark. Printed on fine white paper, large 12mo, 380 pages. Fifth edition, revised and corrected, with portrait of author..... 2,00

The Truths of Spiritualism.

Immortality Proved beyond a Doubt by Living Witnesses. By E. V. Wilson, the Seer. Compiled from twenty-five years' experience of what he saw and heard. The author presents this volume of facts—tests from spirit-life given in every part of our country, and approved by those to whom they were given. They are but a few selected from many thousand registered in his diary. The facts are given as they occurred, and can be vouched for by writing to any of the places referred to. Printed on fine tinted paper, cloth, 12mo, 400 pp..... 2,00

The Two Ways of Salvation:*

The Theological and the Rational, logically and dispassionately considered. By Dr. Dean Clarke. To all who believe in the Vicarious Atonement, this brochure is most respectfully and hopefully dedicated as a means of spiritual emancipation and enlightenment. "Prove all things, and hold fast that which is good."—St. Paul. The author does not fear but rather covets criticism upon his arguments, as his sole desire is to find and teach the Truth; and he submits his views to the candid judgment of every reader, asking acceptance of only so much as is logically proven, while he hopes that no one may be offended by his fearless criticism of beliefs long held as sacred. Two Bibles of the Nineteenth Century; also, The Unity of God.

Lectures by Emma Hardinge and Thomas Gales Forster. Bound together, making a neat pamphlet of thirty-two pages octavo. Mrs. Hardinge's lecture is a vigorous attack on the plenary inspiration dogma of the Church, and an earnest criticism of evangelical authority, well calculated to arrest the attention of thoughtful believers. The lecture by Mr. Forster is an attack on Trinitarianism. 20

Twenty Years on the Wing.

Brief narrative of travels and labors as a Missionary sent forth and sustained by the Association of Beneficents in Spirit-Land. By John Murray Spear. Preface by Allen Putnam. Careful students of the spiritualistic literature which the last twenty-five years have been furnishing, have noticed from time to time allusions to, and occasionally rather distinct accounts of, extensive associations of spirits in the spirit-world, whose special purpose was and is to devise and use ways and means for systematic and extensive action upon men, with a view to reform and improve the religious, civil, social, domestic, and individual condition of the dwellers upon earth. This work describes such an organization—the Association of Beneficents—the members of which chose and set apart Mr. Spear to execute their schemes. Paper. 47 pp..... 20

The Life.

The main object of this little volume is to give to suggestive teaching a recognition and a force (in the domain of religion and morals) greater than dictation has. It announces a system of life. It announces a few primal principles which can hardly be denied by any one, and endeavors to show how, from adherence to those principles, every life will grow into symmetry—into harmony with itself in this life and the great hereafter. It is sent forth to the world by its author and his associates, as the preface indicates, without the hope or possibility of pecuniary profit to them—small fruit of some of the principles it aims to inculcate. So far as its author and his associates are concerned, their names are, and will remain, a secret alike to the publishers and to the world. Cloth..... 50

The Clergy a Source of Danger to the American Republic.

By W. F. Jamieson. This is a book of 331 pages, which is destined to accomplish a much needed work with the masses, by acquainting them with the dangers which threaten our Republic at the hands of the Christain priesthood, who, the author is fully persuaded, are America's worst enemies—worse than slave-holders ever were, more dangerous to civil liberty, and more unprincipled in their attacks upon it. The Gadarene; or, Spirits in Prison.

By J. O. Barrett and J. M. Peebles. The motto of this critical work indicates its general drift—Try the Spirits! It demonstrates the moral ratios of life, the parallels of ancient and modern obsessions, and the uses and abuses of mediumship. It covers a vast extent of religious and scientific history. It is merciless to evil, charitable to the good, forgiving in its spirit to the fallen. It points out the way of release from obsessing influences, and pleads for a higher order of inspiration and culture. Bound in cloth, 232 pp..... 1,25

Voices: A Poem in Four Parts.

By Warren Sumner Barlow. One of the most trenchant yet sensible satires on the notions, superstitions, dogmas and inconsistent practices of ecclesiasticism extant. A unique, original and living poem, containing philosophy, argument, narrative, satire, wit, humor, and scorching tests of the truth as professed and as proven. Part I—The Voice of Nature; Part II—The Voice of a Pebble; Part III—The Voice of Superstition; Part IV—The Voice of Prayer. THE VOICE OF NATURE represents God in the Light of Reason and Philosophy—in his unchangeable and glorious attributes. THE VOICE OF A PEBBLE delineates the individuality of Matter and Mind, fraternal Charity and Love. THE VOICE OF SUPERSTITION takes the creeds at their word, and proves by numerous passages from the Bible that the God of Moses has been defeated by Satan, from the Garden of Eden to Mount Calvary! THE VOICE OF PRAYER aims to inculcate the idea that no law is suspended, should earth everywhere unite in one chorus to swell the same prayer. Sixth edition, cloth, with a new steel-plate portrait of author..... 1,25

Gathering Crumbs.

A lecture by Sarah J. Penoyer, of Saginaw, Mich. With a view to the great unfoldment of God's truth, we will endeavor to unfurl the banner of freedom to the world. Inscribed on this banner is the word Love. Whenever a new truth is born, people are in such a hurry to cover it with swaddling clothes, lest it should be seen as it comes forth from the womb of Nature, that they half destroy its life before they can get it clothed to look according to their idea of "respectability." Then, when its form is mutilated, it comes forth an ill-shapen and ill-gotten thing. The proceeds from the sale of this pamphlet are to be donated to Mrs. E. J. Markee, Havana, N. Y. Paper..... 15

My Affinity, and Other Stories.

By Lizzie Doten. A book for Lyceums, Libraries, Associations, etc. Entertaining and instructive, these stories are all pervaded by the sunshine of faith in humanity, and the love of the true, the beautiful and the good. The first—entitled "My Affinity"—is a satire on those restless people in connubial life who are constantly imagining themselves mismated, and seeking sympathy from others—the incidents of the story developing the triumph at last of common sense and duty, over maudlin sentimentality and selfishness. New Gospel of Health: An Effort to Teach People the Principles of Vital Magnetism; or, How to Replenish the Springs of Life without Drugs or Stimulants.

By Andrew Stone, M. D. Its aim is to set before the general public the principles of vital magnetism, whereby the springs of life may be replenished without the use of drugs or stimulants. The subject matter is divided into thirty-eight sections, and purports to come from physicians who, ranking among the highest when in earth-life, have now made the attempt from the spirit-sphere to communicate through an earthly medium knowledge which shall be even more powerful for good among the masses than their former labors in the mortal. The book is illustrated with over 120 engravings, among them being a steel-plate likeness of Dr. Stone. Also a magnificent steel-plate engraving of the Goddess Hygiea. 519 pages. Cloth..... 2,50

*Nothing Like It; or, Steps to the Kingdom.

By Lois Waisbrooker. Christians pray, "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven," but they know not what they ask. Christians, read "Nothing Like It," and see if you can afford to have your prayers answered; and, if not, make preparation, for the answer is sure to come in its own proper time. Bound in cloth, 12mo, 336 pages..... 1,50
Postage 10 cents.

*One Religion: Many Creeds.

A work of great research. By Ross Winans. The author protests with profound ability, and supports it with abundant evidence, that Christian theology, as we have it, is not taught by God himself, nor by Christ himself; nor is it consistent with established facts; nor is it comprehensible by our reason. He shows you that Christianity, as taught among us, is no better than other systems taught in other than Christian countries, and in some respects not so good. The historic part of the Bible, in relation to the creation of the world, has its counterpart also in the several systems of theology here mentioned. Cloth..... 1,50

Apron-Strings, and which Way

they Pulled. By ARCHIE FELL. 16mo. Three engravings. 270 pp..... 1 25

A very pleasant and instructive volume for the little folks, telling of the struggle of a family of children to break loose from the strings which bound them to pride, and passion, and selfishness, and uncharitableness. — Advance.

Annie Marlowe.

18mo, 112 pp. Three illustrations..... 50

Asked of God.

By ANNA SHIPTON. 234 pp., 16mo..... 75

Paper covers..... 25

There is a wonderful charm in the simplicity and naturalness of this devout writer. She leads you along an inviting path, every step springing with fresh and fragrant flowers. — Zion's Herald.

Bashie's Service; or, Where's a

Will, There's a Way. By MIRIAM ALDEN. 16mo, 224 pp. Illustrated..... 1 15

An excellent story of Christian service in behalf of the poor and friendless.

The Boys and Girls of Beech

Hill. By A. J. GREENOUGH. 16mo. Three engravings. 298 pp..... 1 25

A pleasant story of the events of a winter school in Beech Hill, with their effects on the character and subsequent history of the pupils. It contains some admirable analyses of motives and principles, and very judicious instructions as to the way in which young persons are to find a saving interest in Christ.

Bessie Hartwell; or, Charity.

By the author of "Ruth Derwent," etc. 16mo, 319 pp. Illustrated..... 1 25

Showing how Bessie tried to exemplify this "most excellent" grace, and how she succeeded.

PRICE.

Bessie and Her Grandfather.

By Mrs. F. B. SMITH. 18mo, 192 pp. Illustrated..... 75

A lively and interesting story, conveying useful religious lessons to the minds of youth. It especially illustrates the beauty of piety in the aged, and its influence upon the young. — Evangelical Repository, Philadelphia.

Both Alike, and other Stories.

112 pp., 18mo. Three illustrations..... 50

The Children of the Great King.

16mo. Three engravings. 276 pp..... 1 25

The story is an excellent one for the Sunday-school library. — S. S. Times.

Chauncey Judd; or, The Stolen

Boy. A Tale of the Revolution. By ISRAEL P. WARREN. 314 pp. 16mo., cloth. 1 50

Few of the present generation are aware, that, in the time of the American Revolution, there was carried on a border warfare between Long Island and the Connecticut coast, which, for a romantic incident, was not surpassed by any thing described by Walter Scott in his tales of the Scottish border. The parties in this warfare were mostly the Whigs and Tories of that day, between whom existed a bitterness of hostility far greater than that between the colonies and the English themselves. The details of the strife, tragic and comic, the plots and counterplots, the deeds of wild adventure, of heroism and endurance, which then occurred, are here described. — Journal and Courier, New Haven.

112 pp., 18mo. Three illustrations..... 50

Father Merrill.

By Miss M. D. CHELLIS. (Prize Volume.)
16mo, 410 pp. Illustrated..... 1 50

The Committee, in rendering their decision, say, "The character of Father Merrill is delightfully drawn, and discloses a very lovely and practical form of every-day religion, exhibiting itself in the ordinary intercourse and business of life, without cant, or even demonstration, — the very beauty of holiness. It is an uncommonly sensible and admirable book, interesting enough to win the younger readers, and profound enough to interest and bless the oldest."

Fifty Pictures and Stories for the Little Ones. 203 pp., 16mo. By Mrs. S. G. ASHTON..... 90

Simple, easily comprehended, and graphically told; and the whole seems admirably adapted to amuse and interest the small people for whom it is designed. — Advance.

Foster's Cyclopædias.

I. Cyclopædia of Prose Illustrations. 704 pp.
II. Cyclopædia of Poetical Illustrations.
III. Cyclopædia of Prose Illustrations. Second series. 792 pp. Just published.

An entirely new selection. By ELON FOSTER, D.D., the author of the former successful series. Twenty-four thousand copies of I. and II. have been sold, and the demand still continues.

8vo., cloth, per vol..... 5 00
Sheep, per vol..... 6 00
Half morocco, per vol..... 7 00

Go Ahead! Jack the Cabin Boy.

18mo. Three engravings. 144 pp..... 60

A story of a self-made man, well illustrating the old saying, "Be sure you're right, then go ahead." Describing the cabin-boy's efforts at self-advancement, his untiring zeal in the cause of God and humanity, and his final success in achieving a name and a place. A most interesting story for boys. — S. S. Workman.

PRICE.

The Good Fight of Faith; or,

How Libby won the Victory. By the author of "Bessie Hartwell," etc. 276 pp., 12mo. Bevelled boards..... 1 50

Giving the history of Libby's trials and conflicts in the path of duty, and her ultimate victory through faith. An intensely interesting book, and the best written by this popular author.

Grace Courtney; or, Seeking the Shepherd. By HOWE BENNING. 16mo. Three engravings. 224 pp..... 1 15

The story is well told, and is suggestive of some of the ways in which boarding-school life, so full of temptation, may be turned to good account. — S. S. Times.

A narrative of the trials and temptations which beset young girls at boarding-school, and showing how much good one such may do whose actions are controlled by Christian principle. — Advance.

The Hand of the Diligent.

18mo. Three engravings. 148 pp..... 60

Joe Martin, in "The Hand of the Diligent," wants to be rich, but first learns the superior value of industry, sobriety, honesty, and piety. When God gave him wealth, he had learned before how to use it so as to bless others and himself by it. — Christian Advocate.

Hans, the Swiss Boy.

Hymns of the Higher Life.

Compiled by Rev. B. K. PEIRCE, D.D. A selection of beautiful hymns, expressive of the higher experiences and aspirations. 24mo. Cloth. Gilt edge. 224 pp..... 1 00

Many of the best hymns in the language, gathered up from the past centuries of the Christian era and from living authors, are contained in this little volume. — Evangelical Repository, Philadelphia.

Jack Masters; or, The Berry-

Pickers. By LUCY A. MILLS. 16mo, 362 pp. Illustrated..... 1 50

The story is not only safe, in its teaching, and totally free from the "love-sick" stuff with which many of our Sunday-school books are made nauseous, but also picturesque in its narrative, and real in its descriptions. We submitted it to a brace of young critics who do not appreciate dulness, and their verdict was "Splendid!" It can be safely put on the list for the new library. — Independent.

PRICE.

Joanna; or, Learning to Follow

Jesus. By MARION HAVEN. 16mo. Three engravings. 280 pp. 1 25

This is a book of far more than common merit. It is a story of a little German girl, who left her father's house at an early age to come to America. Her tender, boundless trust in Christ, her love for him, and her earnest service in his cause, are here delineated with great beauty and power. No child could fail to be interested in these incidents, nor fail to be profited by the simple truths here lived out before him. — Watchman and Reflector.

Johnnie, the Railroad Boy.

By Mrs. L. E. POOLE. 16mo, 238 pp. Illustrated 1 15

The author is a graduate of the High School in this city, a teacher in the public schools for seven years, and the wife of an engineer on the Connecticut River Railroad. The book is written in a lively, entertaining way, and is becoming popular among the young people. — Springfield (Mass.) Union.

Jeff and Leff, and other Stories.

Keeping On, and other Stories.

The Lady Artist, and other Stories.

18mo. Gilt and black stamp. Chromo side. Three illustrations. 112 pp. 50

Attractively gotten up, and filled with stories teaching useful lessons.

Laura Linwood.

By the author of "The White Cross and Dove of Pearls." 348 pp., 16mo. Gilt and black stamp 1 50

Showing the perils of educating girls in undenominational Roman Catholic schools, and intended to awaken parents to the danger of exposing their children to such influences.

Little Jennie, the Minister's Daughter.

By Mrs. J. S. WARREN. 18mo, 80 pp. Illustrated 40

Lettie Sterling.

By the author of the "New Commandment," "Margaret's Old Home," etc. 16mo, 381 pp. Illustrated..... 1 50

Showing a quiet home-life, faithful in domestic duties, and made sweet and fruitful by love.

Little Standard-Bearer.

18mo, 166 pp. Illustrated..... 60

The poor boy of this story, who fell among thieves, won his way to a good home, and a happy, useful life, by standing firm against temptation.

PRICE.

Lost in the Snow, and other Stories.

18mo, 112 pp. Three illustrations. 50

The Lost Blessing.

By ANNA SHIPTON. 228 pp., 16mo. Cloth. 75
Paper covers..... 25

These books may be placed in the Sunday school or the library of the family with perfect safety and with profit. — Christian Advocate (California).

Lottie Wilde's Picnic.

By GRANDMOTHER HOPE. 18mo, 198 pp. Illustrated 75

This is one of the most interesting books we have read. It is written in a remarkably easy, simple, and pleasant style, and contains some very excellent moral and religious truths. — Evangelical Repository.

Little People whom the Lord Loved.

By E. E. F., author of the "Flower in the Prison." 16mo, 251 pp. Illustrated. 1 25

An attractive book of seven short stories, full of faith and love. — S. S. Workman.

The Living Christ.

24mo, 46 pp..... 50

It is an incentive to the higher and more Christ-like life. — Christian Union.

Little Syd, and other Stories.

Lucy, the Light-Bearer.

By GEORGE F. SARGENT, author of "The Story of a Pocket-Bible." 16mo, 181 pp. Illustrated..... 1 00

Maggie, the Fisherman's Daughter.

A collection of interesting English stories. 18mo, 144 pp..... 60

Margaret's Old Home; a Tale of Christian Love.

By the author of "The New Commandment," "Neighbor's House," etc. 16mo. Three engravings. 364 pp... 1 50

It is an interesting and profitable story to place in the hands of any youth. The narrative illustrates the power of Christian love and patience in reforming the evils which have grown up in a worldly family, and also in bringing an intemperate and irreligious village under gospel influences. — Boston Traveller.

It is a story above the ordinary standard. It beautifully illustrates the refining influence of true religion in the person and the home, and the power of a single sweet-minded Christian woman to revolutionize not only a household, but a community. — Advance and Guardian.

PRICE.

Mend Your Nets; or, Little Jack.

18mo, 200 pp. Illustrated..... 65

Broken nets catch no fish. So sins in the heart and conduct are a hinderance to all true prosperity, whether in the things of this life or of the next. Little Jack was a poor fisher-boy, in a very humble condition of life, and his story has little in it romantic or exciting; but he had learned that most important lesson, — that the way to success and happiness is to do right, or, as his quaint old friend used to say, to "keep his nets well mended." We hope that every boy who reads the simple story of Jack will as faithfully practise it as he did.

Mrs. Marsh's Help.

By Rev. J. J. DANA. 16mo, 336 pp. Illustrated..... 1 25

A pleasant tale of an English orphan child in America, who, in the lowliness of domestic service, learned how to use and adorn the prosperity ultimately attained by her.

Mr. Oliver Penrose, and his Christmas Stockingful of Stories. 112 pp., 18mo. Three illustrations..... 50

Newlyn House, the Home of the Davenports. 16mo. 361 pp. Three engravings..... 1 50

This book gives us a pleasant glimpse into the character and pursuits of the younger members of the family, — a motherless family of boys and girls, each striving in his or her way to attain the standard of Christian excellence left for their imitation. The narrative flows on in an easy, increasingly interesting style, recounting the various attempts of each, resulting in failures at first, but, with a firm faith in Him who says, "If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all men liberally," are crowned with success at last. This book should be placed within the reach of every child, as the influence it would exert would tend toward the formation of Christian principles never to be removed in after-life. Also a valuable addition to Sunday-school libraries. — S. S. Workman.

Nix's Offerings.

By HOWE BENNING, author of "Grace Courtney." 16mo, cloth, 400 pp. Illustrated..... 1 50

The offering to God of work, instead of the offering of love, can never be accepted by him. Such is the truth illustrated in this interesting story, which is one of the accomplished author's best.

PRICE.

Ollie and the Boys.

By SALLIE CHESTER. 16mo, 320 pp. Illustrated..... 1 25

A charming story, bright, witty, and at the same time fraught with weighty instruction to the little folks as to unselfishness, patience, courage, and cheerfulness. It teaches children some of the most important lessons, while they read on amused and delighted with the charming talk of Ollie and her friends, and only sad at the close to find the story ends so soon.

Posie, the Minister's Daughter.

16mo. Three engravings. 253 pp..... 1 25

Little Posie Keith, the clergyman's daughter, was a Christian. In the simplicity of her faith she sought to do good by bringing the sweet lessons of the Bible, its admonitions and its promises, to bear upon all her associates. And God gave her success in so doing, showing that there is a power in the purity and beauty of a loving Christian heart which few can resist. The book is written with a singular grace of style, and cannot fail to become a favorite with its youthful readers.

The Secret of the Lord.

By ANNA SHIPTON. 234 pp., 16mo, cloth. 75
Paper covers. 25

Marked by deep piety, quiet thoughtfulness, and a considerable familiarity with the Bible. The authoress has evidently given us the results of personal experience of the guidance and comfort to be found in the truth she here commends to the acceptance of others. — English Independent.

Smith's Saloon; or, The Grays and the Grants.

By Mrs. L. L. WORTH. 16mo. Three engravings. 299 pp. 1 25

This is a well-written Temperance story. It depicts, in glowing and truthful language, the terrible brood of evils which sprang up from the planting of a "saloon" in the midst of a sober and Christian community, — corrupting the morals, destroying the health, and impoverishing those drawn within its influence. Such books need to be multiplied, to impress more deeply the public mind with the fearful curse of intemperance. — Congregational Review.

The Soul's Inquiries Answered.

By G. W. MOON, author of "The Dean's English." With blank pages for diary of grateful records. 272 pp., 24mo. Cloth, bevelled, red edges 1 00
Without diary, plain edge 50

A year-book of Scripture texts, containing an inquiry and an appropriate answer in the very words of Scripture.

Dr. Cuyler says, "It is the most ingenious little combination of inspired texts that has yet fallen under my eye."

"Tell Jesus." Recollections of Emily Gosse.

By ANNA SHIPTON. 16mo, 154 pp. 75
Paper covers. 25

Presents us with notices of a life spent in loving, intimate, and uninterrupted communion with a personal Lord. . . . We have read the book with deep interest. We would that indolent professors might read it and be quickened, and that suffering saints might read it and be comforted. — Christian Times.

The Three Judges. Story of the Men who Beheaded their King.

By Rev. I. P. WARREN, D.D., with an Introduction by Rev. LEONARD BACON, D.D. 16mo, 311 pp., with numerous illustrations. 1 50

This book relates one of the most romantic stories to be found in history, — that of the Three Judges, Whalley, Goffe, and Dixwell. It gives a succinct view of the great struggle for religious and civil liberty in that age, and of the condition of the little New-England colonies, and their heroism in shielding these victims of royal vengeance, who were concealed in the woods and caves, the cellars and garrets, for nearly twenty years. The narrative abounds in incident and anecdote, and is illustrated by numerous engravings.

The Tover Tangle, and the Way it was Straightened Out.

By ARCHIE FELL, author of "Apron-Strings." 330 pp., 16mo. 1 25

This is a continuation of "Apron-Strings," or rather another story of the same characters, showing the true way to overcome the evil entanglements into which the young are apt to fall. Both of these are very sprightly stories, and very taking with the children.

Two Families, and Two Aims in Life.

By the author of the "White Chrysanthemum." 16mo, 372 pp. Illustrated. 1 50

Of the faultless mechanical execution of these volumes, and the rare excellence of the illustrations which accompany them, we can speak with especial emphasis. The importance of placing before our children, in the forming-time of their taste and judgment, only the best aspects of art, is not sufficiently appreciated by publishers, though the progress of the last few years in this respect has been very great. We take great pleasure, therefore, in rendering our acknowledgments where they are so clearly due. — Christian Union.

Violet and Daisy; or, The Picture with Two Sides.

By the author of "Rosa Lindsay," etc. 16mo. Three engravings. 235 pp. 1 15

The tone of the book is healthy, and it is fitted to awaken Christian sympathy for the poor and suffering. — Congregational Review.

"Violet and Daisy" presents a striking picture of the contrast between life among the rich and the poor, and shows very happily how each class may become a blessing to the other. — Christian Advocate.

It is a charming story. Both "sides" of the "picture" are well delineated: and we look with delight on the "side" where Violet and Daisy, sweet as the flowers whose names they bear, shine in all their freshness and purity; and with sadness upon the sorrowful "side," where Nellie and "wee Davie," are in poverty and sickness. — The People, Concord.

The Well-Spent Hour.

By Mrs. E. L. FOLLEN. New edition. 203 pp., 16mo. Four illustrations..... 1 00

White Chrysanthemum (The).

A Story. 16mo, 389 pp. Three engravings. 1 50

The "White Chrysanthemum" was a pet name given by Mr. Winwood to his young daughter Agnes, because of her love of truth, of which this flower was the symbol. The design of the book is to set forth the beauty of truthfulness, and the methods by which a bright and interesting family were trained to the practice and love of it. The narrative is very entertaining, and interweaves a large amount of useful knowledge. There can be no better book for the young than this, and scarcely any more needful to correct the insincere, the crooked, and the false ways of speech and conduct so lamentably prevalent in society. It is a very handsome book of 389 pages, beautifully printed from new type, and bound in the newest and most attractive style of gold and black.

AND NEW YORK STATE EDUCATIONAL JOURNAL.

A *News*paper: Not a *Views*paper.

Illustrated. Sixteen to Twenty-Four Pages, Monthly. $1.00 a Year.

THE SCHOOL BULLETIN

Inaugurates a new era in educational journalism, aiming to be not a magazine, but a *news*paper; to deal not with theories, but with facts; to present not papers and addresses, but accurate and condensed statistics, reports, and descriptions of existing systems, buildings, methods; in short, by presenting what every teacher ought to know and can here most easily learn, it aims to become indispensable to every thinking educator. The demand for this information may be inferred from the fact that the following text-books, now used almost universally among the teachers of New York and extensively throughout the country, are

C. W. Bardeen, Esq.,

DEAR SIR,—A copy of the BULLETIN for January gives the information asked for. Will you please send one to above address.

Yours &c., NEIL GILMOUR.

N THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

The BULLETIN is the recognized school journal of the State, and is the only one which has the support of County Commissioners, Institute Conductors, and School Officers generally. Outside of New York City and Brooklyn it has more than five times the paid circulation of all other school journals combined. It is absolutely the only medium through which announcements to New York teachers are sure to reach the eyes of those interested.

From the Resolutions adopted by the Convention of School Commissioners and Superintendents, Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 30, 1875.

Resolved, That the SCHOOL BULLETIN is worthy of and should receive the earnest support of all who have the interest of education at heart.

From the Resolutions adopted by the St. Lawrence Co. Teachers' Association, Dec. 28, 1876.

Whereas, The spirit of inquiry and investigation rife among us, the decisions of the important problems underlying our school system, and the spread of educational information have made a live educational journal a necessity to all teachers who desire to save themselves from the constant, almost inevitable, tendency to narrow, contracted ideas of this work; and

Whereas, The SCHOOL BULLETIN is not only our State journal, but also interesting, attractive, profitable, full of practical methods, inspiring experience, valuable hints, and stirring discussions of the great educational questions: therefore,

Resolved, That it is the sentiment of this Association that every teacher in St. Lawrence County should become a subscriber to the BULLETIN, and, having subscribed, should use this important auxiliary to his work, both for individual improvement, and the improvement of the schools of the county.

OUTSIDE OF NEW YORK STATE.

The BULLETIN has a large and influential circulation. The esteem in which it is held may be judged from the following voluntary testimonials:

Spicy and sound too, I think.—Supt. John D. Philbrick, Boston.

A complete thesaurus of news, facts, methods and suggestions indispensable to teachers.—Supt. Ariel Parish, New Haven, Conn.

It is not a mummy, as too many educational journal are, but full of the driving blood of to-day.—Supt. H. S. Jones, Erie, Penn.

A grand success for giving the pith of information in a nut-shell. We like to know what is going on without looking over thirty or forty journals.—A. H. Andrews & Co., Chicago.

TO ADVERTISERS.

There are in the State of New York more than THIRTY THOUSAND public school teachers; seven thousand more than in all New England, and one half more than in Pennsylvania or Ohio. The salaries of these teachers amount to nearly EIGHT MILLIONS OF DOLLARS A YEAR. The annual outlay for Libraries and Apparatus exceeds TWO HUNDRED AND SIXTY THOUSAND DOLLARS A YEAR. These teachers and these schools can be effectively reached only through the SCHOOL BULLETIN.

Average monthly circulation to Paying Subscribers for the twelve months ending with November, 1876, 4567 copies.

The School Bulletin Year Book.

An Educational Directory of the State of New York, giving the Location, Number of Pupils, Names of Principal and Trustees, and Population of the Place where Located, of the Colleges, Normal Schools, Academies, Union Schools and larger District Schools of the State. Compiled by C. W. Bardeen, Editor of the School Bulletin. Vol. I, 1877. 16 mo., Cloth. Price One Dollar.

We believe no satisfactory Educational Directory, either general or local, has ever appeared in this country. The Educational Year Book (1872 and 1873) and the American Educational Cyclopedia (1875) were too vague and rambling to be of much service; they met no general demand and were discontinued. The School Registers of Ohio and Indiana, published by Mr. Kidd, and several similar compilations in other States, give merely official lists of elected officers. They have no general interest or value, and are published in small editions at enormous prices. Pinckney's School and College Directory is to this country what Herbert Fry's "Our Schools and Colleges" is to England, an advertising medium devoted principally to private schools. Our friends across the St. Lawrence River publish the Canada Educational Directory and Year Book which gives an admirable summary of their school-system, but comparatively few names. We have found nothing in English which corresponds with the Deutsches Akademisches Jahrbuch, published at Leipzic by J. J. Weber, and we have made this to some degree our model.

There are in New York 60 Counties, divided into 24 Cities and 112 Commissioner Districts embracing more than 900 towns, which are in turn divided into about 13,000 districts. Our general plan is to give at least one page to each City and Commissioner District; to divide the latter into towns, mentioning at least the largest District in each town and usually three or four of the largest Districts, where there are Villages contained in the Town; and to mention in each Village not only the Public Schools and the Academy, if any, but any College or Normal or important Private School which may be located there. The arrangement therefore is wholly geographical, but an index at the end of the book will enable one to turn readily to any institution mentioned.

Of each school mentioned, we aim to give the number of pupils, name of principal, year when the principal was first appointed, and the names of the trustees with the time when their terms of office expire. We cannot hope to give all of these details in the case of all the smallest schools, but we shall approach completeness in this respect as nearly as possible.

The academies and larger institutions are merely mentioned in the Directory proper, with the name of the principal, but advertisements of one page each will be inserted opposite the page of the Directory in which they are mentioned at the rate of Five Dollars each, which includes a copy of the Directory; and it is believed that every important institution will desire to represented in this way. These pages will give a cut of the building, whenever possible, with lists of the faculty and trustees, times for opening and closing the terms, tuition, etc., etc.

The Monthly Educational Directory in the SCHOOL BULLETIN has for some time been officially recognized as the only one published. It will be the germ of the volume about to be issued: but that contained some 500 names, while the Year Book will contain nearly 30,000. We cannot promise to have this work ready before Sept. 1, but we hope to issue it some weeks earlier.

COMMON SCHOOL LAW FOR COMMON SCHOOL TEACHERS.

Compiled by C. W. Bardeen, formerly Superintendent of Schools, Whitehall, N. Y. Re-printed from the School Bulletin and New York State Educational Journal. Second and Revised Edition, including the Questions Given at the Examinations for State Certificates. A Pocket Volume, Handsomely Bound in Cloth. Price Fifty Cents.

Already adopted as a text-book in the State Normal Schools at Oswego, Geneseo, Cortland, Potsdam, Buffalo, Brockport, etc., and in Academic Teachers' Classes throughout the State.

THE CORNELL UNIVERSITY, PRESIDENT'S ROOMS,
ITHACA, N. Y., March 31, 1876.

DEAR SIRS:—Accept my thanks for the list of questions on School Law which you were so kind as to prepare for our Examining Committee. They seemed to me in every respect excellent, and they led me to examine very carefully your little book on the general subject, which strikes me as admirably adapted to its purpose. Not only every teacher in the State but every Member of the Legislature, and every Supervisor and School Commissioner should have one.

I Remain Very Truly Yours,

C. W. BARDEEN, ESQ. AND. D. WHITE.

Fully supplies one of the greatest necessities ever experienced by teachers in our rural schools.—S. D. Wilbur, School Commissioner Second District Broome Co.

Common School Law for Common School Teachers should be considered a necessary part of pedagogic equipment. The treatise is small, but sufficient and safe.—Michigan Teacher.

Cannot be called the best because there is nothing with which to compare it. It is simply invaluable to every teacher.—Supt. H. R. Sanford, late President State Teachers' Association, and for five years instructor in School Law at the Fredonia State Normal School.

Is already adopted as a text-book in many schools and fully supplies a great necessity.—National Teachers' Monthly.

This manual, although edited by an able teacher of New York with reference to the laws of that State, is also well-fitted in the exposition of principles of school legislation to any State in the Union, and its reference to cases covers the judicial decisions of the several States.—New England Journal of Education.

"Common School Law for Common School Teachers" is the title of a legal treatise well-known in the United States to all whom it concerns. It would seem that a similar work, treating of the legal rights, duties and status of English schoolmasters, is much needed.—London Schoolmaster.

(Specimen Pages from Common School Law for Common School Teachers.)

page 21,) the relation of the teacher's authority to that of the parents may be considered definitely established.

(I.) The teacher does not derive his authority from the parents. He holds a public office created by the law. He is legally responsible only to the trustees who hire him. Between the teacher and the child the parent can personally interfere only by removing the child from the school. (14 Barbour 225; 23 Peck 224; 38 Maine 376.)

(II.) The school-house is the school-master's castle. Upon this point the following forcible statement is fully warranted:

This old maxim of English law (5 Rep. 92) is as applicable to the school-master as to any other person who is in the lawful possession of the house. It is true that the school officers, as such, have certain rights in the school-house; but the law will not allow even them to interfere with the teacher while he keeps strictly within the line of his duty. Having been legally put in possession, he can hold it for the purposes and the time agreed upon; and no parent, not even the Governor of the State, nor the President of the United States, has any right to enter it and disturb him in the lawful performance of his duties If persons do so enter, he should order them out; and if they do not go, on being requested to do so, he may use such force as is necessary to eject them. And if he finds that he is unable to put them out himself, he may call upon others to assist him; and if no more force is employed than is actually necessary to remove the intruder, the law will justify the teacher's act and the acts of those who assisted him. (27 Maine 256; 1 City Hall Rec. 55; 2 Met. 23; 6 Barbour 608; 8 T. R. 299; 2 Ro. Abr. 548; 2 Selk. 641; 1 C. & P. 6; 8 T. R. 78; Wharton's Am. Criminal Law 1256.) (The Lawyer in the School-Room, 1871, p, 120.)

In this State, the teacher's best defence against querulous or insulting visits of parents to the school-room is found in that provision of the statute already once quoted (1864, 555, 3, XIII, 234:)

The Regents' Questions.--1866-1877:

Being the Questions for the Preliminary Examinations for Admission to the University of the State of New York, Prepared by the Regents of the University, and Participated in Simultaneously by Nearly Two Hundred and Fifty Academies, Forming a Basis for Distributing Nearly a Million Dollars, Compiled by Daniel J. Pratt, A. M., Ph. D., Assistant Secretary, Regents of the University.

Since 1866 the Regents of the State of New York have held examinations three times a year in all the Academies and Academic Departments of the Union Schools, granting certificates to such pupils as pass satisfactorily, and apportioning upon these certificates a large sum of money among the schools of the State. As pupils begin the study of the higher branches after passing this examination, the questions are made to embrace all that is practical in the above branches. In all these 6,000 questions not a single unimportant or "catch" question can be found. These questions have been published in one neatly bound volume, and separately in pamphlet form. They are now used as text-books in many of the leading schools of the country, and Cornell University, recognizing their practical character, now admits, without further examination upon these subjects, pupils who have passed an examination upon these questions.

Every teacher should examine either the complete or the pamphlet upon the branch to which he wishes to devote especial attention. While they are especially adapted to reviews, they may be used to good advantage in connection with any text-book. Principals of New York Academies and Union Schools under visitation of the Regents will find these questions an invaluable help in preparing for coming examinations, as the experience of those who have tried them amply proves.

In the successive editions, the questions are added which have been given at examinations subsequent to the issuing of previous editions. Thus the first edition of the questions in Arithmetic contained the examinations up to that for February 24, 1876,—in all 692 questions. The eleventh edition contained the examinations up to March 1, 1877,—in all 767 questions.

We have a few sets of the Arithmetic Problems printed upon strips of strong Card-board, and numbered continuously from 1 to 720. The color of the Card-board shows to what division of Arithmetic the question belongs. They are put up in strong boxes, and accompanied by a key for the use of the teacher. Five minutes at the end of each recitation may be given to this exercise. Let each pupil draw a problem, pass to the board, and solve it. By glancing at the key, the teacher can readily determine whether the answer is correct, and mark the pupil accordingly.

Examination XXVIII. Nov. 4, 1875.

(1:30–3:00 P. M.)

1. "Sing to me, dearest nightingale," said a shepherd to the silent songstress, one beautiful spring evening.

2. "Alas!" said the nightingale, "the frogs make so much noise that I have no inclination to sing. Do you not hear them?"

3. "Undoubtedly I hear them," replied the shepherd, "but it is owing to your silence."

Write each one of the following words, with its number prefixed, and immediately thereafter the part of speech (or class of words) to which it belongs:—

First paragraph: (1217) Sing; (1218) to; (1219) me; (1220) dearest; (1221) nightingale; (1222) spring.

Second paragraph: (1223) Alas; (1224) so; (1225) that; (1226) no.

Third paragraph: (1227) Owing.

Write each one of the following words, with its number prefixed, and immediately thereafter describe it as the subject, predicate, object, adjective modifier, or adverbial modifier, as the case may be, of the word to which it is syntactically related:—

TWO NEW TEXT BOOKS IN PRIMARY ARITHMETIC.

FIRST STEPS AMONG FIGURES. A Drill Book in the Fundamental Rules of Arithmetic. By Levi N. Beebe, Principal of Public School No. 11, Canandaigua, N. Y. 16 mo., cloth. PUPILS' EDITION, price 50 Cents. TEACHERS' EDITION, (which includes the Pupils' Edition,) price One Dollar.

The aim of this work is to give so much practice as to fix each method in the pupil's mind, rather than to deal with the philosophy of each operation. It is believed that this book contains more than twice as many problems as any other work of the kind. In each new operation the first examples are very easy, and the increase in difficulty is gradual. The first part of the work is devoted to what is known as the Grube Method, but teachers who prefer may omit the schedules and postpone the problems in Multiplication and Division until those in Addition and Subtraction have been mastered.

The author hopes that teachers into whose hands this work may come will give it a thorough examination. Special attention is called to the treatment of numeration and notation. The examples are not all given in one place to be forgotten, but so placed as to review the subject often.

Attention is called to the examples for rapid solving and the easy examples given under each rule. Also to the method of teaching long division and to the definition of addition.

The method of teaching the addition, subtraction, multiplication and division tables is believed to be entirely new, so far as being published is concerned. The author discovered (or the method about ten years ago, and in his school found it invaluable.

A WORK IN NUMBER, for Junior Classes in Graded Schools. By Martha Roe, Teacher of Methods and Superintendent of the School of Practice in the State Normal and Training School, Cortland, N. Y. 16 mo., cloth. Price Fifty Cents.

The purpose of this work is to put in the hands of our pupils in the Junior Grades, a book which shall contain just what we feel they need and nothing more.

Few definitions are given, in places of which are questions to stimulate to inquiry and leave the teacher to educe what farther definitions the work requires.

No rules are given, as the pupil is expected to make the rules for himself when a sufficient amount of work in the subject has been accomplished.

A greater number of examples are provided in order to make the work thorough, and the arrangement is such that the pupil can help himself to a very full extent.

No review is provided for, except in the every day work of the class.

The plan of this work for the pupil is based upon,—

1. Simplicity of work.
2. Previous knowledge of work in number.
3. Dependence of one subject upon another.
4. That the pupils shall make all the calculations, and give all the terms used, so far as possible.

Note.—The Primary Work which this assumes to be known by the pupil, consists of a three years' course of Oral Instruction. It embraces the combination of numbers in Addition, Multiplication, Subtraction and Division; the numbers not to exceed in value two hundred.

Some work in Fractions is done and the term Fraction is given, the teacher being guided by the ability of the class in deciding to what extent this work in Fractions will be taught.

STUDIES IN ARTICULATION:

A Study and Drill Book in the Alphabetic Elements of the English Language. By James H. Hoose, A. M., Ph. D., Principal of the State Normal and Training School at Cortland, N. Y. Re-printed from the School Bulletin and New York State Educational Journal. Second Stereotyped Edition. Price Fifty Cents.

This volume, the fruit of the author's special study for several years, will be found not only a valuable authority, but a practical manual. It takes up each sound of each vowel, diphthong and consonant, and, besides thoroughly analyzing and distinguishing it, gives a multitude of illustrative words, many of them commonly mispronounced. Thus the following words illustrate the long sound of a: Ale, fate, Kate, hate, mate, gray, gate, rebate, reign, eight, ratio, neigh, amen, slain, straight, chamber, squalor, main, aid, tiara, yea, pain, obey, wraith, apparatus, patron, strata, patriotic, aye, Dey, heinous, say, tomato, bate, whey, data, caret, slate, gage, gaol, jail, day, break, veil, grey, prayer, shaik, half-penny, sleigh, ray, strait, daze, prey, graze, rajah, prays, rail, pail.

It was stereotyped at the University Press, Cambridge; and is handsomely bound in cloth. Price Fifty Cents.

From Hon. W. D. Henkle, editor of the National Teacher and Educational Notes and Queries, in the Ohio Ed. Monthly and National Teacher, Nov. 1876.

These little books, beautifully bound, are all published at Syracuse, N. Y., by C. W. Bardeen, publisher of the SCHOOL BULLETIN. Dr. Hoose's book presents in a compact form a discussion of the elementary sounds of the English language and the mode of pronouncing them. He uses the diacritical marks of Webster's Quarto Dictionary. It is needless to say that we are pleased with the book, for it presents just what we have for years discussed in Teachers' Institutes and urged should be taught in schools.

From the National Teachers' Monthly, May, 1877.

"Studies in Articulation," by Dr. Hoose, is a study and drill book in the alphabetic elements of the English language, designed to promote excellence in articulation, and pronunciation, It is an excellent book. Multum in Parvo.

From "New England Journal of Education," Aug. 12, 1876.

This book contains a very scholarly and thorough analysis of the elements of English Articulation, and this with the drill exercise in concert vocal utterance renders it a valuable manual for teachers and schools.

From Mrs. M. Josephine Warren, teacher of Elocution—niece of Prof Russell, the Elocutionist.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 11, 1876.

Accept sincere thanks for your beautifully prepared work on "Studies in Articulation." It is a book worthy of the careful study of every student of our language, and I trust the time is not far distant when our English speech shall become a special study more than at present.

From Prof. C. H. Plugge, of the Bureau of Education.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 21, 1876.

Various foreign gentlemen request me to thank you for the nice little volume which enables them to learn the English pronunciation in a very short time, since they can carry it along wherever they go.

(Specimen Pages from Hoose's Studies in Articulation.) that required for û-rge, and that for ĕ, the sound being less guttural than û, and less palatal than ĕ, the lips and buccal muscles being in position to utter ĕ, while the tongue is not raised high at the centre, although higher than it is when uttering û-rn. (See No. 29, following.)

In syllables, ẽ, ĩ, and ỹ are followed by r, yet not modified by it.

The four extremes to be avoided are: û-rge, and ê, a drawl of ă, and ŭ.

SELECTED READINGS,

Serious and Humorous, in Prose and Poetry, with an Appendix on Elocution, etc. By Prof. J. E. Frobisher, author of "Voice and Action," "Guide to Elocution," Etc. 12 mo., pp. 168.

Price, Paper, Twenty-Five Cents; Boards, Fifty Cents.

WHAT THE NEWSPAPERS SAY.

"The endeavor of the author has been to find new material for the talent for reading, which has lately shown such unprecedented activity."—New York World.

"In it are sketches and poems from our most popular and acceptable writers. which boys from whom declamations are required and girls who have recitations to make will find just suited to their purpose."—New York Tribune.

"This is a work that will be interesting to all who love pure literature, and especially valuable for those who are studying the science of elocution. Prof. Frobisher is well known in New York and Brooklin as one of our most accomplished elocutionists, and his remarks on that subject, at the end of the volume, are straight to the point."—Christian Union.

"Professor Frobisher, in the main, displays admirable taste and skill in these selections. They overflow with life and variety, wit and pathos, nature and interest."—Baptist Union.

"The selections are choice, inspired by good taste, and comprise poems that touch upon nearly every phase of emotion, or sentiment. The suggestions as to public readings, character readings, witty and humorous readings, etc., are very judicious and practical."—Christian Intelligencer.

"Variety, excellence and amusement are well blended in the selections."—The Commonwealth, (Boston.)

"The selections are made with great care and taste from the best of all current literature, and something will be found to suit almost every occasion. Not the least valuable part of the book is the appendix, which contains helpful suggestions upon the culture and management of the voice."—The Advance, (Chicago.)

"The selections are new as readings, and seem to be judicious as well as spicy. We welcome anything that will help our boys to speak well when they become men. The average American citizen has numerous opportunities for public speech. He would be far more effective if he were trained to speak better."—Home Magazine.

"The appendix is the most ingenious part of the volume. In it the sayings of successful speakers on certain points of elocution are introduced among the compiler's own essays in such manner as to give many good hints without marring the unity of the whole, which is a fair treatise on successful delivery."—National Teachers' Monthly.

"Excellent! excellent!"—West Virginia Educational Monthly.

"Only recent authors are represented, including some capital translations."—Michigan Teacher.

"A pleasing variety of wisdom and fun, with an appendix on Voice Culture, Reading, etc., worth all the book costs."—Sunday School Journal.

SCHOOL HOUSES,

By James Johonnot. Architectural Designs by S. E. Hewes. 8 vo., pp. 271.

Price, Two Dollars.

This is the Standard Work on School Architecture, and should be owned by every School Board in the country.

WHAT THE NEWSPAPERS SAY.

"This is an elegant and extremely valuable work on the proper construction of school buildings. It contains finely-drawn designs, ranging from the plainest and cheapest styles to the most ornate and expensive, accompanied by clear and intelligent comments and explanations. The important subjects of heating and ventilation, as well as other scarcely less important ones of comfort and convenience, are fully attended to. A copy of this book ought to be in the hands of every body of men having charge of the construction of a new school-house, or the renovation of an old one."—New York Times.

"The illustrations in this volume are good, and the text is brief and clearly written."—New York World.

"We commend it heartily, because the efficiency of our common school system depends almost as much upon the school-houses as the schools. If the lessons it teaches are heeded, the unsightly buildings where American children are compelled to receive their education will be gradually replaced by better structures, and the multiplication of school-houses become a great good to the people."—New York Herald.

"The work is one of unquestionable practical utility, and its mechanical execution is a model of choice typography."—New York Tribune.

"This book is comprehensive and thoroughly good—the suggestions are so evidently dictated by common sense as to commend themselves at once."—New York Evening Mail.

"The book supplies a real want."—Christian Advocate.

"With this volume in their hands, school committees and teachers would lose all excuse for uncomfortable and unattractive houses."—National Baptist.

"Every school-board in the iand should have a copy of this work."—Lutheran Observer.

"It is certainly a valuable work, not only for teachers, school committees, legislators and builders, but for parents and general readers."—Sunday School Times.

"We have seen nothing to equal it in completeness and practical suggestions."—Philadelphia City Item.

"Those who are thinking of building, or of improving school-houses, will do well to consult this volume."—Baptist Union.

"We take pleasure and pains in commending this book as one likely to work a salutary reform."—New York Observer.

"We thank the publishers for producing such a book."—The Presbyterian.

"It would not be amiss if the State should furnish one copy of this admirable work to every county and city superintendent, so that it might be accessible to all schools and building committees."—Wisconsin Journal of Education.

"This is a most important, practical book; every teacher in the land, every school commissioner, and trustee, and superintendent, will fail of his duty to the public and to the rising generation, who does not at once purchase this very valuable book; it is full of wise, judicious and practical suggestions."—Hall's Journal of Health.

The Diadem of School Songs:

Containing Songs and Music for All Grades of Schools, a New System of Instruction in the Elements of Music and a Manual of Directions for the Use of Teachers: by William Tillinghast.

The Diadem of School Songs, by PROFESSOR WILLIAM TILLINGHAST, is the first Illustrated School Music Book published. Its system of instruction in the Elements of Music is considered superior to every other system that has been printed. Its music and Poetry are alike excellent, and adapted to every possible occasion that may arise.

THE SWISS TOY GIRL.

1. I've come across the sea, I've braved every dan-ger,
   For a brother dear to me, From Swiss-land a ranger.

Then pit - y, as - sist, And pro - tect a poor stranger, And buy a lit - tle toy of poor Rose of Lucerne; A lit - tle toy, A lit - tle toy, And buy a lit - tle toy of poor Rose of Lucerne. A lit-tle toy, A lit-tle toy, &c.

2 I've paints and I've perfume,
For those who may choose them:
Young ladies, I presume
You all will refuse them;
The bloom on your cheek
Shows that you never use them;
Yet buy a little toy, &c.

3 I've a cross, 'twill make you smart,
But I hope you may bear it:
Just o'er your little heart,
I advise you to wear it;
And I hope that no other
Cross e'er may come near it;
So buy a little toy, &c.

The Institute Song Budget:

A Collection of Songs and Music for Schools and Educational Gatherings, Compiled by E. V. DeGraff, A. M., Conductor of Teachers' Institutes.

FROM THE AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

TO TEACHERS.—The School Bulletin Song Budget, of which so many thousand copies were sold last year, was the first successful attempt in this country to provide school music in attractive form at a price low enough to be adopted in every school. In one respect, however, it failed to entirely fill the place for which it was designed. The music, though uniformly excellent, was much of it unfamiliar. In undertaking, at the request of the publisher to prepare a new and enlarged edition for the season of 1877, I have accordingly sought out the well-known airs which the oldest of us enjoyed singing when we were children, and the youngest of us enjoy singing now. The tunes in my little book called Centennial Songs, which proved generally popular, are here reproduced, together with many others chosen from hundreds of American and English collections. I thoroughly believe in the healthful and inspiring influence of music in the school-room, and I have labored to make the INSTITUTE SONG BUDGET a book which can be used properly in every district.

ALBANY, January 1, 1877. E. V. DeGRAFF.

The SONG BUDGET contains 48 pages, 56 pieces and 5 full-page illustrations, and is handsomely bound in cardinal red. Price 15 cts. Per Dozen, NET, $1.50. Per Hundred, NET, $10.00.

Ryan's Weekly School Reports.

What are the requisites of a perfect system of school records? Three of them are these: convenience, completeness, cheapness. In these particulars, Ryan's Reports have no equal.

The systems of reports in common use require as much book-keeping as a savings bank. Each recitation is marked upon a separate page, perhaps in a separate book. Then all these must be transferred to some one book or card, together with the attendance and deportment. This results in one of two things: either the teacher wastes upon it time, labor and strength needed for other duties; or, as oftener happens, one keeps no real record, but marks the cards on general principles at the end of the week or month. Ryan's Reports require no copying. The weekly form is as follows:

Fifty-six or one hundred and twelve (single or double page) of these blanks lie upon the desk always before the eye. Attendance, deportment and recitations are marked at the time: and at the end of the week the sheet is cut up into the little rectangles, each pupil carries home the one bearing his name, and brings it back on Monday morning with the parent's name written upon the back. The percentage of the week may be transferred to a term report, which we also furnish.

DIRECTIONS.

1. Have the pupils' names copied alphabetically in the proper blanks.
2. At roll call morning and noon mark in attendance (a. m., p. m.) columns those present. Leave the others blank until it is known whether each pupil is late or absent, and then mark L or A.
3. During or at the close of each recitation mark each pupil from X (perfect) to O, or have some pupil do so as you dictate the number.
4. Near the close of the afternoon of the period for which the reports are arranged, have some pupil separate into individual slips, and passing quietly about the room leave one with each scholar.
5. Require pupils to return reports next schoolday, signed on the back by the parents.
6. To compute percentages, take double the sum of any column.

PROF. RYAN:—I have carefully examined your new and beautiful system of Weekly, Semi-Monthly and Monthly Reports, and do not hesitate to recommend it as the best ever presented to the public.

It is simple and may be used in all the departments of a graded school, or in an ungraded school.

I commend it as among the excellent means used by teachers to make their pupils proficient in scholarship, excellent in deportment, and regular in attendance.

E. V. DEGRAFF,
Conductor of Teachers' Institutes.

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., Dec. 29, 1875.

PROF. RYAN,—Dear Sir:—I have had the pleasure of examining your "Records of Daily, Weekly, Semi-Monthly and Monthly Reports" for schools, and I desire to say that I think you have arranged a most excellent, useful and ingenious plan to aid teachers in the promotion of scholarship, and in securing in a natural and easy way, the ends sought for in all school discipline.

Very truly yours, &c., L. S. GRISWOLD.

LERAYSVILLE ACADEMY, Pa., Dec. 28, 1875.

PROF. RYAN,—Dear Sir:—The result of your reports in my school is attended with good effects; more regular attendance, better deportment, and more carefully prepared lessons. From the easy manner of keeping them, and the good results from the keeping of weekly, semi-monthly, or monthly reports, I can most heartily recommend their use.

Truly yours,
W. M. NESBIT,

KEYSTONE ACADEMY, Pa., Dec. 29, 1875.

PROF. RYAN,—Dear Sir:—I take pleasure in speaking in high terms of commendation of your "System of Reports." After examination I have no hesitation in recommending it to the profession as well adapted to secure the end designed.

Very Truly Yours, J. H. HARRIS, Principal.

The entire record of every pupil is constantly before the eye of the teacher. No copying is necessary, the original sheet being cut into slips for the pupils to carry home.

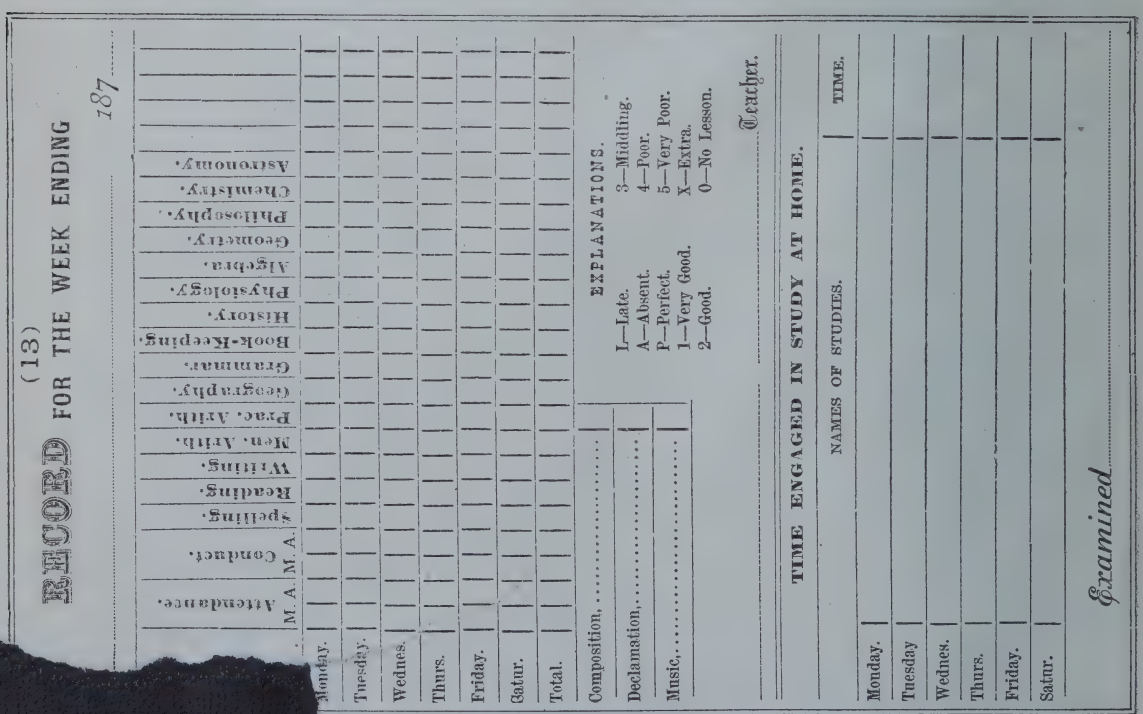
Shaw's Scholar's Register.

Shaw's Scholar's Register is a complete record for the pupil, arranged for Attendance, Conduct and Recitations for fourteen weeks. It contains also an Abstract for the Term, so condensed that comparative standing may be observed at a glance. A recitation is marked by the pupil with lead pencil. The teacher can mark with ink such changes as are needed, make the average for the week, and carry it forward to the Abstract. There are spaces for the parent to make remarks, and specify the weekly time given to study at home. The correct use of the Scholar's Register will save the teacher's time, and stimulate the pupil to better conduct and better lessons. He will be careful that his own hand may not record irregularities, misdemeanors, or poor lessons.

The labor of preparing a daily record for the inspection of the parent is too great a tax upon the time of the teacher. The object of this register is to obviate this difficulty by having the pupil keep his own record.

DIRECTIONS.



After a lesson has been recited, it is to be marked in the proper space by the pupil, with a lead pencil. In attendance no mark indicates present; L, late; A, absent. Conduct should be marked at the close of school. The time engaged in study at home, and the book studied, should be recorded each day.

The teacher can mark in ink such changes as are needed, make out the Total, and carry it forward to pages 16 and 17, where, in the column to the left of "Parent or Guardian," is marked the average standing of the pupil for the week, while to the right of this, the parent can state, weekly, the time given to study at home.

Price, per dozen, 50 cts. Specimen copy, 6 cts.

"Let those laugh now who never laughed before:
And those who always laughed now laugh the more."

Nothing so thorough and complete in the way of Ethiopian and Comic Dramas has ever been printed as those that appear in the following list. Not only are the plots excellent, the characters droll, the incidents funny, the language humorous, but all the situations, by-play, positions, pantomimic business, scenery, and tricks are so plainly set down and clearly explained that the merest novice could put any of them on the stage. Included in this Catalogue are all the most laughable and effective pieces of their class ever produced.

 In ordering, please copy the figures at the commencement of each play, which indicate the number of the piece in "De Witt's Ethiopian and Comic Drama."

DE WITT'S DRAWING-ROOM OPERETTAS.

TO MUSICAL AMATEURS.

The number of Musical Amateurs, both ladies and gentlemen, is not only very large, but is constantly increasing. And very naturally, for there is no more refined and pleasant mode of spending leisure hours than in singing and playing the choice productions of the best Composers. Hitherto there has been an almost total lack of suitable pieces adapted to an evening's entertainment in Parlors by Amateurs. Of course whole Operas, or even parts of Operas, require orchestral accompaniments and full choruses to give them effect, and are therefore clearly unfit for Amateur performance. While a succession of songs lacks the interest given by a plot and a contrast of characters. In this Series (a list of which is given below) we have endeavored to supply this want. The best Music of popular Composers is wedded to appropriate words, and the whole dove-tailed into plots that are effective as mere petite plays—but are rendered doubly interesting by the appropriate and beautiful Music, specially arranged for them.

LIST OF DE WITT'S MUSICAL PLAYS.

Miss M. E. BRADDON'S STORIES.

A great writer like a great comet appears but in a cycle of years. Since SCOTT we have had no like genius for romance 'till BRADDON. The same wonderful skill in analyzing character, the same extraordinary power in depicting the emotions and passions, and the same supreme ability in constructing plots: mark these two grand writers of different epochs.

No. 1. The White Phantom; or The Nameless Child.

8vo. PAPER. 75 CENTS.

The authoress seems to have dipped her versatile pen in some miraculous fluid, and straightway start up in her pages, personages more interesting than were ever before grouped together.

Here we have a matchless plot—extremely interesting personages—spirited descriptions of persons and places—all told with consummate skill.

No. 2. The Factory Girl; or All is not Gold that Glitters.

8vo. APER. 75 CENTS.

A noble truth is strongly enforced in these grap[illegible] pages. The career of a genuine heroine is detailed with the most admirable skill and effect.

Had Miss Braddon never penned another line, this book would have ensured lasting celebrity, if not immortality to her name.

No. 3. The Black Band; or The Mysteries of Midnight.

8vo. PAPER. 50 CENTS.

All that the most vivid imagination can conceive of Illuminatti, Carbonari, Fem Gerichte, is powerfully explained and depicted in these dark occult pages.

Miss Braddon revels in such obscure, and at first sight, mystical descriptions, that we were led to exclaim "can such things be?" The recent assassinations by orders of a mysterious order, answers "yes."

No. 4. Oscar Bertrand; or The Black Band Unmasked.

8vo. PAPER. 50 CENTS.

In vain we ransack the hidden chambers of the Spanish Inquisition, the iron-clasped records of the Bastile, the secret archives of the star-chamber for aught to compare with the revealments of this strange book.

Dark and dismal as the descent to Avernus are the gloomy incidents depicted in these pages. Had not recent events proved their truth, we should have held them too terrible for belief.

No. 5. The Octoroon; or The Lily of Louisiana.

8vo. PAPER. 50 CENTS.

In this singular work, the gifted writer has thrown the calci[illegible]n light of truth upon some of the darkest plague-spot[illegible] of Louisiana life. All is wonderful—all is true, alas.

On the cane-fringed banks of the Mississippi, as on the flower-embroidered border of the Thames, this great authoress is quite at home. She has here given us a story which may have an equal—certainly no superior.

No. 6. Blue Band; or A Story of Woman's Vengeance.

8vo. PAPER. 50 CENTS.

In[illegible]nse passion. The human heart in a burning furnace of t[illegible]l and affliction. Love that survives poverty and pers[illegible]ution. These are the component parts in this wild [illegible]rama of human life.

There appears to be no limit to the power of this great authoress: every subject she touches, she exemplifies or adorns. Disguise and crime shrink exposed from her touch like Satan from the spear of Ithuriel.

No. 7. Leighton Grange; or Who Killed Edith Woodville

8vo. PAPER. 25 CENTS.

Compare these pages with any other romancist of the day, and how great and glorious the contrast. Miss Braddon writes like one who has a purpose, an aim; and most admirably does she make us see that aim.

Leighton Grange is a most extraordinary and most powerful array of incidents, welded into a most admirable and compact romance. Not a sentence too little—not a paragraph too much.

Above works are carefully printed, on fine paper, from excellent electrotype-plates, strongly bound, in brown paper covers.

FUN IN BLACK;

OR,

Sketches of Minstrel Life.

BY CHARLES H. DAY,

Author of "Show Life," "Tights and Spangles," "Foot-light Fun," etc.

WITH

THE ORIGIN OF MINSTRELSY.

BY COL. T. ALSTON BROWN.

Giving the History of Ethiopian Minstrelsy from 1799.

Singular Scenes before the Footlights and behind the Scenes—Wild Wit of Darkey Professors—Amusing Anecdotes—No end of "End Men's" Jokes—Fun, Folly and Frivolity—Pages of Pithy, Pointed Paragraphs—Fat and Lean Streaks of Buffo Biography—Bones and Banjo on a Bust, etc.

Sixty exceedingly funny pictures add greatly to the humorous text..... Price 25 Cents.

Roughing It in the Bush. One large 12mo, containing nearly 500 pages, bound in paper covers ..... Price $1.00

Mrs. Moodie, one of the most accomplished women that Scotland ever produced, was forced by a train of circumstances, to leave her elegant home, and plunge into the depths of the Canadian forest. This book is one of the fruits of her enterprise. In it she graphically, feelingly, and often humorously depicts all the lights and shades of "life in a log cabin."

"Mrs. Moodie's descriptions of frontier life have never been surpassed."—Boston Times.

"Mrs. Moodie stands in the front rank of able female writers, and we cordially recommend 'Roughing It in the Bush' to our readers."—Alton Courier.

Life in the Clearing vs. the Bush. 12mo, containing 300 pages, bound in cloth..... Price $1.50

"I have been asked, since the publication of 'Roughing It in the Bush,' to give an account of the present state of society, and to point out its increasing prosperity and commercial advantages; but statistics are not my forte, nor do I feel myself qualified for such an arduous and important task. But what I do know I will endeavor to sketch with a light pencil; and if I cannot convey much useful information I will try to amuse the reader, and, by a mixture of prose and poetry, compile a small volume which may help to while away an idle hour, or fill up the blanks of a wet day."—Author's Preface.

Flora Lindsay; or, Passages in an Eventful Life.

12mo, containing nearly 400 pages, bound in cloth..... Price $1.25

"All who have read 'Roughing It in the Bush' will be sure to look with eager curiosity into the pages of 'Flora Lindsay,' and be repaid by the perusal of a delightful story."—Boston Atlas.

"This new work of Mrs. Moodie's is a truly delightful one."—Boston Mail.

Geoffrey Moncton; or, The Faithless Guardian.

12mo, containing nearly 400 pages, bound in cloth..... Price $1.25

"A story in which the marvellous is so happily blended with the real, it has never before been our good fortune to read. In plot, characters, and vivid delineation of motives and acts, it is the equal of any book we have ever met with."—Spectator.

Mark Hurdlestone; or, The Two Brothers. 12mo, containing nearly 400 pages, bound in cloth ..... Price $1.25

"We advise all who get this book not to take it up late in the evening, for they will be sure to spend the night in reading it. It is impossible to leave off, so hurrying and intense is the interest."—Lynn (Mass.) News.

Olive Varcoe; or, True to the Last. By Francis Derrick. 8vo, paper..... Price 50 Cents.

This is a brilliant tale of actual life, fascinating, imaginative and soul engrossing, in which the interest never flags for an instant, as it shows the heroine in the garb of fashion and in the raiment of penitence.

Willy Reilly and his Dear Coleen Bawn. By William Carleton. 8vo, paper..... Price 50 Cents.

Unquestionably the best Irish story ever written. It had an enormous sale when first published, and sells even better now. Probably because, among its other merits, it is entirely free from sectarianism.

Patriotic School Dialogues. Containing a collection of the best Patriotic Dialogues for Schools, Academies, and Social Gatherings.

This book is No. 4 of De Witt's School Dialogues. Very neatly printed..... Price 10 Cents.

In this book will be found a great number of truly national patriotic Dialogues, suited for young persons of different capabilities and gifts.

Joaquin, the Claude Duval of California; or, The Marauder of the Mines. 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

Everybody has seen, heard, or read about this great malefactor; but this is the only book that tells all about him from his birth to his death.

Captain Kyd; or, The Wizard of the Sea. By Professor J. H. Ingraham. 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

Abounding in interest as a romance; but even better worth reading for its accurate record of the actual life of this famous buccaneer.

Lafitte, the Pirate of the Gulf. By Professor J. H.

Ingraham. 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

Incidentally, in the course of this brilliant romance, we have a most truthfully written description of Jackson's ever memorable defence of New Orleans—in which Lafitte participated.

Wacousta; or, The Prophecy. By Major Richardson. 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

A splendid story. Full of incidents of historical value, in which figure the indomitable Pontiac and his white allies and enemies, as displayed during the celebrated siege of Detroit.

Matilda Montgomerie; or, The Prophecy Fulfilled.

By Major Richardson. 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

Tecumseh towers over all the characters in this really grand historical romance—in which war, love and revenge play prominent parts. Graphic descriptions are given of the battle of the Thames and other events of the War of 1812.

Playing Cards. Selected with Care from Superior

Manufactures, and Designed for Family and Personal Use. These Cards are guranteed to be equal to any in the market, and are sold at prices placing them within the reach of the ordinary amusement-seeker, desirous of securing a reliable article.

The Cottage on the Cliff. A Seaside Story. By

CATHERINE G. WARD. One volume, 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

This is a very handsomely printed edition of one of the most deservedly popular romances in the English language. It is as much admired by the learned as by the unlearned. It is so truthful a picture of real life that all alike understand and become deeply interested in its pages.

The Children of the Abbey. A Tale by Regina

MARIA ROCHE. One volume, 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

Many mutilated editions of this celebrated romance have been published; this contains every line as written by its famous author. This book is justly rated as a "classic." It has delighted generation after generation of readers for nearly a century, and is as highly prized now as ever.

Another and better "Mysteries of Paris."

THE CHEVALIER CASSE-COU.

This book is an admirable specimen of French romantic literature, and is the ablest work of FORTUNE DU BOISGOBEY, a celebrated Parisian literateur. It has been translated into pure English, with amazing force and rare elegance, by Colonel THOMAS PICTON.

Casse-Cou has a strangely involved yet perfectly probable plot, and the characters are such as may be met with at any time in either the salons or cellars of the wonderful City of the Seine. The author, though he describes the vicious as well as the good, never velitates with gilded criminality, but wages a war to the death with every species of iniquity.

THE CHEVALIER CASSE-COU is elegantly printed, from handsome, legible type, and makes two books (THE RED CAMELIA and THE SEARCH FOR ANCESTORS), each of nearly 400 pages. Price, $1.00 each.

Ida Goldwin; or, The Perils of Fortune. A Powerful Original Romance. By "ALECK DERBY."

This book is a transcript of real events, real emotions, and such real complications as are bound up in the story of human life "from year to year." Though the brilliant author never in a single line overpaints the truth, he has found and successfully describes scenes of mental and physical suffering—characters that show all the demon and all the angel traits to be found in human hearts. While the admirers of sentiment and pathos will find passages to cause that "unquiet drooping of the lids, as if the eyes were filled with unshed tears," the lovers of genuine humor will have plentiful food for bursts of hearty laughter.

IDA GOLDWIN is a truly handsome volume of 324 pages, elegantly printed and bound.

Price 75 Cents Complete.

"Our Own Boys" Songster. Nearly 200 popular songs, including all the very best songs and duets as sung with such eclat by Ned Harrigan, Tony Hart, Gus Williams, and Tony Pastor, as well as by many other leading vocalists ..... Price 25 Cents.

The following Songs and Sketches are set to Music expressly for this work: Solid Dishes to the Front (Sketch); My Old Friend John (Sketch); Louis Renouf; Oh, Dear, I'm so Pleased; The Morning Star; Tommy, Make Room for your Uncle; They All have a Mate but Me; The Scamp; Gold, Gold, Gold; Pull Down the Blind; The Letter in the Candle; Something in the City; Smoke your Pipe at Home; Etcetera; Don't you Tell my Father; Who's Coming out for a Spree To-night? On Board the Mary Jane; Pity Peter Poppytop; Will-o'-the-Wisp; Going to the Derby in my Little Donkey Cart."

Sol Smith Russell's "Jeremy Jollyboy" Songster.

This is about the most complete song book ever published, as it contains every kind and quality of really good songs, whether serio-comic, pathetic, burlesque, sentimental, or comic. Among other novel features this work contains many of the notable pieces so happily given by Sol Smith Russell to delighted audiences, and also a fine likeness of him, and pictures exhibiting some of his unrivalled delineations of comic characters.

Among a number of other Songs and Sketches SET TO MUSIC will be found: The Elopement; The Son of a Gambolier (Sketch); Perfection; Goose with Sage and Inguns; Who's dat Knockin' at de Garden Gate (Sketch); Come in out ob de Storm; Yawning Joe (Sketch); My Own Sairey Ann; Never Pay Cash in Advance; The Little Old Log Cabin in the Lane (Sketch); My Gal (Sketch); The Whistling Thief (Sketch); Just Touch the Harp Gently, my Pretty Louise (Sketch); It Goes Against the Grain; Wake Up; Carve dat Possum; He, She, and the Postman.

This song book is a model of fine printing and binding, and its beautifully engraved cover has a capital picture of "Jeremy Jollyboy." ..... Price 25 Cents.

Morgan's Expose of Free Masonry. Containing all the degrees of the order conferred in a master's lodge, as written by Captain William Morgan. All the degrees conferred in the Royal Arch Chapter and Grand Encampment of Knights Templar—Knights of the Red Cross, of the Christian Mark, of the Holy Sepulchre; also, of the eleven ineffable degrees conferred in the Lodge of Perfection, and the still higher degrees of Prince of Jerusalem, Knights of the East and West, Venerable Grand Master of Symbolic Lodges, Knights and Adepts of the Eagle or Sun, Princes of the Royal Secret, Sovereign Inspector General, etc.....Price 25 Cents.

Revised and corrected to correspond with the most approved forms and ceremonies in the various Lodges of Freemasons throughout the United States. By George R. Crafts, formerly Thrice Puissant Grand Master of Manitou Council, New York. Morgan's name seems destined to the same immortality as his who "fired the Ephesian dome." Everybody finds it necessary to read this book. Not to have read it is to acknowledge yourself ignorant upon a subject that made and unmade Governors, if not Presidents.

☞ Caution to the Reading Public.—Beware of all Editions purporting to be MORGAN'S EXPOSE OF MASONRY; none are genuine but those that have the imprint of WILSON & Co. as publishers; all other editions are got up by parties who wish to mislead the public by omitting the most important parts—being merely an abridgment of the genuine work.

Napoleon's Complete Dream

Book. Containing Full, Plain and Accurate Explanations of Fortune-Telling by Dreams, Visions and Reveries. The only True and Reliable Treatise (consulted by the Great Corsican) upon that most useful and marvellous Art. Compiled from original sources: together with an anecdotal account of remarkable Visions and Apparitions, and a general Dictionary of the Significations of Dreams and Reveries. Arranged and explained in the most familiar and intelligible manner, for the instruction of the ordinary reader. By MADAM CAMILLE LE NORMAND, the Modern Sibyl, Authoress of "Fortune-Telling by Cards," and other Popular Treatises on the Occult Sciences. The writer of this book has fairly exhausted the subject. Nothing remains to explain or describe. It is here made as plain as A, B, C.

The Swamp Outlaws; or, The Lowery Bandits of North Carolina. Large 8vo, eight illustrations.....Price 25 Cents.

Nothing like it in point of fearfully intense interest has ever been read by mortal eye. All that the most imaginative writers have imagined of the terrible punishments and horrid tortures inflicted by the dark ministers of the Inquisition—the heartless agents of the Carbonari and the dagger-thrusting officers of the Fehm Gerichte—are more than surpassed in diabolical cruelty by this truthful narrative. The Carolina Randits held far greater sway over the neighborhood of their swampy fastnesses than did Rob Roy over the Scottish Highlands, or Robin Hood over the English forests. Henry Berry Lowery, the leader, was a most extraordinary man, combining in his own person many of the qualities of the French Cartouche and the Italian Rinaldi Rinaldini.

Quader was der most just man in dis pook, on ackound he dewides der hemispheres mit equalidy——Dis year der beautiful Wenus vill vash her footses in cream, pecause she vill valk der milky vay ofer.

"Carl Pretzel's Almineck Kalinder" not only gives all the really useful information to be found in every Almanac, but each month is illustrated by an original laughable picture, as "funny as they make them," and there is an original joke for almost every day in the year. These almanacs are elegantly printed, on tinted paper, and are superior, in every respect, to any books of their class.

Carl Pretzel's Book of Barodies und Mogdransifi-kations of der Mooses. Containing the following Parodies and Original Pieces:

THE JONATHAN WILD SERIES.

It is impossible to understand aught of the social life in England during the last century without knowing all about the highwaymen, and the detectives employed to capture and convict them. We need hardly say that Jonathan Wild was the most famous of the latter. The following books, while they exhibit the dashing outlaws in all their apparent success, follow them through all the sinuosities of their career till they reach their inevitable goal—the felon's cell and the scaffold of the condemned. Price 25 Cents Each.

No.
1. Jonathan Wild; or, The Daring Adventures of Paul Clifford.
2. Paul Clifford's Revenge; or, The Fate of Jonathan Wild.

Bristol Bill. Being an Account of the Life and Exploits of this notorious Burglar. By GREENHORN. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
This book deals entirely with facts. These facts show how a man of exceptionable great abilities ended his life in a State's Prison by a sad perversion of his talents.

The Brigands; or, The Maiden in Search of her Father. By GREENHORN. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
A detail of the almost incredible actions of Murrell and his notorious gang of horse-thieves and counterfeiters on the rivers and roads of the South-West.

The Virgin Wife; or, The Mysterious Nuptials.
By GREENHORN. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
The career of this young, beautiful, and accomplished wife—her terrible temptations and no less terrible fate are told in strong, plain language in this most readable book.

Grace Willard; or, The High and the Low. By GREENHORN. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
No shade of city life but what has the lens of truth directed on it in these truthful pages. It depicts the heart-struggles of a good and beautiful girl in her contest with the harpies of society.

THE BLUESKIN SERIES.

The reader will agree with us, when reading this most surprising series of adventures, that it seems a great pity that such ingenuity, skill, daring, and adroitness should have been wasted by Blueskin in his unlawful practices. That Blueskin was really a wonderful criminal these books fully prove. They prove more, however—prove that crime never pays in the long run. Price 25 Cents Each.

No.
1. Blueskin. A Romance.

No.
2. Turpin in Danger; or, Midnight on the Moor.

THE BLACK BESS SERIES.

It is really deserving of serious consideration whether society cannot in some way reclaim the men and utilize the talents so often dedicated to successful villainy. Jack Sheppard, whose almost miraculous escapes from the strongest prisons has partly redeemed his name from a bad notoriety, figures in these books in a hundred exciting scenes. They are the most rich in wondrous feats of dexterity and danger ever written. Price 25 Cents Each.

No.
1. Black Bess; or, The Knight of the Road.

No.
2. Edgeworth Bess; or, Sheppard in Danger.

Rob Roy of the Rocky Mountains; or, The Found-ling of the Indian Camp. By CHARLES E. AVERILL. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
One of the best Indian stories ever written. The author was for years right in the heart of the "Rockies," and intimately knew all the great hunters, trappers, and warriors who skirmished and fought amid their prairies and forests.

The Hunters of the West; or, The Adventures of Kit Carson. By CHARLES E. AVERILL. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
Hunters, Indians, gold-diggers, are the active agents who figure in this moving panorama of the early days of the Golden State, at the time when all the world seemed ablaze with the flood of auriferous metal. Kit Carson looms up grandly in this book.

Bonaparte's Oraculum; or, The Book of Fate. Only complete American, from the Fiftieth London, Edition. This is a facsimile, perfect in every respect, of the famous original which was sold in London for one guinea a copy. This is said to be exactly copied from the Book of Fate, obtained by the great Emperor Napoleon, and consulted, but not always acted on, by him. It has been remarked that "Happy had it been for him had he abided or been ruled by the Answers of this Oracle." No liberties have been taken with the original text in the translation than merely to adapt it to the usages of this country. It is said that an Egyptian found Kleber's assassination presaged by the Answers of this Oraculum; but that he was prevented by the aids-de-camp from approaching the general. The result is historical—Kleber fell beneath the assassin's stab.

This edition of the Oraculum being, as we have said, entire, is of course more to be relied on than the spurious, mutilated editions published by irresponsible persons. In this complete state it gives answers to questions suitable to persons in all and every condition of life, in every trade, occupation, or profession, and to persons of either sex. Of all Oraculums this is best and cheapest. The printing is clear, the paper white, and the binding strong.....Price 10 Cents.

DE WITT'S TWENTY-FIVE CENT NOVELS.

No catalogue of such varied excellence has ever been offered to the public. Not a solitary volume in this list but will richly repay any one for its perusal, while most of them are acknowledged to be possessed of every quality to gain and preserve popularity. Every shade of taste will find in some of these books the very thing to especially please them. There is not one uninteresting book in the lot. Some of them depict to the life the vast difference between the social standing of Peer and Peasant in less fortunate lands than our own; others give thrilling narratives of Hunter, Trapper, and Indian life; others are brilliant stories of the Opera and the Drama; while still others are animated stories of real life in New York. Of themselves they form a complete cheap library of romantic fiction, containing 100 pages each. Price 25 Cents Each.

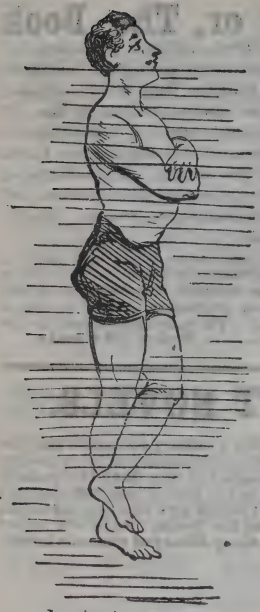
JOHN T. IRVING (nephew of Washington Irving). One large 12mo, bevelled edges.....Price $1.50.

Of this work one of our best critics says: "It has traces of the quiet humor of Washington Irving, and of the strong, bold character drawing of Dickens. The scenes are felicitously conceived, and awaken an intense interest in the reader."



"It is full of humor, and, as a composition, infinitely above seven-eighths of the modern works of fiction."—Dollar Newspaper, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Attorney; or, The Correspondence of John

Quod. By JOHN T. IRVING (nephew of Washington Irving). One large 12mo, bevelled edges. Price $1.50

"The Attorney" was first published in the Knickerbocker Magazine in 1841, and in 1842 was issued in book form in two volumes. The work has been out of print several years.

"The Saxon purity of style and the finish of the rhetoric does no discredit to the author's name—for his initials to the opening chapter proclaim in John Quod, Mr. Irving, a nephew of the humorist of Sunnyside."—Literary World, New York.

THE CLAUDE DUVAL SERIES.

A notable man was Claude Duval, and in his day his whereabouts was as regularly chronicled as the movements of the royal family. He seemed to be ubiquitous; for hardly would the cry be raised that he had robbed some alderman of his diamond snuff-box and bag of guineas in Essex, before it was confidently asserted that he had stopped the travelling carriage of some fair duchess, and compelled her to dance a minuet before she could proceed on her way. The rascal was so clever that thousands of cases are given in this series in which he seemed to be doing ill for the fun of the thing. Of course it was no fun to his victims; nor, in the end, was it any fun to him. Price 25 Cents Each.

THE NIGHTSHADE SERIES.

Rightly named has been this series of very interesting books. Though much of the incident is such that it necessarily appears in the annals of highwaymen, still large portions of these works abound in other and equally interesting scenes. Love plays the mischief with the red-coated marauder as well as with his more honest victims; and startling are many of the scenes where a country lass discovers that her fine gentleman sweetheart was at best but a "minion of the moon." A very readable set of books, indeed. Price 25 Cents Each.

9. The Last Leap; or, The Reward of Crime.

THE HANDSOME JACK SERIES.

One of the ablest writers in England has employed his time in writing this remarkable list of books. They abound in wonderfully smart descriptions of the strange acts necessarily following in a highwayman's career. Now boldly rifling coach passengers of their money; anon flying over hedges and ditches, with half a county mounted at their heels; now squandering their ill-gotten golden guineas in riotous living; anon writing their dismal epitaphs upon the damp walls of their cells. Life of strange vicissitudes—lessons to the unwary—flaming beacons to warn youth from reefs and quicksands. Price 25 Cents Each.

Lyric Gems from Opera Bouffe. Containing the following very best Songs in Offenbach's Opera Bouffe, "La Princesse de Trebizonde." Arranged for the Voice and Piano by HENRY TUCKER:

Oh, Rare Malvoise; Rhotomago Partner Fair; Ah! What a Fate! The Turtle Doves; Walk Up Now, This is No Humbug; Song of the Tight-rope Dancer; These Aching Teeth; Painted so Fine, with Eyes Divine; Fool, You may Say it if You Please; Oh, Flowers so Fair and Sweet; Pleased with Myself; Whisper "Yes" or "No," Love; Sweet Land of Tyrol; Little Blue Butterfly.

These pieces can rarely be obtained in this country, despite the popularity of the great composer; hence the publisher has, at great expense, had them carefully prepared, and published them in this cheap but elegant form.

☞ Printed on heavy music-paper, with an elegant Lithographic Cover, printed in colors..Price 50 Cents.

Sol Smith Russell's Musical Album. Containing the following fourteen pieces of choice Songs and Ballads—mostly comic. The Music arranged for Voice and Piano, expressly for this work, by HENRY TUCKER:

Pearls from English Opera. Containing the following fourteen beautiful compositions, as sung by the Parepa-Rosa Troupe. Arranged for the Voice and Piano by HENRY TUCKER:

A Loving Daughter's Heart; The Paradise of Love; Then You'll Remember Me; I Dreamt that I Dwelt in Marble Halls; 'Tis Sad to Leave our Fatherland; The Tempest of the Heart; On Yonder Rock Reclining; Young Agnes, Beauteous Flower; List to the Gay Castanet; The Heart Bowed Down; Ah! so Pure; Her Gentle Voice Expressed no Guile; Why Linger, Mourner Memory? My Own, my Guiding Star.

Every admirer of the matchless songstress whose name adds lustre to this superior collection will be glad to obtain in such a neat form the vocal pearls that drop from her lips like dewdrops from the rose. This bouquet of exquisite pieces contains no less than fourteen of the most charming and attractive songs and ballads to be found in the whole range of operatic music. A professor of "the divine art" has only to glance at the music pages to see how admirably the accompaniments are arranged, and how handsomely the printing is executed. It is a miracle of excellence and cheapness.

Bryant's Casket of Musical Gems. Containing the following fifteen pieces of the very finest Songs and Ballads, as sung by the Bryant Opera Troupe. Arranged for Voice and Piano by HENRY TUCKER:

Little Maggie May; Thy Voice is Near; Lover's Letter-Box; Far Away; Fisherman's Daughter; Chickabiddy, or Good-bye, John; Where is my Nancy? Call her Back and Kiss Her; Pretty Little Flora; Tapping at the Garden Gate; The Soft Dew is Sleeping; The Bell goes a-Ringing for Sa-i-rah; Jess McFarland; O, My Lost Love; Blue-Eyed Violets.

No finer collection of choice music has ever appeared that this; "each particular" piece is good enough to give a composer a deathless reputation, while the whole combined make such a parterre of the flowers of Song as must challenge universal admiration.

☞ Printed on heavy music-paper, with an elegant Lithographic Cover, printed in colors..Price 50 Cents.

The "Heathen Chinee" Musical Album. Containing the following fifteen pieces of choice Songs and Ballads—mostly Comic. The Music arranged for Voice and Piano, expressly for this work, by HENRY TUCKER:

Heathen Chinee; When my Ship Comes Home; If Ever I Cease to Love; Housekeeper's Woes; When the Corn is Waving, Annie; Bother the Men; It's Nice to be a Father; That's the Style for Me, Boys; Act on the Square, Boys; Pretty Polly, if You Love Me, do Say "Yes"; She Danced Like a Fairy; Never Go East of Madison Square; On, Boys, On, the Coast is Always Clear; I Wish I Was a Fish; The Bird on the Tree.

The laughable piece that gives title to the above is bound to be the most popular of recent times. It is so thoroughly "Chinee" in all its characteristics, that one would think its admirable composer had fed on birds' nests—and nightingales, at that—all his life. The other pieces are all capital ones, master productions of their respective authors.

The F. W. ROBINSON SERIES

ROBINSON is "one of the few, the immortal few" authors who have described with thrilling accuracy every phase of human life, without ever sullying a solitary page by one impure idea or word. But he shows that purity of thought and language by no means necessarily leads to paucity of ideas or weak sentences; on the contrary, Robinson's books are models of striking plots, strongly chiselled characters, brilliant descriptions, and terse, vigorous and characteristic dialogue. In the portrayal of homelike scenes Robinson often rivals DICKENS, while many of his thrillingly eloquent portrayals of passions equal the "breathing thoughts and burning words" that have given BULWER his unquestioned niche among the master spirits of English literature.

1. ONE AND TWENTY; A Novel. Happy as the Author has been in the selection of his subject he has been still happier in his charming manner of treating it. He has made Love the dominant impulse of the young hearts that render this book the most delightful it has been our fortune to peruse.

2. WILDFLOWER; A Novel. Taking one of the most bewitchingly lovely creatures for his heroine the author takes her through trials and adventures that bring out all her latent glorious qualities, and render her the cynosure behind which cluster the other living personages of the book.

3. GRANDMOTHER'S MONEY. In this book Mr. Robinson strikes a higher and grander note than most of our novelists. Nobly, too, does he carry through his swelling theme. Avarice was never painted with his hideous features, and never have the craving sycophants who cringe to wealth been so forcibly pilloried for all time.

4. SWEET NINETEEN; A Novel. Again thrice welcome! say we to a new book by Robinson. The flowers of spring and the fruits of autumn are not more welcome; and, indeed, in this gifted author's books we find the choicest spring flowers of fancy, and the matured and juicy wisdom of the autumn of the mind.

5. UNDER THE SPELL; A Novel. Most aptly christened. It keeps every reader waiting with eager eye and bated breath through every richly painted page—pages that give reality to some of the best creations that ever the novelist's cunning and busy brain has formed.

6. THE HOUSE OF ELMORE; A Family History. Intensely melodramatic in conception and execution. A sombre pall envelopes the fortunes of this ill-starred family. The boding raven should have been their crest; but there are gentle, innocent creatures in these darksome pages that seem all the brighter and more beauteous by contrast with their gloomy surroundings.

7. ANNE JUDGE, SPINSTER. Of all the pure, loveable creations, by either poet or novelist, ANNE JUDGE, as here delineated, is one of the purest and most loveable. Her tender devotion to her poor, old, broken father, is as beautiful in its way as that of Little Nell for her aged grandsire. Warp and woof is full of generous human sympathies.

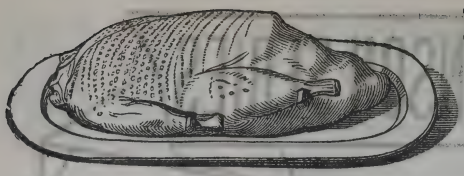
8. RUTH GARNET; or, Loves of the Earl of Rochester. The author has happily taken some of the most interesting passages in English History, and woven them into a tale of amazing interest. The heroine enlists our warmest sympathies in the outset, and retains them to the last, as she passes through her strange career.

9. THE HEIRS OF DERWENTWATER; A Novel. Unfortunately, it is but seldom that our critical vision is blessed by the pages of a book so completely excellent. The action of the story is refreshingly lifelike; no tiresome, discursive writing; onward, onward the reader is pleasantly hurried, till the last brilliant sentence is arrived at.

10. OLD NOLL; or, The Days of the Ironsides. No phase of English History affords such varied and effective pictures, either for the painter or the novelist, as that in which the Lord Protector swayed the iron sceptre over his native England. This book, while full of romantic incidents, gives an admirable idea of the conflicts between the Roundheads and Cavaliers.

11. HEADS AND HEARTS; or, My Brother, the Colonel. A book to be read, and read again, with renewed delight. The style is so clear that every description, every incident is revealed as plainly as the shells and pebbles through the translucent medium of a brook. The contests between heads and hearts, as in real life, is maintained with fierce earnestness.

12. THE SECRETARY; or, Circumstantial Evidence. The subtle web whose threads enmesh the leading character of this book is woven with a skill and deftness that remind us of the plottings of a Fouché or the artful imaginings of a Poe. We watch, with intense, unwearied interest, every slender filament that goes to strengthen the growing bonds.



13. SHIRA; A Novel. Those Arabs of civilization, the gipseys, have given subjects for many brilliant works of imagination, but we know of no book in which the dusky denizens of forest and woodland have been so successfully conveyed into the regions of fiction as in this book. It is the book of the season; and, indeed, few seasons witnesses the advent of such a charming book.

14. OLLI; A Novel. This work points a moral in a most striking style. It shows the career of one who, letting passion take the helm, is borne into all the furious storms that beset the fiery, untamed souls of too many ardent youths. The work is full of thrilling and saddening scenes; too full, alas! of truth to be gainsayed.

Each of the above books makes a handsome 8vo volume; printed on fine white paper. Price 50 cents.

A Manual of the Dissection of the Human Body.

By LUTHER HOLDEN, F. R. C. S., Assistant Surgeon of, and Lecturer on, Anatomy at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London. With Notes and Additions by ERSKINE MASON, M. D., Demonstrator of Anatomy at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and Surgeon to Charity Hospital, New York. Illustrated with numerous wood engravings.

This work is so universally commended by those most capable to judge of its merits that it must become the text-book in its branch of science. Dr. Holden's reputation is world-wide, and Dr. Mason is eminently fitted by nature, education and experience, to edit this important book.

This Book contains over 600 pages royal octavo, handsomely bound in cloth, with bevelled boards...Price $5.

Lessons in Physical Diagnosis. By Alfred C.

LOOMIS, M. D., Professor of the Institutes and Practice of Medicine in the Medical Department of the University of New York, Physician to Bellevue and Charity Hospitals, etc.

This is a book that will be a valuable addition to every medical library. There is no other work of exactly its character extant. The language is clear, terse, explicit, suited to the practical nature of the subject. The author, a perfect master of his important subject, leaves nothing unexplained. Not only every student, but every physician will find much to interest and instruct in these pages.

This work is printed in the finest style, from good-sized, clear type, on the whitest paper.

This work contains nearly 200 pages royal octavo, handsomely bound in cloth, with bevelled boards..Price $2.

A Practical Treatise on the Diseases of the Sexual Organs of Women. By F. W. VON SCANZONI, Professor of Midwifery and Diseases of Females in the University of Wurzburg; Counsellor to his Majesty, the King of Bavaria; Chevalier of many Orders. Translated from the French of Drs. H. Dor and A. Socin, and annotated with the approval of the author. By AUGUSTUS K GARDNER, A. M., M. D., Professor of Clinical Midwifery and the Diseases of Women in the New York Medical College; Author of "The Causes and Curative Treatment of Sterility;" Editor of "Tyler Smith's Lectures on Obstetrics," etc. With unwards of sixty illustrations.

It is almost unnecessary to speak of the merits of the above work; Scanzoni has a world-wide reputation, and on the Continent of Europe he is considered as standing at the head of Obstetrical Science, being Professor of Midwifery in the leading College in Germany; and from his great ability and well-known experience, it makes this book the authority on this subject. In its publication no expense has been spared, in typography, paper and illustrations. As now issued, it contains nearly 800 pages royal octavo, handsomely bound in cloth, with bevelled boards.....Price $5.

Virchow's Cellular Pathology, as Based upon

Physiological and Pathological Histology. Twenty Lectures, delivered in the Pathological Institute of Berlin, during the months of February, March and April, 1858. By RUDOLPH VIRCHOW, Public Professor of Ordinary Pathological Anatomy, General Pathology and Therapeutics in the University of Berlin; Director of the Pathological Institute, and Physician to the Charity Hospital, etc., etc.

Translated from the Second Edition of the original, by FRANK CHANCE, B. A., M. B., Cantab., Licentiate of the Royal College of Physicians; Physician to the Blenheim Free Dispensary and Infirmary. With Notes and Emendations, principally from the MS. Notes of the Author, and illustrated by 144 engravings on wood.

The above Lectures were delivered in the year 1858, in the new Pathological Institute of the University of Berlin, in the presence of a large number of the first medical men in that city.

The importance of the subject, the new ideas advanced, and the well-known reputation of the lecturer, compelled the publication of these Lectures in book form, and it is now considered the standard work throughout Germany on this subject. In its publication no expense has been spared in typography, paper, or illustration. As now issued, it contains nearly 800 pages royal octavo, handsomely bound in cloth, with bevelled boards.

Copies of this Book were sent to every Medical Hospital by the United States Government for the use of the Surgeons.....Price $5.

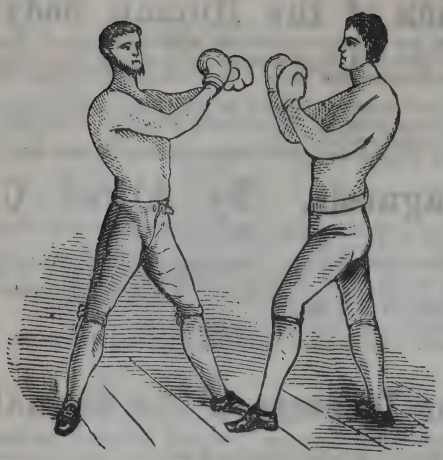
A Course of Lectures on Obstetrics. By Wm.

TYLER SMITH, M. D., Physician-Accoucheur and Lecturer on Midwifery and Diseases of Females in St. Mary's Hospital Medical School; Member of the Royal College of Physicians; Vice-President of the Medical Society, London; Honorary Fellow of the Obstetrical Society of Dublin, etc. With an introductory Lecture on the History of the Art of Midwifery, and copious practical annotations, by AUGUSTUS K. GARDNER, A. M., M. D., late Instructor of Obstetrics in the New York Preparatory School of Medicine; Author of "The Causes and Curative Treatment of Sterility," etc. Illustrated by engravings.



The above course of Lectures on Obstetrics, lately published in the columns of the London Lancet, has been carefully revised by the author, and, by the addition of two chapters and frequent amplification, and some score of new engravings, has been arranged to form one of Churchill's Celebrated Manuals for Students. The publisher has the pleasure to announce that, in accordance with the general high estimate of their value, and the frequent expressed desire that they might be available to the profession, he made arrangements with the distinguished practical accoucheur and obstetric student, AUGUSTUS K. GARDNER, A. M., M. D., Fellow of the New York Academy of Medicine, New York Pathological Society, etc., etc., to revise these Lectures, and properly arrange them for the use of the American student, who, to secure such a result, has interspersed numerous copious annotations throughout the work, and added a Preliminary Lecture on the History of the Art of Midwifery, and the Os and Cervix Uteri in its Obstetric Relations. In its publication no expense has been spared in typography, paper, or illustration. Numerous wood-cuts have been added by the editor, illustrative of practical points, thus rendering it the most profusely illustrated work on Obstetrics ever published, and entitling it in every respect to be considered as the Modern Practice of Midwifery.

As now issued it occupies nearly 800 pages royal octavo, handsomely bound in cloth, bevelled boards...Price $5.

The Lives and Battles of Tom Sayers, the Champion of England, and John C. Heenan, the "Benicia Boy."

Containing full accounts of their contests in the Ring; embellished with life-like Portraits.....Price 50 Cents.

Scarcely any battle that has ever been fought in the roped arena attracted such universal interest as their great fight. Not only "sports" were intensely exercised, and manifested their interest by betting "their piles" upon the result, but the general public were full of excitement about the fight.

The Life of William Poole. With a full account of the terrible affray in which he received his death wound.

Containing sketches of Tom Hyer, Yankee Sullivan and John Morrissey.....Price 25 Cents.

William Poole, apart from the sad and sudden manner of his death, was known to the bulk of his countrymen as the champion and exponent of native vigor and courage. The true life of such a man—from his cradle to the day in which, with a bullet imbedded in his heart, he "yielded to death, but conquered agony"—cannot fail to interest every reader.

A History of Government. Showing the Progress of Civil Society and the Structure of Ancient and Modern States.

By AUG. J. H. DUGANNE. Adapted to Popular Reading and for the use of Schools; well bound in library style.....Price $1.50

This is a vast design to unfold in one volume, but the author was competent to his task. He has not used one superfluous sentence. Every word tells. He has thoroughly and completely mastered his difficult subject. Dispensing with everything extraneous, he has kept himself strictly to facts, which he has arranged most excellently, and expressed in terse, vigorous, explicit terms. A man might read a thousand volumes on these important subjects and not be as thoroughly well informed as he can make himself by the perusal of this one volume. It is the cream of the History of Governments, carefully collected by one who has given years to its study and analyzation.

☞ The above work has been adopted as a text-book by the Board of Education of the City of New York, and has been placed upon their new list of approved books, and is now used in the Schools of the City of New York.

MARRYATT'S NOVELS.

DE WITT'S UNIFORM AND CHEAP EDITION.

PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS EACH.

NEWTON FOSTER. Gives a clearer idea of a seaman's existence than a voyage around the Horn. Neither terrible nor merry adventures are omitted. Indeed one passes from the cabin to the fo'castle as in real life.

MIDSHIPMAN EASY. This writer never wrote a dull book. Marryatt was every inch a sailor—knew a sailor's every foible, every whim, and has painted them to the life.

PETER SIMPLE. About the best sea story in the language. Thousands have laughed till the tears came, at the locker full of fun that the Captain opens for all—powder-monkey or middy alike.

PACHA OF MANY TALES. The many tales will be found equal to one another, and all excellent, and never tedious in length. Yet are they never, "like the cur's continuation," cut off too close to the ears.

THE PIRATE AND THE THREE CUTTERS. All kinds of visions arise before the reader's eyes—frowning men, clambering aboard contested craft; shots exchanged; cutlasses clashing—in short, a fierce encounter with the crew of the ship assailed.

THE KING'S OWN. Here we have unalloyed enjoyment—the sea breeze, the exciting episodes, the novel, interesting sights, scenes and persons, without the discomforts attending them. Most admirably has the author blended lights and shades in this great romance.

JAPHET IN SEARCH OF A FATHER. No writer has risen worthy to wield Marryatt's unrivalled pen. No reader ever regrets having started out with Japhet in his long, long, laborious search.

SNARLEYOW, THE DOG FIEND. "Snarleyow" will have been found guilty of making Daniel Lamberts of the human race. The person who has not yet perused this book has "a high old time" in store for him.

JACOB FAITHFUL. Marryatt knew every strand in a sailor's life, and there has never been one so able in portraying. Blow high and or blow low, the Captain is "always on deck."

FRANK MILDMAY. Perhaps in no other work does Marryatt better evince his wonderful power than he does in "Frank Mildmay." Whether "running under bare poles" or "carrying every stitch of canvas," none can beat the "Cap."

PERCIVAL KEENE. This writer knew every craft that ever floated, with a no less thorough knowledge of every wish, hope, fear that ever pulsated in a true heart. This has made Marryatt the best nautical novelist that ever lived.

PHANTOM SHIP. If anybody knows more about "Wizard Skiffs," and "Flying Dutchmen" than Marryatt "runs off" in this book, he can take our tarpaulin and the last "chaw" of Lorillard we have in the locker.

RATLIN, THE REEFER. The happiest days of our existence were when we were "laying off" in the foretop of old "Ironsides," reading this charming book to our all-delighted messmates.

THE POACHER. In this book Marryatt proves that he could write equally as well of "shore" life as of a "life on the ocean wave." The adventures of Joseph Rushbrook are very affecting.

POOR JACK. The life history of this little sea-side waif is one of the most truthful narratives of the troubles and trials of a sailor-boy's cruise that has ever been entered in the log-book of life.

MASTERMAN READY; OR, THE WRECK OF THE PACIFIC. A book of wrecks, and coral isles, and orange groves, of dusky maids in the ocean billows, and of half-wild runaway sailor boys.

VALERIE. Evidently written by Marryatt to show that he was equally at home on the land as on the sea. Powerful and tender scenes dramatically portrayed and contrasted.

All of the above books are neatly printed, with paper covers, and make very nice volumes.

WORKS OF SIR EDWARD LYTTON BULWER.

(LORD LYTTON.)

It is almost superfluous to say a word in praise of the prince of novelists. He holds an undivided sceptre over the mind of every intelligent reader. For skillful plots, fine discrimination of character, and powerful delineation of passion, he has no equal. Time flies, and in his course sweeps down the budding as well as the matured fruits of other authors—but his keen scythe leaves the productions of Bulwer as fresh and lovely as when he first gladdened the eyes of his readers with their manifold excellences. PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS EACH.

RIENZI. This glorious Republican treads amid the broken pillars of the antique forum, and rouses his fallen countrymen. In this great book Bulwer admirably blends the old heroic souls of the ancient Roman with the picturesque, and perhaps more loveable, personages of early Italy.

PELHAM; or, The Adventures of a Gentleman. Bulwer gives us an insight into the fashionable phase of London Society, and makes us acquainted with the real "higher classes."

PAUL CLIFFORD. It takes nothing from the interest of this great story to know that many of its incidents are true to life. It shows that vice in its most captivating form but leads to destruction.

EUGENE ARAM. Stripped of all embellishment, this is the most woful tale that ever was truly told; but, told as Bulwer has narrated it, it would bring tears from any eyes, "how'ver unused to the melting mood."

THE DISOWNED. No story was ever more full of striking incidents, or of more deeply cut characters. Truly a great novel; a novel, indeed, that has no superior among books of its class.

FALKLAND. Full of the tenderness of Petrarch and the ardor of Abelard. Unlike any other work by him, it is still full of genius. It is out of the fulness of the heart that the mouth pours forth its eloquence.

In same volume:

PILGRIMS OF THE RHINE. Every reviewer has eulogized this charming volume. Those who intend travelling on the blue stream that mirrors Bingen on its bosom should read this book.

LAST DAYS OF POMPEII. It required the highest genius to fitly describe the terrible overwhelming of this city. The blind girl, Nidia, has furnished themes for playwrights, painters and sculptors.

THE STUDENT. The thoughtful devotee of science is most poetically depicted. The interesting scholar, with his face "sicklied o'er with the pale cast of thought," is a noble character.

DEVEREUX. Even Bulwer cannot hope to surpass this story. It seems perfection in every particular. We can recall the name of no modern book that has taken such a firm hold on popularity.

DE WITT'S "FORGET-ME-NOT" SONG BOOKS.

In quantity and quality alike, this series bears away the palm. Such a number of first-class songs was never before given at so low a price. These books are well printed, strongly bound, and are as neat in appearance as they are excellent in contents. They may be called "The Vocalist's Library," so complete are they in every particular. Every person that wants to have every good song in his possession, should obtain this unapproachable series.

TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY FIRST-RATE SONGS—HANDSOMELY PRINTED AND FINELY BOUND FOR FIFTY CENTS A VOLUME.

De Witt's Irish Forget-Me-Not Songster. One Volume, Cloth, Gilt. 250 Songs. Price 50 Cents.

This volume is studded with gems of Irish Song—including the masterpieces of Moore, Lever, Lover, and that glorious galaxy of song writers whose genius has flooded Ireland with metrical glory.

De Witt's Sentimental Forget-Me-Not Songster.

One Volume, Cloth, Gilt. 250 Songs. Price 50 Cents.

In this volume will be found such a melange of truly beautiful Songs and Ballads as has never before enriched any one book. Every song that is tender, touching, pathetic, melting, or full of hallowed memories, will be found in this work. Songs that are linked to the loveliest tunes.

De Witt's Comic Forget-Me-Not Songster. One Volume, Cloth, Gilt. 250 genuine Comic Songs. Price 50 Cents.

Filled "chock full" of all the tip-top, truly jolly, quaintly droll, immensely funny, innocently free-and-easy, slap-bang, rollicking, racy, genuine old-fashioned Comic Songs. Songs to set a circus, a variety show, or a jovial dinner-table in an uproarious roar. Hip, hip, hurrah.

De Witt's Serio-Comic Forget-Me-Not Songster.

One Volume, Cloth, Gilt. 250 Songs. Price 50 Cents.

Among the two hundred and fifty splendid songs that help to make up the contents of this book, will be found the chiefest ballads that have been warbled by the beautiful blondes in burlesques, and the favorites that have dazzled the stars of the Opera Bouffe, besides lots of semi-sentimental songs, the delight of every refined musical meeting.

Out of the Streets. By Charles Gayler. 12mo, cloth, handsomely bound. Price $1.50.

This story was first published as a serial in Frank Leslie's Chimney Corner, and increased the circulation of that paper many thousand copies. It is a most powerful novel, depicting, through the medium of a wonderfully interesting story, a series of real life scenes in New York.

The History of the Great Italian War of 1859, in the German language. Stating its causes and the Fairest and Fullest Accounts of the Great Battles, from Montebello to Solferino. Price 25 Cents.

Our own sanguinary conflicts and the terrible battles between the French and Germans, have somewhat lessened the interest in Solferino, Magenta, and the Equilateral; but they will be found of surpassing interest as narrated in this work.

Helen Mulgrave; or, Jesuit Executorship. Over 300 pages large 12mo, elegantly bound in cloth. Price $1.25.

Apart from the zeal and earnestness with which the all-absorbing subject of religious or semi-religious education is handled in these pages, it is a wonderfully interesting story.

Spirit Manifestations Examined and Explained.

Judge Edmunds Refuted; or, An Exposition of the Involuntary Powers and Instincts of the Human Mind. By JOHN BOVEE DOD. Price $1.00.

The most powerful recruit that ever joined the ranks of Spiritualism was the late learned and able Judge Edmunds, and consequently doubly able must have been the arguments needed to confute him. How well the author of this remarkable book has succeeded must be left to the unprejudiced reader's judgment.

Progress and Prejudice. By Mrs. Gore. Over 300 pages 12mo, bound in cloth. Price $1.00.

Mrs. Gore has justly been ranked as one of England's most gifted writers, and certainly if this book be a test of her ability, she well deserves her position.

Christine; or, Woman's Trials and Triumphs. By LAURA J. CURTIS. Price $1.50.

Written evidently by one who has sustained more than an average share of the ills and joys that chequer human life. Very many of the passages are exceedingly full of pathos, and every page is well written.

The History of the Great Italian War of 1859.

Carefully compiled from official Documents and the most reliable accounts. Embellished with a valuable Topographical Map, 29x19, showing the Routes and Battle-fields, from the landing of the French Troops at Genoa to the Battle of Solferino. PIERCE EGAN'S STORIES.

THE author of the following great books has attained a success as genuine, and pronounced, in his peculiar field, as either Marryatt, Bulwer or Dickens. He has the wondrous faculty of imparting an intense and absorbing interest to his varied characters.—His plots are real miracles of ingenious complication, their denouments being riddles impossible of solution by the most penetrating of novel readers; and yet all is conducted to a natural and probable explanation. PIERCE EGAN'S popularity is continually on the increase, and most deservedly so—for he continually improves: so that his LAST seems always to be his BEST book.

1. The London Apprentice and the Goldsmith's Daughter. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.
Seizing upon one of the most striking periods of English history, the author has so effectively wrought his incidents as to produce a work that may successfully vie with Scott or Bulwer.

2. Li lian's Fate, or Lads of Old London. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.
These pages actually revivify the most picturesque of olden cities—London, with all its pageants, fights, and most romantic incidents of intrigue and love-making.

3. The Veiled Lady, or The Throne and the Scaffold. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.
Surely never were terribly impressive scenes described with such terribly impressive power, as in Egan's 'Veiled Lady.' The reader can easily imagine himself touching the blood-dripping scaffold.

4. Clifton Grey, or The Birthright Restored. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.
In 'Clifton Grey' Egan shows that it is not only in depicting 'castles grey and ruins hoary' that he excels. Here he employs his wizard stylus in describing modern phases of life and character.

5. Myra, or The Cruise of the Sea Bird. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.
Seldom have we an opportunity to 'praise so much, condemn so little,' as in this really charming romance. Pierce Egan happily blends the eternal truth with fiction.

6. The Snake in the Grass. 8vo, Paper, 50 cents.
Another of Pierce Egan's truly great novels—great alike in conception and execution. The heroine is magnificently drawn, and stands out in loveliness, like the statue that enchants the world.

7. Lady Blanche, or The Castle and the Cottage. 8vo. Paper, 50 cents.
In this delightful novel the author has depicted each extreme of life—the tenderly cherished lily of aristocracy and the little cared-for daisy of the humbler class. Both are painted to the life.

8. The Flower of the Flock, 8vo, Paper, 50 cents.
Egan's power of rivetting the attention of his readers, is superior to that of any other writer. He may justly be styled 'the Homer of the stock' of modern novelists.

9. Ada Leigh, or The Love Test. 8vo, Paper, 50 Cents.
"Most assuredly no writer of our time discourses so eloquently of love affairs as does Egan. The sad distraught of broken heartedness, equally with the joyous rapture of a love returned, vivify his novels.

10. Love Me, Leave Me Not. 8vo, Paper, 50 cents.
A good plot, excellent description, glowing periods, a maid all love and beauty, a youth of wit and promise. What more is needed?"

11. Lionel Joselyn. vo, Paper, 50 cents.
This book is no mere charavari of incidents, thrown together hap-hazard, but the labored production of a practiced scholar.

12. The Blue Eyed W ch, or Not a Friend in the World. 8vo, Paper, 50 cents.
A life record of the tarnished caree of one of the most angel-visaged beauties that ever blessed our sphere. Her sad, sad history, is full of tremu throbs, 13. My Love Ka , or The Dreadful Secret. 8vo, Paper, 50 cents.

The pallid features and clay-cold lips of despair, though wierdly pictured in those interesting pages, by no means form the staple attraction. There are many passages full of fervid utterances.

14. The Poor Boy, or The Betrayer Baffled. 8vo, Paper, 50 cents.
Rarely have the struggles of youthful poverty been so truthfully and effectively portrayed. The author appears to have dipped his 'grey goose quill' into the magic inkstand of Dickens.

15. Mark Jarrett's Daisy, The Wild Flower of Hazlewood. 8vo, Paper, One dollar.
This is the cap-sheaf to a rich harvest of literary fame, which has been reaped in the field of literary labor. Mr. Egan may well be proud of his latest book.

16. Ever my Queen, or Only a Work Girl. 8vo, Paper, 50 cents.
Again have we to chronicle the welcome appearance of one of Pierce Egan's brilliant productions. Fresh, original, vigorous and full of strong, sustained interest from the initial sentence to the close.

Every one of the above books is nicely printed, on good paper, brown paper covers, and make a handsome volume.

G. W. M. REYNOLDS' NOVELS.

No. 1. FAUST, a Romance of the Secret Tribunals. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

Reynolds is never so truly great as when grappling with those fearful crimes which make nations pale at their recital. In this book we have the dust of centuries swept away and awful secrets disclosed.

No. 2. WAGNER, the Wehr Wolf. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

All peoples have in their traditions stories of the vampire-ghouls, that, stealing into the hushed chamber at midnight, have drawn the blood from the veins of sleeping beauty. This great writer vivifies the legend.

No. 3. THE EMPRESS EUGENIE'S BOUDOIR; or, Mysteries of the Court of France. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

Grasping the heavy velvet curtains with a hand of steel, the author has torn away all concealment, and lets the light flood the salons desecrated by Epicurean and Sybaritic enjoyment.

No. 4. THE YOUNG DUCHESS; or, Memoirs of a Lady of Quality. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

Wealth has its temptations as well as penury. Read this book to see in its glaring but truthful tints, the inner life of the proudest aristocracy that ever scoffed at virtue, and made rank a synonym for guilt.

No. 5. IMOGEN HARTLAND; or, The Star of the Circus. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

Few who gaze upon the curled and spangled darlings who nightly tempt being dashed to death in the arena, know aught of these graceful creatures' temptations. Reynolds knew them all, and has here described them.

No. 6. ETHEL TREVOR; or, The Duke's Victim. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

Had the earth opened and swallowed this perjured aristocrat ere he did his victim this great wrong, it had been well with him. Our author holds nothing back—all—all is told.

No. 7. CANONBURY HOUSE; or, The Queen's Prophecy. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

There are few scenes in history so black and bloody as those that form the staple of this work. Reynolds never weakens his pictures by omitting any incident, however splashed with gore.

No. 8. ADA ARUNDEL; or, The Secret Corridor. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

Could the denizens of palaces have foreseen that the day would come when all their follies and vices would be given to the world in all their glaring deformity, they might have acted differently.

No. 9. OLIVIA; or, The Maid of Honor. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

Reynolds being himself of noble birth, had an intimate acquaintance with the living aristocracy, and means of knowing the history of the past. Like Mirabeau he has unveiled their secret loves and hates relentlessly.

No. 10. OMAR PASHA; or, The Vizier's Daughter. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

This great Turkish general underwent strange adventures, both in harem and in palace, ere his surprising fortunes culminated by his promotion. Our author tells us all about these adventures.

No. 11. CATHARINE VOLMAR; or, A Father's Vengeance. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

If there is another book so filled with events to interest, delight, and, sometimes to appal, we confess we have never read it. This work is one among ten thousand.

No. 12. THE WHITE LADY, a Romance of Love and War. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

All that the most poetic fancy could conceive of the master-passions of the human heart are here described by "the so potent art" of this great master of romantic fiction.

No. 13. LEILA; or, The Star of Mingrelia. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

Reynolds here takes us to an unexplored region—the very home of romance—among the lovely maidens from which the seraglios of Constantinople are chosen. Alas, the pictures that he paints have a sad reverse side.

No. 14. KARAMAN, the Bandit Chief. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

Scenes fill these startling pages wild as the region where they transpire—in the land of the mountain crag and the thundering cataract, passions as wild and deeds as fearful are shown to exist.

No. 15. THE FIRST FALSE STEP; or, The Path of Crime. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

If the silent watcher who throws the beacon-light across the waste of waters to warn the incautious mariner deserves praise, how much more the great writer who points the unwary to the fatal path that leads to destruction.

No. 16. ROSE SOMERVILLE; or, A Husband's Mystery. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

The mantle of mystery that enshrouds the principal character in this book baffles conjecture and excites curiosity. It is truly a wonderful story—none but itself can be its parallel.

No. 17. THE MISER'S WILL; or, The Doom of the Poisoner. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

We may ransack libraries for years without meeting with a volume that so completely takes our reason prisoner and hurries us along with such bated breath from first to last.

No. 18. THE PALACE OF INFAMY; or, The Slave Woman of England. 8vo, paper. 50 Cents.

When we read this dreadful recital of the snares and pitfalls set for the innocent daughters of poverty in England, we cannot help wishing for some thunderbolt "red with uncommon wrath," to dash the betrayer to the earth they disgrace.

All of the above books are handsomely printed, with illustrated uniform paper covers, and make very attractive volumes.

DRE DUMAS. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

Upon this great book was formed the celebrated opera of "La Traviata," and the well-known drama of "Camille."

The Mutineer; or, Heaven's Vengeance. By Os-

GOOD BRADBURY. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

A strangely interesting tale of the many hardships and dangers undergone by a rash, impetuous, and daring mutineer, trying to evade justice and save his wife from ruin.

White Chief's Bride; or, The Trappers of Acadie.

By the author of the "Prarie Scout." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

While the story itself is one of great interest, that interest is greatly enhanced by the vivid delineations of border scouts and Indian braves that so graphically fill its pages.

Mounted Rifleman; or, The Girl of the Robbers'

Pass. By NEWTON M. CURTIS. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

Gives a vivid series of word-pictures of the strange adventures of our gallant young soldiers among the handsome senoritas and the stern and fierce rough-riders of the sierras of Mexico, during the invasion of the land of Montezuma.

Black-Eyed Beauty; or, One of the Lost. By the Author of "New York After Dark," etc. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

One of the most telling, truthful, and useful books ever written to expose the follies and frailties of the various circles of fast life in New York.

The Baronet's Bride; or, A Husband's Secret. By the author of "Temptations and Trials." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
Brimful of interesting and affecting love scenes, "pure and simple."

Jessie Cameron: A Highland Story. By the Lady RACHEL BUTLER. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
A really beautiful story of real life in the most romantic part of Scotland.

The Solitary Hunter; or, Sporting Adventures on the Prairies. By JOHN PALISSER. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
It's a toss up at times whether the bears and alligators are hunting or being hunted.

The Fair Quakeress; or, The Perjured Lawyer. By OSGOOD BRADBURY, author of "Mysterious Foundling." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
A tale which shows up the dark as well as the light phases of city life.

The Banker's Victim; or, The Betrayed Seam- stress By OSGOOD BRADBURY, author of "The Fair Quakeress." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
Shows the unequal struggle between ragged innocence and guilty wealth.

The Bottle; or, The First Step to Crime. A Com- panion to "The Pledge." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
Decidedly one of the most thrilling temperance stories ever written.

The Pledge; or, The First Step to Fortune. By the author of "The Bottle; or, The First Step to Crime." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
All the truth of a temperance tract, and the attractiveness of a novel.

Montfort, the Roue; or, The French Incendiary. By EUGENE SUE, author of "The Mysteries of Paris." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
One of this great writer's most powerful books.

Temptations and Trials. By the Author of "The Baronet's Bride." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
As the title truly indicates, this work is replete with deeply affecting incidents.

The Maid of the Ranche; or, The Regulators and Moderators. By Dr. J. H. ROBINSON. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
A story by the author of "Good-for-Nothing Dick" must be more than interesting.

Rip Van Winkle; or, The Sleep of Twenty Years. A Legend of the Kaatskills. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
As written by Irving and depicted by Jefferson.

Eunice; or, Wandering in the Dark. 8vo, paper. Price 25 Cents.
Never was a tale told more full of mystery and pathos.

The Pretty Widow. By Charles H. Ross, author of "Hush Money." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
A very interesting story of an interesting woman's life.

Morgan; or, The Knight of the Black Flag. By NED BUNTLINE, author of "Life in the Saddle." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
Great as Buntline has shown himself—as sailor, soldier, author, man—he has done nothing better than writing "Morgan."

Frank Rivers; or, The Dangers of the Town. By Professor J. H. INGRAHAM, author of "Captain Kyd." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
This book, in the guise of fiction, portrays one of the most terrible crimes of city life.

Ethel Gray; or, Alone in the World. A Story of a Criminal's Daughter. 8vo. paper.....Price 25 Cents.
A startling tale of a deeply-shadowed life.

Life in the Saddle; or, The Cavalry Scout. By NED BUNTLINE, author of "Morgan." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.
One of the most truthful and brilliant stories written about our irregular cavalry and their dashing exploits.

Gay Life in New York; or, Fast Men and Grass Widows. By an Old Resident. 8vo, paper ..... Price 25 Cents.

An old author wished that the roofs of all the city houses might be taken off, so that he could see all that was going on in them. The author of this book appears to have gained what the other wished for!

New York by Gaslight: with Here and There a Streak of Sunshine. By G. G. Foster. 8vo, paper ..... Price 25 Cents.

Acknowledged to be the most spirited, unique, and piquant descriptions of many stratas of city life that has ever been done.

Fifteen Minutes Around New York. By G. G. Foster. 8vo, paper ..... Price 25 Cents.

So brilliant is this author's style and so great his mastery of his interesting subject, that when he throws the lime-light of his genius upon the dark, shrouded mysteries they all stand revealed to the reader as to the hawk-eye of a detective.

The Beautiful Cigar Girl; or, The Mysteries of Broadway. By J. H. Ingraham 8vo, paper ..... Price 25 Cents.

This is the only successful attempt that has ever been made to give a clear history of this sad metropolitan tragedy, which hurried the lovely cigar-seller forever from the gaze of her hundreds of young admirers.

Female Depravity; or, The House of Death. By Osgood Bradbury. 8vo, paper ..... Price 25 Cents.

Little street sweepers, rich merchants, darkey servants, pure ladies, vile harpies, the wise and the foolish, Lazarus and Dives, all figure to more or less advantage in these almost too truthful pages.

Every Lady Her Own Shoemaker; or, A Complete Self-Instructor in the Art of Making Gaiters and Shoes ..... Price 50 Cents.

This really valuable treatise is illustrated by numerous diagrams, fully illustrating the reading matter. By a little study of this book any lady can easily make all the cloth shoes needed by herself and family, at less than one-half the price they would cost if bought ready made. The book is bound in flexible muslin.

Awful Disclosures of Maria Monk, of the Hotel Dieu Nunnery of Montreal ..... Price $1.50.

Almost every one has heard of the terrible disclosures of Maria Monk. When she appeared in New York, armed with documentary evidence, details of terrible criminality were rehearsed. The secrets of the convent dungeons were revealed. The secret passages were unearthed, and such a state of things developed as filled all believers with utter astonishment. The parties thus attacked denied the awful tales of profligacy and murder.

Champagne Charlie; or, The Sports of New York. By Warren Baer, author of "The Californian's Return. 8vo, paper ..... Price 50 Cents.

This work depicts with absolute truth and much spirit all the ins and outs, and ups and downs of every class and condition. Showing the "true inwardness" of every shade of fashionable as well as unfashionable life in the Empire City.

Rebels and Tories; or, The Blood of the Mohawk. By Lawrence Labree. 8vo, paper ..... Price 50 Cents.

While this book is exceedingly interesting as a romance, it is, if possible, more interesting as a truthful and vivid delineation of some of the most remarkable and thrilling incidents of the revolutionary struggle.

The Swamp Steed; or, The Days of Marion and his Merry Men. A romance of the American Revolution. 8vo, paper ..... Price 50 Cents.

The skirmishings and fighting of Marion and his gallant light horsemen were never so well told as in the pages of this spirited work.

A Terrible Temptation. By Charles Reade, author of "Foul Play," "Griffith Gaunt," etc. 8vo, paper ..... Price 25 Cents.

Perhaps the greatest of Reade's great romances.

The Beautiful Half-Breed; or, The Border Rovers. By Osgood Bradbury. 8vo, paper ..... Price 25 Cents.

A thoroughly good Indian story. Plenty of love, hunting, and fighting.

New York After Dark; or, Gleams and Shadows of City Life By the author of "The Ticket-of-Leave Man." 8vo, paper ..... Price 25 Cents.

One can learn more from reading this book than by traversing the city, guided by a skilled detective.

Mliss: An Idyl of Red Mountain. A Story of California in 1863. [Reprinted from the Golden Era of San Francisco, and the Sunday Mercury of New York.] 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

This great story is the actual experience of a little waif, the daughter of a dissipated miner. It is as full of interest as "Oliver Twist." Starts off well, and is continued and finished with matchless vigor and ability.

Blasted Heath; or, The Castle of the Wolves. By EUGENE SUE. 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

The name sufficiently suggests the nature of this weird-like book. But it is only by a perusal that we can get at the mysterious actions that render the dark castle so appalling.

Ecarte; or, The Salons of Paris. Bv Major Richardson. 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

Those terrible gaming hells, at once the attraction and the disgrace of the famous city on the Seine, are accurately described, and mercilessly denounced. While fashionable life in the brightest and gayest capital in the world never had a dissection as thorough as Major Richardson's trenchant pen has given it.

Perdita; or, Fair and False. By Fairfax Balfour.

8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

The reader is hurried along by the heady current of the narrative from one fascinating page to the next, absolutely wrapped up in the fortunes of the various characters—who seem to move and breathe like human beings. "Perdita" is one of Balfour's most glorious conceptions.

Kaloolah; or, Journeyings to the Djebel Kumel.

By S. W. MAYO. 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

Mayo has anticipated many of the great African explorers upon the scenes of their greatest discoveries. Extraordinary adventures throng this book, which may be held as interesting as Defoe's "Robinson Crusoe"—at least no other work can match it.

Monk's Revenge; or, The Secret Enemy. By Samuel Spring. 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

Few writers have been such thorough masters of oriental and chivalric history, and none have turned their knowledge to such good use The same inimitable hand that wrote the favorite "Giafar al Barmeki," displays equal if not more talent in this splendid romance.

The Mysterious Marriage; or, The Will of my Father. A Novel. By MRS. CATHARINE G. WARD. 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

Amid the wilderness of rank literary vegetation, 'tis pleasant to meet with such a pure and wholesome blossom as this.

The Polish Spy. A Romance of the Great French

War. From the French of ALEXANDRE DUMAS by HENRY L. WILLIAMS, Jr. 8vo, paper. Price 50 Cents.

There was a time after the disgraceful spoliation and partition of Poland, when every battle-field drank the blood of some of her heroic hearts. The delineation of the life of this Polish spy shows Dumas in all his strength. Legions marching—guillotine decapitating—hearts breaking.

Poor Miss Finch. A Domestic Story. By Wilkie

COLLINS. 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

The author's powers are seen at their best in this great novel. It strangely contrasts yet happily blends the most antagonistic persons and passions. The stern father, the weak mother, and the lovable daughter are masterpieces. This pathetic story of the outer and inner life of a lovely blind girl touches all the springs of human feeling—the deepest tragedy, the lightest comedy.

Checkmate; or, The Longcluse Mystery. By J. S.

LE FANU. 8vo, paper.....Price 50 Cents.

This romance is by the talented editor of the Dublin University Magazine, and fully sustains his great reputation. It is as full of thrilling incidents as the most sensation-loving could desire. But all described with the finest taste, in vigorous, eloquent, and polished language.

Vasquez; or, The Hunted Bandits of the San Joaquin. Containing thrilling scenes and incidents among the Outlaws and Desperadoes of Southern California. With a full and accurate account of the Capture, Trial, and Execution of the noted Bandit. By GEORGE A. BEERS, Esq., who assisted at his capture, was present at his trial, and had a long interview with him just before his execution. Contains a faithful picture of TIBURCIO VASQUEZ, taken just prior to his execution.

This is the only full, accurate, and official work published on the career of this notorious California Bandit.....Price 50 Cents.

No. 39. CUSTER'S LAST CHARGE; or, The Ravine of Death. By H. Llewellynn.

No. 40. OJIBBEWAY JOE; or, Red Eagle's Fight. H. Llewellynn.

Kate Penrose; or, Life and its Lessons. By Mrs.

HUBBACK. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

A tale of more than ordinary interest—many of its pages being full of deep pathos, and all of them sure to please intelligent readers.

Hardscrabble; or, The Fall of Chicago. A Tale of Indian warfare. By Major RICHARDSON. 8vo, paper. .....Price 25 Cents.

At once a history and a romance. The author was not only a military man who had seen hard service, but he had made the Indian annals and character a special study.

Antoine, the Dwarf; or, The Death of the Parricide. By ALEXANDRE DUMAS. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

The French contrive to throw a halo, though a lurid one, even over frailties and crimes, and this is a record of feelings, incidents, and offences peculiarly Parisian.

The Creole Wife; or, Love and Mystery. By Al-

EXANDRE DUMAS. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

The great author of this book had access to "The Black Book," that dismal record of the principal events in the lives of the criminal classes of the metropolis of gay and ghastly life.

The Black Ranger; or, The Maid and the Marksman. By NEWTON M. CURTIS. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

Curtis is decidedly one of our best and most spirited romancists, and this is one of his very best books. All that like plenty of thrilling action, with a sprinkling of love passages, will read this work with avidity.

Jack Cade; or, The Bondsman's Struggle. A Tale of Feudal Oppression. Illustrated from original designs. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

This is the stirring romance upon which the great tragedian, Forrest's, drama of same name was based.

Rivingstone; or, The Young Ranger Hussar. A

Romance of the American Revolution. By Prof. J. H. INGRAHAM. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

It is enough to say of this spirited book that it is from the same pen as the entrancing semi-historical romances of "Captain Kyd" and "Lafitte, the Pirate of the Gulf."

Maud, the Maniac; or, The Fratricide. By the author of "Ela, the Outcast." 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

Painful as are many of the situations in this capital book, they still deeply interest from their manifest truthfulness. Seldom has any book been so deservedly popular as this.

Massaniello; or, The Fisherman's League. By

ALEXANDRE DUMAS. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

In the guise of a romance the gifted author manages to give a faithful and fiery narration of the famous revolt in Naples, when the bold and hardy fishermen made their famous attempt to break the chains of aristocratic thraldom.

The Black Cruiser; or, The Scourge of the Seas.

By MAT MIZEN, author of "The Fire Ship; or, The Pirate's Daughter." 8vo, paper....Price 25 Cents.

For those who fancy a thrilling and occasionally a blood-curdling romance of life on the stormy billows this is just the book. There is no fresh-water sailorism in these stirring descriptions.

Duke's Motto; or, The Little Parisian. By Paul

FEVAL. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

From this excellent story was taken the great romance of the same title which was played to admiring and enthusiastic audiences for more than one hundred nights at Niblo's Garden, New York City.

A Man in Search of a Wife; or, The Adventures of a Bachelor in New York City. By WALTER SEATON. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

The title of this book, though so expressive, gives only a faint idea of the many escapades of this enterprising but luckless bachelor, who found "single blessedness" occasionally to be very like single "cussedness."

Clarence Rhett; or, The Cruise of a Privateer. By NED BUNTLINE. 8vo, paper.....Price 25 Cents.

All through these finely-written pages are admirably contrasted scenes of savage fighting and tender wooing; the oak and the magnolia are not more unlike than these ever varying but ever truthful descriptions.

Lester's Look to the East. A Ritual of the First Three Degrees of Masonry. Containing the complete work of the Entered Apprentice, Fellowcraft, and Master Mason's Degrees, and their Ceremonies, Lectures, etc. Edited by Ralph P. Lester. This complete and beautiful Pocket Manual of the First Three Degrees of Masonry, is printed in clear, legible type, and not obscured by any attempts at cipher or other perplexing contractions. It differs entirely from all other Manuals from the fact that it contains neither the passwords, grips, nor any other purely esoteric matter with which Masons, and Masons only, are necessarily entirely familiar. It affords, therefore, a thorough and valuable guide to the regular "work" in the above Degrees, divested of everything that any member of the Fraternity would object to see in print, or hesitate to carry in his pocket.

It embraces the correct routine of Opening and Closing the Lodge in each Degree; calling off and on; calling the Lodge up and down; the regular Order of Business; together with the entire Ceremonies of Initiating, Passing, and Raising Candidates, as well as the Lectures of each Degree, all Ritually and Monitorially complete.

FOR RECITATION AND READING.

BY CHARLES D. WARNER.

A collection of elegant extracts in Prose and Verse for a Complete School Speaker.

This book by Mr. Warner will be everywhere gladly welcomed by Teachers and Pupils, as it will fill a place long vacant in the list of School Books.

The difficulty experienced by so many in finding pieces, brief and otherwise, suitable for declamation, has been considerable, and it is here that this new Speaker is valuable, inasmuch as it gives its readers a choice selection of Prose and Poetry gathered from the speeches and works of the most distinguished writers of Europe and America, all sufficiently brief and good as to be acceptable.

PRICE $1.50--12mo. ex. cloth.

For sale by all booksellers. Will be sent by mail on receipt of price.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Mr. Charles D. Warner's "Book of Eloquence" is one of those books which commonly are called speakers What especially pleases us in this one is the retention of a large proportion of the old and standard pieces for declamation, which are certainly quite as good for the purposes of such a work as the more modern selections that it is assumed are more popular with lads and misses. Compilers sometimes do not always remember that what seems trite to them is still fresh and inspiring to new generations of youth.—Boston Daily Advertiser.

This is a thoroughly good collection of extracts in prose and verse suitable for declamation. Mr. Warner's selections are admirable and beyond criticism. Appreciating the need of orators in this land where the people choose men among them as their mouthpiece, the compiler has taken such extracts as will raise the ideal and train the faculties of young speakers, while affording opportunity for their best skill in worthily reciting them.

It is also of much value as presenting in compact form specimens of eloquence and fine thought, from which example may be taken by writers and speakers. The volume is of a widely different character from many of those employed in schools, because of the dignity and lasting value of the extracts it contains; they are not amusing and easy selections, designed merely to call forth a laugh on examination day—but such as give a boy a sense of the worth, responsibility and power of the orators function.

Portland Press.

It is the especial endeavor of the author of this work to present new and spirited extracts. At the same time he has introduced the familiar masterpieces of eloquence, which never grow old or stale by repetition. It is an admirable work for young students, and is especially adapted to schools and academies.—Nashua Gazette.

It is especially adapted to school use, furnishing as it does a variety of selections for declamation and recitation, and is undoubtedly the best compilation for this purpose extant. It is also adapted for home and fireside reading, and should have a place in every family.—Concord Daily Monitor.

Count Rumford, The Works of. Carefully Collected and Edited by a Committee of the Academy, consisting of Prof. Winlock, Prof. J. P. Cooke, Jr., F. H. Storer, Esq., Prof. Wyman, J. B. Francis, Esq., E. C. Pickering, Esq., Wolcott Gibbs, Esq.; together with a Life of Count Rumford, by the Rev. Geo. E. Ellis, D. D. Complete in five volumes. 8vo. Beautifully printed and illustrated. Cloth, $25; Half Calf, $40.00.

 This forms the only complete edition of the works of this great American philosopher and inventor, who may be properly called the Pioneer of Popular Science and Economic Reform. The works contain full accounts of his experiments in heat, light, electricity, and his wonderful success in the introduction of reforms in the sanitary management of armies and public institutions of Europe. The Life contains all that is known of interest regarding him, from his birth in Woburn, Mass, his voluntary exile from America, his assistance to the British ministry, and afterward, his service in the royal army in America, his being knighted by George III., and appointed Count of the Holy Roman Empire by the Elector of Bavaria, his being raised to the most important positions in the Government of Bavaria, to the time of his death.

Prof. E. L. Youmans says of his discoveries: "Rumford was the first to reach experimentally the fundamental conclusion that heat is but a mode of motion."

Hon. Robert C. Winthrop says: "We have never done honor enough to his memory in America. There ought to be a statue of him here, as there is in Munich. It is a tardy act of justice to one who did great things for the world as well as Bavaria. His plans for the relief and prevention of pauperism would alone entitle him to the blessing of mankind. Almost everything which is valuable in our modern systems of charity may be traced to his writings."

Nature says: "One remarkable feature of Rumford's papers is their simplicity and clearness. They are all readable to the least initiated in scientific technicalities; every page displays the clear and purely scientific intellect of the writer. He was no mere theorist, however; he carried out practically every principle he expounds. He cooked for tens of thousands in his military kitchens and House of Industry."

 "Nothing has appeared for half a century, on the first two books of the Pentateuch, so valuable as the present two volumes (on Genesis and Exodus). His style is lucid, animated, and often eloquent. His pages afford golden suggestions and key thoughts." —Methodist Quarterly.

"The translation here given is very beautiful, and in such explicit language as to be a rich commentary of itself; while the abundant information given in the notes charms the reader on with more than the zest of fiction." — Boston Recorder.

 The clergy of all denominations unite in pronouncing Murphy's Commentaries on the Old Testament Books THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

Critical Commentary on Genesis, Murphy's. With an Introduction by PROF. ALVAH HOVEY, D. D., of Newton Theological Seminary, and a Preface by REV. J. P. THOMPSON, D. D., of Tabernacle Church, New York. 1 vol. Crown 8vo. $2.50.

 "The most valuable contribution that has for a long time been made to the many aids for the study of the Old Testament, is Dr. Murphy's Commentary on Genesis. This volume is racy and readable, as well as reliable. It is a good deal to say of a commentary, but we say it in all sincerity, that it furnishes about as fascinating a work for one's hours of reading as any volume of the day, in any department of literature." — Congregationalist.

"This work is one of great value, and meets the long existing want better than any work on Genesis we have yet seen." — Morning Star.

Novels.

Slaves of the Ring. By F. W. ROBINSON, author of "Second-Cousin Sarah," "Little Kate Kirby," "For Her Sake," "Poor Humanity," "Her Face was Her Fortune," "True to Herself," "A Woman's Ransom," &c. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "'Slaves of the Ring' is a remarkably interesting romance, although it finds material for some of its most interesting incidents in the daily routine of farm life. The story is well written, the characters are well drawn, and racy sketches of rural life are pleasantly interwoven with the action of the narrative. The charm of the book consists in the skill with which every-day life is made to yield material for a strikingly exciting and eventful romance, that commands untiring attention through all its details, as well as admiration for the ingenuity evinced in the delineation of the numerous characters figuring in its pages."— Boston Transcript.

A Woman's Ransom. By F. W. ROBINSON, author of "Slaves of the Ring," "Little Kate Kirby," "For Her Sake," &c. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "The new novel, by the author of the 'Slaves of the Ring,' is alive with incident; it is ingeniously constructed, and there is a cleverness in incident and management of the story which cannot be denied; the interest is kept up with singular vividness, and without the extravagant expedients to which popular novelists often resort."— Press.

Too Much Alone. By MRS. J. H. RIDDELL, author of "A Life's Assize," "Phemie Keller," "George Geith," "Above Suspicion," &c. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "The story is deeply interesting. It is one of the very best of recent fictions."— Worcester Spy.

Above Suspicion. By arrangement with MRS. J. H. RIDDELL, author of "Too Much Alone," "A Life's Assize," &c. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

A Tangled Skein. By ALBANY DE FONBLANQUE, JR., an author who has inherited genius of an uncommon order. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "This novel captivates the reader when he first opens it, and holds him in strong and agreeable chains to its closing page."— Boston Traveller.

"It is so well written that, having once taken up the book, it will be impossible to lay it down until the end."— Press.

 "A novel of much power." — Journal.

"We find only one author out of a dozen worth harvesting. In Gaboriau is an author whose works are appreciated for their originality and ingenuity." — Messenger.

The Mystery of Orcival. By EMILE GABORIAU, author of "The Widow Lerouge," "File No. 113," "The Clique of Gold," "Other People's Money," "Within an Inch of His Life." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "Is receiving unqualified praise, and cannot fail to attract attention."—Mercury.

"Admirably written, each character finely drawn. It will be read with sorrow, with pleasure, and profit. Read it, and then we have no doubt you will add it to your collection of choice novels with as much pleasure as we do." — Lawrence American.

The Clique of Gold. Translated from the French of EMILE GABORIAU, author of "File No. 113," "Other People's Money," "Within an Inch of His Life," "The Widow Lerouge," "The Mystery of Orcival," &c. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "It is strongly sensational, but the materials are managed with so strong a dramatic insight that one has not time or inclination to think of improbabilities. M. GABORIAU is without a peer in this particular style of story." — Boston Gazette.

"Gaboriau's novels increase in power as we become familiar with his style."—Trans'pt.

Other People's Money. From the French of EMILE GABORIAU, author of "File No. 113," "The Clique of Gold," "Within an Inch of His Life," "The Widow Lerouge," "The Mystery of Orcival." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "Exciting throughout, the story appeals not to morbid, but refined tastes, and should be read widely, as its merit is sterling." — Traveller.

"French in style, it is free from the grosser improprieties which appear to be generally tolerated in the novel-writing of that country. — Phil. Age.

Woven of Many Threads. By C. V. HAMILTON, author of "Ropes of Sand," "Crown from the Spear." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 50 cts.

 "A story apparently of English origin, in its prevailing tone and certain peculiarities of style, is, in fact, the production of a lady artist in this city, whose vigorous and original portrait of Longfellow (recently on exhibition) elicited warm expressions of approval from the critics." — Home Journal.

"As at present advised, we may venture to say that this 'first novel of the season,' from the pen of an American lady, will meet with acceptance from the readers of fiction. It appears to be, as its name implies, intricate, or, rather, multifarious, in plot and scenes; sufficiently romantic in tone and situations; with sharply outlined and vividly contrasted characters. The style is free and glowing, and the author, locating her story in Italy, finds opportunities to show familiarity with the land of song and art, of which she makes incidental use to heighten the interest of the tale." — Boston Transcript.

Ropes of Sand. By C. V. HAMILTON, author of "Woven of Many Threads," "Crown from the Spear." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, .75 cts.

 "A work woven as well as this in plot, character, general finish, and execution, deserves to have its writer publicly heralded upon the title-page." — Times.

"These stories show considerable ingenuity and power, cultivated, one would say, rather by the study of romances, than by observation of actual human life and character." — Worcester Spy.

Crown from the Spear. By C. V. HAMILTON, author of "Woven of Many Threads," "Ropes of Sand." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, .75

 "It is a story of French domestic life and character, full of interest, and written in attractive style. The moral of the story is that the crown of happiness may be won after long struggle and suffering." — Herald.

"Coming from the pen of the author of 'Woven of Many Threads,' this story is sure of a warm welcome, nor will it altogether disappoint expectation. In some respects it is an improvement upon its predecessor, having a more compact and artistic form, and more powerful interest. But it is less natural and easy. There is more of the regulation novel, both in plot and characterization." — Phil. Inquirer.

Kate Beaumont. By J. W. DE FOREST, author of "Overland," "Miss Ravenel's Conversion," "Playing the Mischief." 1 vol. 8vo. Illustrated. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "He has written a novel that is very readable, and he has given proof of being able to do more and better work. His painstaking, his careful observation and sprightliness, are qualities which will certainly achieve a more than partial success." — Nation.

"One of the chief charms of MR. DE FOREST'S writings is the quiet and delicate humor pervading them. It cannot easily be taken from its surroundings, and imprisoned in quotations, or we would fortify our opinion by examples; but it is always delightful." — Utica Herald.

"This is one of the best American novels we have ever read. It is a tale of true, genuine Southern life before the rebellion had stepped in to mar that life, and to turn its pleasant hospitalities into vague remembrances. It is written with a vigorous pen that never flags till the last word is written and the last scene closed." — People, Concord.

Broken Chains. Translated by FRANCES A. SHAW, from the German of E. WERNER, author of "Good Luck," &c. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "It has spirit and action, united with power and depth of feeling. The characters are well delineated and strongly drawn, and the plot is well constructed and carried out." — Transcript.

"The plot is highly interesting, and is well developed, while an art atmosphere pervades the work, that shows both refinement and æsthetic appreciation on the part of the writer. The style is strong and vigorous, and contains scenes of great power." — Gazette.

Good Luck. By the author of "Broken Chains." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 50 cents.

 "An attractive and fascinating volume, with highly dramatic characters, clearly drawn and well sustained throughout, and containing many pages of absorbing interest. The translation is graceful and natural, one of the happy kind that makes us forget that the story was first written in a foreign tongue." — Enquirer.

"I began to read the proof-sheets last evening, and was compelled by the interest of the story to read into the small hours." — L. & M.

Something To Do. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 It contains many things of a very instructive character." — Boston Times.

"A story of to-day, picturing characters, scenes, incidents, and accidents of the passing hour. Its rapid movement, interesting and varied conversations, and graceful style, will make 'Something to Do' very popular with readers of the best modern fiction."

Not Easily Jealous. 1 vol. 8vo. Price, Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "Some English travellers, meeting in Switzerland, form intimacies which are destined to influence their whole future lives. The author of 'Not Easily Jealous' weaves around this nucleus a tissue of romantic adventure which will pleasantly beguile many leisure hours." — Transcript.

Jocelyn's Mistake. By MRS. J. K. SPENDER, author of "Her Own Fault," "Brothers in Law," &c. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "MRS. SPENDER'S English is unusually good, and she has learned the art of working her opinions on men and things into the web of her story, instead of merely intercalating homilies. . . . The Jocelyn of the book is very skilfully drawn. . . . It rises in type and diction far above the ephemeral stories of the season." — Academy.

"We may safely say the perusal of this book can but be productive of good." — Messenger.

The Lost Despatch. Translated from the German of FRIEDRICH FRIEDRICH, by L. A. WILLIAMS. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 50 cts.

 "Lovers of pen-pictures and florid writing will not find any of their favorite style. There is no padding, no burning sensation, no bigamy, nor divorce. But there is a well constructed story, well told, and also some finely-drawn characters. The interest, too, is well sustained. 'The Lost Despatch' will serve to pass a couple of hours pleasantly enough; and what is more to the purpose, in these days of filthy novels, it may be read by all without fear or hesitation." — N. Y. Globe.

Counterparts. By the author of "Charles Auchester" and "Rumor." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "This beautiful story deals with the finer sensibilities of our nature." — Rural.

"It is one of those books the world will not willingly let die, and the publishers have shown both wisdom and good taste in republishing. The style of the book is different from that of most modern novels; there is thought enough in it to make a half dozen novels of the present day." — Courier.

Rumor. By the author of "Counterparts," "Charles Auchester," 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "'Rumor' is no common story. It has scenes and sentiments of singular force, individuality, and beauty."

Charles Auchester. By the author of "Rumor" and "Counterparts." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

Miss Rovel. From the French of VICTOR CHERBULIEZ, author of the "Romance of an Honest Woman," &c. Translated by FRANCES A. SHAW. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 50 cts.

 "This translation of one of the popular French novels is a thorough love story; it is alive with incident, and the interest is kept up with singular vividness, and without the extravagant expedients to which popular novelists often resort." — Gazette.

"The story is very strong in plot, and the translation is excellent." — Commercial.

Buffets. By CHARLES H. DOE. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "It is very spicy and thoroughly modern." — Chicago Journal.

"There is a great deal of pleasant humor in this novel." — Albany Journal.

"This novel shows much skill and some delicacy of touch, in which our novelists generally are most wanting." — Springfield Republican.

With Harp and Crown. By the author of "Ready-Money Mortiboy," "My Little Girl." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 50 cts.

 "The characters are sketched with spirit, and the style is pure and good." — Spy, Worcester.

"It is written with a great deal of dash and vivacity, and is flavored with a species of grim humor which is very entertaining." — Journal.

"The book is healthy and highly entertaining." — Boston Post.

Only Three Weeks. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 50 cts.

 "Just the kind of a story for reading leisurely on a summer day." — Advertiser.

"The book is a good one, full of powerful situations, excellent delineations of character, and capital writing." — Gazette.

"A sparkling, racy novel." — People, Concord.

"Charming little story." — N. Y. Tribune.

Maud or Nina — Like Cures Like. By G. J. WHYTE-MELVILLE, author of "Katerfelto," Holmby House," "Digby Grand," &c., &c. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "Two love stories of the approved order. Noble lords and ladies are mixed up in the plot." — Gazette.

"Sprightly and sensational." — Vox Populi.

"The most fastidious may read Maud and Nina." — Journal.

Nobody's Fortune. By EDMUND YATES, author of "Black Sheep," "The Yellow Flag." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "The fact that Dickens was connected, even thus indirectly, with the work, will give it additional value in the estimation of most readers." — Cleveland Herald.

"The best of his productions." — Boston Post.

The Yellow Flag. By EDMUND YATES, author of "Nobody's Fortune," "Black Sheep." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "The story is dramatic from opening to close, keeping the reader constantly attent, and each moment giving a gratification." — New Bedford Mercury.

Zelda's Fortune. By R. E. FRANCILLON, author of "Earl Dean," "Pearl and Emerald." 1 vol. 8vo. Illustrated. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "The secret of 'Fortune' is well kept until the last chapter in the book." — Age.

"This book shows as much power as Bulwer's early novels did." — Springfield Rep.

"Chas. G. Leland and Louise Chandler Moulton speak of it in very flattering terms." Public.

"Zelda is so altogether unique a creation that she is outside of ordinary rules as applied to human conduct. Much of the charm of the book is in the novelty it furnishes in this direction. It is not difficult to believe that the author has made a close study of gypsy life. He has certainly painted it with power in the character of his heroine and one or two other personages of his story." — Boston Gazette.

The Wicked Woods of Tobereevil. By Miss MULHOLLAND, author of "Hester History." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "A tale of Irish life, legend and humor, sketched with vivacity, and replete with racy incident, stirring adventures, and well-depicted feeling." — Inter-Ocean.

"A babe cursed the race of Finiston. Their riches should yield them no pleasure; they should perish with cold, and be gnawed by hunger; their lands lie waste, and their home decay; their daughters should never live past childhood, &c." — L. C. M. in N. Y. Tribune.

The Foe in the Household. By CAROLINE CHESEBRO'. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "It is purely domestic in its character, instructive in its moral teachings, and possesses a subtle interest more absorbing than that which attaches to the conventional style of modern romances." — Press.

"A story of intense dramatic interest, and is written with a force as well as a delicacy truly admirable." — Boston Post.

Checkmate. By J. S. Le Fanu, author of "A Lost Name," "Tenants of Malory," &c. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "Full of startling surprises, and written with great power." — N. B. Mercury.

"A powerfully written story, with an excellent plot well carried out." — Farmer.

"This is a lively book for a leisure hour, abounding in interesting incident, with its plot well worked out. It is, in style, similar to the other works by the author." — Register.

"A work of fiction with a plot as deep as Wilkie Collins's 'Woman in White.'" — Herald.

"A society novel, with a number of characters, and of marked diversity, with great variety of incident, full of startling surprises, and written with great power." — Daily Mercury.

Open Sesame. By Florence Marryat, author of "Love's Conflict," "Prey of the Gods," "Her Lord and Master." With Illustrations. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "The plot of this story is deeply laid." — Register.

"A story of much love." — Herald.

Deep Waters. By Anna H. Drury, author of "Misrepresentation," &c., &c. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 What the press says: "One of the best sustained fictions of the season." "A work of more than average ability."

"A novel full of melancholy and pathos." — Democrat.

"The story opens in one of those old English homes which have been highly respectable and wealthy, and is well worth reading." — Commercial, Toledo.

Woman's Love; or, Like and Unlike. By J. F. Smith, author of "Lady Ashleigh," "Marion Burnard," &c. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "This novel will satisfy the most exacting readers of the old style of romance." —Albany Journal.

Stretton. By Henry Kingsley, author of "Ravenshoe," "Geoffrey Hamlyn," "Hetty," &c., &c. With Illustrations. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "A charming, bright, and sparkling novel for the tourist." — Bangor Whig,

"Henry Kingsley has done more to cultivate a correct taste among readers of modern novels, than any other author of the day." — Times, New Orleans.

Jettatrice. From the French of Madame Augustus Craven, author of "Fleurange," "A Sister's Story," &c. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "A tale of rare purity and nobility." — Press.

"A Sicilian romance which ladies especially will find interesting, and which, while prolific in incident, contains nothing objectionable, which is more than can be said for many novels of a like scope and origin." — Palladium, Worcester.

"The scene is laid at Messina, and runs through Naples and Italy." — Courier.

Expiated. By the author of "Six Months Hence," and "Behind the Veil." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "The author shows power of invention, felicity in the management of details, and a keen insight into the mysteries of life." — Boston Globe.

"Six Months Hence." By the author of "Behind the Veil," "Expiated." Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "This remarkably well written story comes to us characterized by a most skilful arrangement. 'Behind the Veil' gave promise of considerable ability in the field of design. 'Six Months Hence' has fully realized this promise." — Phil. Age.

"It is of absorbing interest; and whoever takes it up will not readily put it down till the last scene is enacted, and the curtain falls." — People, Concord.

Choisy. By JAMES P. Story. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "We recommend the book for a pleasant companion on listless August days. While shedding a tear of sympathy over the fate of Nina Choisy, its salutary lesson cannot fail to produce lasting results." — Transcript.

"It is full of interesting and thrilling incidents from beginning to end." — Press.

"It cannot be denied that 'Choisy' is very entertaining." — Liberal Christian.

"The literary merit of the novel is of the first order." — Courier.

"It is an artistic, scholarly production from beginning to end." — Phil. Age.

Elena: An Italian Tale. By L. N. COMYN, author of "Atherstone Priory," "Ellice," &c. 1 vol. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "'ELENA,' in character and plot, is excellent." — Traveller, Boston.

"A thorough love-story." — Advertiser.

"An Italian story of great power and beauty; sure to live." — Leeds Mercury.

"The most elegant and interesting fiction of the season." — London Messenger.

"A very pleasing and touching story. It is sure to be read." — London Daily News.

Atherstone Priory. By L. N. COMYN, author of "Elena," "Ellice," &c. 1 vol. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "A quiet, charming English romance of real life. The scenes are life-like, and the story interesting. The heroine at once wins the sympathy of the reader, which deepens into admiration, and an intense interest in her fortunes and misfortunes." — Examiner.

"This is a pleasant story of English domestic life, which may be read with instruction and profit in every family. The spirit which it inculcates is that of the broadest Christianity, toleration, and charity. We do not know when we have read a novel which inspires a purer sentiment, or inculcates a more valuable lesson." — Press.

Ethel Mildmay's Follies. By the author of "Petites Romance." Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "A story which we do not hesitate to recommend." — Spectator.

"'A taste would be difficult to please which could not find amusement in following the fortunes of the actors developed in this story." — Transcript.

"The characters — a gay young party of cousins — act towards each other very much like real folks, and have their jealousies, love-makings, sports, and trials." — Herald.

Can the Old Love. By ZADEL BARNES BUDDINGTON. 1 vol. 8vo. Illustrated. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "The most unique and original portion exhibits a married man of sixty-three years of age, who falls in love with the child of his friend, on her return from boarding-school." — Phil. Age.

"The prefatory remarks by the author are certainly beautiful, and comforting to the aged. Here they are: 'For those who know themselves to be travelling down the hill of life, it may be a consolation to remember that old hearts need not be cold ones. To remember that beyond the faltering step, and fading eye, and trembling hand, and gray hair fluttering in the evening wind, and the abrupt yawning of the inevitable grave, lies the fair, free Hereafter of eternal youth, wherein all souls shall find what life and light and love so fully mean." — Christ. Advocate, Nashville.

Ruth Maxwell. By Lady BLAKE, author of "Claude," "Lady of Lyndon." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "This story is told with a quiet charm, and contains thoroughly good and pleasant reading." — Morning Post.

"It is a gracefully written story, full of interest, and distinguished by some capital character drawings. The tone is healthy, and the style bright and spirited. The heroine is a charming conception, and is developed with rare skill and effect. We can conscientiously recommend the book as one thoroughly pure in its morality, and peculiarly adapted to summer reading." — Globe.

Lady of Lyndon. By Lady BLAKE, author of "Claude," "Ruth Maxwell." 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "There is nothing sensational in its plot; the moral it inculcates is pure, healthy, and instructive, while its literary qualifications cannot be gainsaid." — N. Y. Albion.

"It is an English story, calm, cool, and staid, as if the writer had so studied the character of her ladyship, the leading personage, that her spirit is transferred into her very sentences." — N. Y. Christian Advocate.

Not Without Thorns. By ENNIS GRAHAM. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

 "A story of English domestic life, very smoothly and gracefully written, with some character-drawing which is near lifting it into a higher range than most novels that we have from English authorship. The reader may count upon being interested; and the book is one which is worthy of being placed in every library of summer reading."

A Rose in June. By MRS. OLIPHANT, author of "Story of Valentine and his Brother," "Squire Arden," "For Love and Life," "Innocent." 1 vol. 8vo. Illustrated. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 50 cts.

 "In 'A Rose in June' MRS. OLIPHANT is at her very best again. The book is full of character, drawn with the most delicate of touches." — Athenæum.

"A pleasant novel, agreeably told. MRS. OLIPHANT is accomplished in her art; her knowledge of the instrument with which she has to deal, and of the audience for whom she plays upon it, was never more thoroughly exhibited than in her latest work, 'A Rose in June.'" — Observer.

"One of the sweetest, most charming, and most natural stories which that popular writer has given us." — Boston Journal.

Ina. By KATHERINE VALERIO. 1 vol. 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cts.

Over 100,000 Copies of this Work have been sold in French.

Guizot's Popular History of France. Translated by Robert

Black. Sold only to Subscribers. Price 50 cts. per Part.

 This great work is now offered to the American public, and the Publishers, having spared no pains or expense in its reproduction, confidently believe that, as a specimen of book-making, it is unexcelled by any book made in America. By a special arrangement with the European publishers, we have secured electrotypes of all of the original wood-cuts, by the celebrated artist, A. de Neuville, thereby securing impressions of the same fully equal to the originals. These three hundred illustrations are pronounced by some of the best Art judges in the country to be the finest wood-cuts ever printed in America. Besides the above we shall add to the work Forty magnificent Steel Line Engravings, by celebrated artists.

Persons wanting a good and reliable History of France, need have no hesitation in subscribing for this, as it is the only one of a popular nature, and by a standard historian, to be had in the English language. The Publishers offer it confidently believing that it will supply a long-felt want. The world-wide reputation of Guizot is a sufficient recommendation to the work, and a guarantee of its being a thoroughly correct and an intensely interesting history.

Testimonials.

Boston, Nov. 20, 1873.

Gentlemen: M. Guizot's History of France should be read by all who are not indifferent to historical studies. To a most interesting subject he brings the experience of a statesman, the study of a professor, and the charm of an accomplished writer. I am glad you are to place this recent work within the reach of all American readers.

Faithfully yours, CHARLES SUMNER.

Everything from the pen of Guizot is remarkable for thoroughness of investigation and exact statement. WENDELL PHILLIPS.

The work supplies a want which has long been felt, and it ought to be in the hands of all students of history. We cannot doubt that it will meet with the same favorable reception in England which has already attended its publication in France. — London Times.

The name of Guizot is a sufficient guarantee for the historical value of whatever he writes. E. G. ROBINSON, Pres. Brown University.

I should be glad to see Guizot's History of France in every school.

Charles Knight's Popular Shakspere. Pictorial Edition.

Illustrated with 340 Woodcuts, and 36 Full-Page Plates. By Sir John Gilbert, A. R. A. Together with Illustrations on Steel, from pictures by C. W. Cope, R. A., W. P. Frith, R. A., Leslie, R. A., Maclise, R. A., E. M. Ward, R. A., C. Clint, A. R. A., H. S. Marks, A. R. A., W. Q. Orchardson, A. R. A., and others.

 The text adopted in the present edition is that recently revised by Mr. Charles Knight, who, thirty years ago, issued the first number of his Pictorial Edition of Shakspere. As a "Labor of Love," the work grew under his hands, and on its completion, in England and America, it was universally admitted to be the best edition of the works of Shakspere, and one of the noblest contributions to the literature of the day. Thoroughly familiar with all that has been added to our knowledge of the poet's writings, Mr. Knight undertook a revision of his original work. By a collation of the early editions of the separate plays which are in various public and private collections he has been enabled to produce

THE MOST ACCURATE TEXT OF SHAKSPERE EXTANT.

The size of this edition, being two volumes Royal Octavo, will keep it within the range of the book-case, as well as render it a handsome addition to books for the drawing-room table, and it is believed to be the cheapest finely illustrated edition ever offered the public.

In addition to the carefully edited text, and beautiful illustrations, it will contain a full Glossarial Index, and reprinted from the last London edition, without alteration or abridgment, thus making it invaluable to the student, as well as an ornament to the library.

The work will be published in thirty-six serial parts, at 50 cts. each.

The Picturesque World; or, Scenes in Many Lands. Unsurpassed in interest and beauty of illustration by any work ever offered to the American public. It will be profusely illustrated with more than ONE HUNDRED STEEL ENGRAVINGS, and over Eight Hundred of the finest Specimens of Wood Engraving which have ever been produced in any country. These illustrations are from designs and paintings by the very best European and American artists, among whom may be mentioned the following:—

Gustave Dore,	De la Charlevie,	Weber,
Alph. de Neuville,	Brockedon,	Werner,
Leopold Flaming,	Batty,	Hertel,
Giacomelli,	Strutt,	Germann Bohn,
Anastasi,	Sir Chas. Eastlake, R.A.	J. M. Hart,
Francais,	W. H. Bartlett,	Granville Perkins,
Daubigny,	J. Stark, R. A.	J. D. Woodward,
Foulquier,	Kaulbach,	Thomas Moran,
Lancelot,		George L. Brown, and others of equal merit and distinction. It will be prepared under the editorship of LEO DE COLANGE, LL. D., Editor Zell's Popular Encyclopædia and Dictionary, &c.

The work will be published in forty to forty-eight serial parts, at 50 cents each.

The Globe Encyclopædia of Universal Information. Edited by JOHN M. ROSS, LL. D., Senior Master of English Literature, High School of Edinburgh; formerly Assistant Editor of "Chambers' Encyclopædia;" with a numerous and able Staff of Contributors.

 (1.) The Globe Encyclopædia will contain articles on a greater number and variety of subjects than any previous work of the same character.

(2.) Though these articles will, in general, be very condensed, every particular essential to a proper understanding of the subject will be given; and where space is absolutely required, the new Encyclopædia will be as complete in treatment as much larger works.

(3.) In all the more important departments of knowledge, the Globe Encyclopædia will not only furnish the results of the most exact and solid research, but it will also seek to carry out more thoroughly than any of its predecessors the practice of referring to the best authorities on the subjects discussed or described.

(4.) The meaning of names of places, &c., always interesting and often suggestive, will be given with a fulness, and, it is believed, with an accuracy, not hitherto attempted.

(5.) Special attention will be bestowed upon the language, literature, and history of the English Nation, its Colonies and Dependencies.

(6.) The most recent statistics regarding the population, agriculture, commerce, and social condition of foreign countries, will be given, so that The Globe Encyclopædia, as the latest work of the kind, will necessarily prove of the most useful.

(7.) The articles in the scientific departments — e. g., Medicine, Chemistry, Natural History, and Botany — will be in accordance with the best and latest teaching on these subjects.

The Cobweb Series of Choice Fiction.

Sidonie. A brilliant Novel from the French of ALPHONSE DAUDET.

It has been crowned by the French Academy. The French press pronounce it the best novel which has appeared within twenty-five years. 1 vol. 12mo. Cloth, black, red and gilt. $1.50.

 The characters are all depicted with the touch of an artist. In a word, it is a romance full of interest, and told with dramatic skill in pure and elegant English. — New York Herald.

It is a splendid book. — S. R. Crocker, Editor Literary World.

In our opinion SIDONIE is destined to a great success, and we heartily congratulate both translator and publisher. — Boston Transcript.

The style of the book throughout is fascinating in its grace, its simplicity, its pleasing fancy, and its easy naturalness. — Saturday Evening Gazette.

It has all the brilliancy of a French novel, with all the severe morality of a New England romance. — The Commonwealth.

SIDONIE is a great work, and of the most absorbing interest. Daudet's power of creating and unfolding character is not matched by that of any living writer, and few novelists of any age or language have achieved greater triumphs in this respect. — Boston Courier.

First Love is Best. GAIL HAMILTON'S New Departure. A bright, spicy novel. 1 vol. 12mo. Cloth. Black, red and gilt. $1.50.

 "Her pen is alternately a spear to pierce, and a straw to tickle." — Ch. Union.

"It is out of the common line of novel-writing, free and easy, not to say 'rattling' in style."—Publishers' Weekly.

"It fully exemplifies the author's characteristic qualities as a keen, humorous essayist; but it also shows that she has the skill to write entertaining stories." — Atlantic Monthly.

"The conception is original, and is carried out with much wit and high-spirited good-humor." — New York Tribune.

"The book is the best piece of amateur fiction that has appeared for a long time." — Chicago Post.

Cloth. 12mo. 1 75
Half calf, ... 3 50

"The result is what might have been expected from labors so thoroughly and faithfully performed. Although containing but little over three hundred pages, the work may be fairly said to be exhaustive. Mr. Gill's aim, as we have said before, was to furnish the facts in Poe's history. He has done this fairly and impartially, acknowledging the faults of his subject, while insisting upon his virtues, correcting the falsehoods and misstatements of those who have preceded him, and clearing the memory of the poet from the imputations cast upon it more than a quarter of a century ago by the original biographer, Dr. Griswold. The analysis, which is too long to quote in this connection, is an ingenious piece of work, and is far more plausible than Poe's elaborate explanation of his method of writing it." — Boston Evening Transcript.

"The great merit of the volume, however, is that, for the first time, it supplies a consistent and truthful account of a singularly perplexed career." — New York Tribune.

"We doubt if there remains much more to be gathered up concerning the life and character of this extraordinary man." — Boston Daily Advertiser.

ENGLISH.

A MANUAL OF ENGLISH LITERATURE, Historical and Critical: With an Appendix on English Metres. By THOMAS ARNOLD, M. A., of University College, Oxford. American Edition. Revised. 12mo. Cloth. 549 pages $1.50

This manual presents in a small compass an accurate and interesting view of English literature. It is divided into two sections. The first of these, treating of the history of the subject, gives a complete list of the various English authors and their works, from the earliest times down to the year 1850.

CARPENTER'S INTRODUCTION TO ANGLO-SAXON. An Introduction to the study of the Anglo-Saxon Language, Comprising an Elementary Grammar, Selections for Reading with Notes, and a Vocabulary. By STEPHEN H. CARPENTER, Professor of Logic and English Literature in the University of Wisconsin, and Author of "English of the XIV. Century." 12mo. Cloth. 212 pages 90

CRAIK'S ENGLISH OF SHAKESPEARE. Illustrated in a Philological Commentary on his Julius Cæsar, by GEORGE L. CRAIK, Queen's College, Belfast. Edited by W. J. ROLFE, Cambridge. 16mo. Cloth. 402 pages 1.12

ELEMENTS OF GEOMETRY. By GEORGE A. WENTWORTH, Phillips Academy, Exeter.

ENGLISH OF THE XIV. CENTURY. Illustrated by Notes, Grammatical and Etymological, on Chaucer's Prologue and Knight's Tale. Designed to serve as an Introduction to the Critical Study of English. By STEPHEN H. CARPENTER, A. M., Professor of Rhetoric and English Literature in the State University of Wisconsin. 12mo. Cloth. 327 pages 1.12

ESSENTIALS OF ENGLISH GRAMMAR, for the Use of Schools. By Prof. W. D. WHITNEY, of Yale College. 12mo. Cloth. 272 pages 70

This work is founded on the author's studies of language in general, and on his experience as an examiner in English grammar for one of the departments of Yale College, and as a teacher of French and German in the same institution.

It endeavors to teach the facts of English grammar in such a way as shall lay the best foundation for further and higher study of language in every department.

The work begins with the formation of the simple sentence and the distinction of the parts of speech; it next explains the inflection of English words, and the formation of derivative and compound words: the parts of speech are then taken up in order and treated in detail; and chapters of syntax close the work. The added exercises give due opportunity of practice upon the matters taught.

FITZ'S TERRESTRIAL GLOBE. Mounted and Operated by an entirely new Method, with a Manual designed to accompany the Globe, the whole forming an easy and practical introduction to the study of Astronomy and Physical Geography.

Six-inch Globe . . . . . $ 15.00
Twelve-inch Globe 30.00

The Globe, as mounted, makes such phenomena as the seasons, the changes in the length of day and night, etc., etc., at once clear to the apprehension of an ordinary child. For the usual verbal explanations which overtask the untrained imagination, it substitutes material surfaces and lines and real motions, and thus aids the mind of the learner in the highest possible degree in forming correct and lasting impressions of phenomena which, however interesting, are in the abstract not easily understood.

FITZ'S MANUAL. 12mo. 120 pages 70

The Manual which accompanies the above Globe contains every direction for its use, with an explanation of the subjects which it is specially designed to illustrate, such as the changes in the length of day and night, the seasons, twilight, etc.

A collection of more than forty problems is also given, with full directions for working them, and numerous practical exercises to be worked out by the learner on the Globe. Questions for examination and miscellaneous exercises are added at the end.

HUDSON'S TEXT-BOOK OF POETRY.

From WORDSWORTH, COLERIDGE, BURNS, BEATTIE, GOLDSMITH, and THOMSON. With Sketches of the Authors' Lives. For use in Schools and Classes. By the REV. H. N. HUDSON. 12mo. Cloth. 704 pages 1 50

Two thirds of the volume is filled with Wordsworth; who has now made good his position as one of the five great chiefs of English poetry, and whose works embody, in the highest form, whatever is noblest and best in the English poetical literature of the last hundred years. The whole of The Excursion, the first two books of the Prelude, Michael, The Brothers, Tintern Abbey, Laodamia, On the Power of Sound, Ode on Immortality, and a large number of smaller pieces are included. The selections from Coleridge are The Ancient Mariner, Christabel, Fears in Solitude, and eighteen other pieces. From Burns, The Cotter's Saturday Night, The Two Dogs, Tam O'Shanter, The Vision, and twenty-six other poems, and also twenty-nine of the songs. From Beattie, The Minstrel; from Goldsmith, The Deserted Village; and from Thomson, The Castle of Indolence: these being generally regarded as the best poems of those authors. In all cases, except a few pieces of Wordsworth's, the poems are given entire, as the authors wrote them.

HUDSON'S TEXT-BOOK OF PROSE.

From BURKE, WEBSTER, and BACON. With Notes and Sketches of the Authors' Lives. By the REV. H. N. HUDSON. 12mo. Cloth. 648 pages 1.50

This work is intended as a sort of companion volume to the preceding. It is made up on the same general principle, the contents being selected with a view to unite, as far as may be, the culture of high and pure literary tastes with the attainment of liberal and useful knowledge. The selections from Burke are Letter to the Sheriffs of Bristol, Speech on Economical Reform, Speech to the Electors of Bristol, and A Letter to a Noble Lord, all given entire; also twenty-nine other pieces gathered, as seemed best, from the author's various works. From Webster, Speech in Reply to Hayne, Speech on the Presidential Protest, and discourse on The Character of Washington; also thirty-two shorter pieces from other speeches. From Bacon thirty of the fifty-eight Essays, all given entire, and several choice selections from Advancement of Learning.

This Chart is designed to illustrate Bible History by showing on a clear and simple plan the genealogy and chronology of the principal persons mentioned in the Scriptures.

HARVARD EXAMINATION PAPERS. Collected and arranged by R. F. LEIGHTON, A. M., Master of Melrose High School. Third Edition, containing papers of June and September, 1875–76. 12mo. Cloth. 348 pages 1.12

These are all the questions (except on the subject of Geometry), in the form of papers, which have been used in the examinations for admission to Harvard College since 1860. They will furnish an excellent series of Questions in Modern, Physical, and Ancient Geography; Grecian and Roman History; Arithmetic and Algebra; Plane and Solid Geometry; Logarithms and Trigonometry; Latin and Greek Grammar and Composition; Physics and Mechanics. They have been published in this form for the convenience of Teachers, classes in High Schools, and especially for pupils preparing for college.

OUR WORLD, No. I.; or, First Lessons in Geography. Revised edition, with new Maps, by MARY L. HALL. Small quarto. 119 pages . .70 Designed to give children clear and lasting impressions of the different countries and inhabitants of the earth rather than to tax the memory with mere names and details.

OUR WORLD, No. II.; or, Second Series of Lessons in Geography. By MARY L. HALL. With fine illustrations of the various countries, the inhabitants and their occupations, and two distinct series of Maps, 5 pages physical, and 19 pages of finely engraved copperplates political. Quarto. 181 pages 1.40

This book is intended, if used in connection with the First Lessons, to cover the usual course of geographical study. It is based upon the principle that it is more useful to give vivid conceptions of the physical features and political associations of different regions than to make pupils familiar with long lists of places and a great array of statistics.

OUTLINES OF THE ART OF EXPRESSION. By J. H. GILMORE, Professor of Logic, Rhetoric, and English in the University of Rochester. 12mo. Cloth. 117 pages 70

This little book was not manufactured to meet a demand, though it is believed that a demand for such a work has long existed. It grew, in the author's classroom, out of an attempt to remedy the defective training in English of students who were, in other respects, qualified to pursue to advantage a college course. With a cursory survey of English Grammar (from the logical and historical point of view) it combines brief practical suggestions with reference to Composition and Rhetoric, together with examples for criticism and topics for practice in the construction of sentences.

The book was privately printed, for the use of the author's classes, a year ago, and is given to the public, at the request of many teachers, in the hope that it may be useful to college professors who desire some brief, but comprehensive manual of English on which to condition candidates for admission to college. The lack of such a manual has compelled many a college professor either to give instruction, during the Freshman year, which should devolve on the preliminary training school, or to approach his proper work in Rhetoric and English at a very great disadvantage.

The attention of teachers of rhetoric in our colleges — and also in our academies and high schools — is especially called to the work as likely to meet a felt necessity. They will find it intensely direct and practical; yet resting, it is hoped, upon a sound theoretical basis which will facilitate the work of further and more systematic instruction.

While Professor Gilmore's ART OF EXPRESSION has this special adaptation, the publishers believe that it cannot wisely be overlooked wherever, for any reason, an intelligent review of English Grammar is desired.

PEIRCE'S TABLES OF LOGARITHMIC and TRIGONOMETRIC FUNCTIONS TO THREE AND FOUR PLACES OF DECIMALS. By JAMES MILLS PEIRCE, University Professor of Mathematics at Harvard University. Quarto. Cloth $0.56

PEIRCE'S ELEMENTS OF LOGARITHMS; with an Explanation of the Author's THREE AND FOUR PLACE TABLES. By JAMES MILLS PEIRCE, University Professor of Mathematics at Harvard University. 12mo. Cloth. 92 pages 70

This Work is a Companion to THREE AND FOUR PLACE TABLES OF LOGARITHMIC AND TRIGONOMETRIC FUNCTIONS, by the same Authors.

STEWART'S ELEMENTARY PHYSICS. American Edition. With QUESTIONS and EXERCISES. By PROF. G. A. HILL, of Harvard University. 18mo. Cloth. 580 pages 1.25

The Questions will be direct and exhaustive upon the text of Mr. Stewart's work. After the Questions will be given a series of easy Exercises and Problems, designed, in the hands of a good teacher, to arouse and strengthen in the student's mind the power of reasoning in accordance with sound scientific methods.

SEARLE'S OUTLINES OF ASTRONOMY. By ARTHUR SEARLE, of Harvard College Observatory. 16mo. Cloth. 433 pages . . 1.40

This work is intended to give such elementary instruction in the principal branches of Astronomy as is required in High Schools or by any students not far advanced in mathematics. It is illustrated by carefully prepared engravings, and contains some information on each of the following subjects: —

1. The chief results of astronomical inquiry up to the present time with regard to the general constitution of the universe, and, in particular, with regard to the stars, planets, nebulæ, comets, and meteors.
2. The methods of astronomical research, and their application to the arts.
3. The general principles of theoretical astronomy.
4. The history of astronomy.
5. Astronomical statistics.

THE NATIONAL MUSIC COURSE. In Four Books. For Public Schools. By JULIUS EICHBERG, J. B. SHARLAND, L. W. MASON, H. E. HOLT, Supervisors of Music in Public Schools of Boston, Mass.

PRIMARY OR FIRST MUSIC READER. 16mo. 96 pages 23

A course of exercises in the elements of VOCAL MUSIC AND SIGHT-SINGING, with choice rote songs for the use of youngest pupils.

INTERMEDIATE MUSIC READER. 16mo. 192 pages 53

Including the Second and Third Music Readers. A course of instruction in the elements of Vocal Music and Sight-Singing, with choice rote songs, in two and three parts, based on the elements of harmony.

THE FOURTH MUSIC READER. 8vo. 336 pages . . 1.12

This work, prepared to follow the Third Music Reader, is also adapted, under a competent instructor, to be used in High Schools where no previous systematic instruction has been given. To this end a brief but thorough elementary course is given, with musical theory, original solfeggios, a complete system of triad practice, and sacred music and song, with accompaniment for the piano. The music introduced is of a high order, and by the best masters, and is calculated to cultivate the taste, as well as to extend the knowledge and skill of the pupils.

THE FIFTH, or HIGH SCHOOL MUSIC READER FOR MIXED VOICES. Containing a full Course of Advanced Solfeggios for One and Two Voices, and a carefully selected number of easy Four-Part Songs, taken from the works of the best composers. This work has been especially compiled to meet the growing wants of our High Schools for a higher grade of music than is contained in works now used in such schools. 8vo. 299 pages $0.94

N. B. — The Tenor Part in many of the songs may be either omitted or sung by the altos (boys).

THE ABRIDGED FOURTH MUSIC READER. 8vo. 288 pages 94

SECOND MUSIC READER. 16mo. 96 pages 30

GREEK.

GOODWIN'S GREEK GRAMMAR. By WILLIAM W. GOODWIN, Ph. D., Eliot Professor of Greek Literature in Harvard University. 12mo. Half morocco. 262 pages $1.18

The object of this Grammar is to state general principles clearly and distinctly, with special regard to those who are preparing for college. In the sections on the Moods are stated, for the first time in an elementary form, the principles which are elaborated in detail in the author's "Syntax of the Greek Moods and Tenses."

GREEK MOODS AND TENSES. The Sixth Edition. By WILLIAM W. GOODWIN, Eliot Professor of Greek Literature in Harvard University. 1 vol. 12mo. Cloth. 264 pages 1.31

This work was first published in 1860, and it appeared in a new form — much enlarged and in great part rewritten — in 1865. In the present edition the whole has been again revised; some sections and notes have been rewritten, and a few notes have been added. The object of the work is to give a plain statement of the principles which govern the construction of the Greek Moods and Tenses, — the most important and the most difficult part of Greek Syntax.

GOODWIN'S GREEK READER. Consisting of Extracts from Xenophon, Plato, Herodotus, and Thucydides; being the full amount of Greek Prose required for admission at Harvard. With Maps, Notes, References to GOODWIN'S GREEK GRAMMAR, and parallel References to CROSBY'S and HADLEY'S GRAMMARS. Second edition, edited by PROFESSOR W. W. GOODWIN, of Harvard College. 12mo. Half morocco. 384 pages 1.50

The revised edition contains the first and second books of the Anabasis (in place of the third and fourth books of the former editions) with copious notes, the greater part of the second book and an extract from the seventh of the Hellenica, with the first chapter of the Memorabilia, of Xenophon; the last part of the Apology, and the beginning and end of the Phaedo, of Plato; selections from the sixth, seventh, and eighth books of Herodotus, and from the fourth book of Thucydides.

GOODWIN'S SELECTIONS FROM XENOPHON AND HERODOTUS. With Notes adapted to Goodwin's Greek Grammar, Parallel References to Crosby's and Hadley's Grammars, and copper-plate Maps. Edited by PROFESSOR W. W. GOODWIN and JOHN WILLIAMS WHITE, of Harvard College. 12mo. Half morocco 408 pages 1.50

This book contains the first four books of the Anabasis, and the greater part of the second book of the Hellenica, of Xenophon; and extracts from the sixth, seventh, and eighth books of Herodotus. It has been prepared for the use of those who from want of time or for other reasons are unable to read the greater variety of selections in Greek Prose which are contained in Goodwin's Greek Reader.

THE FIRST FOUR BOOKS OF THE ANABASIS OF XENOPHON. Edited, with copious Notes and References to Goodwin's Greek Grammar, Parallel References to Crosby's and Hadley's Grammars, and a copper-plate Map, by PROFESSOR W. W. GOODWIN and JOHN WILLIAMS WHITE, of Harvard College. 12mo. Half morocco. 240 pages 94

LEIGHTON'S GREEK LESSONS. Prepared to accompany Goodwin's Greek Grammar. By R. F. LEIGHTON, Master of Melrose High School. 12mo. Half morocco. 264 pages 1.18

This work contains about one hundred lessons, with a progressive series of exercises (both Greek and English), mainly selected from the first book of Xenophon's Anabasis. The exercises on the Moods are sufficient, it is believed, to develop the general principles as stated in the Grammar. The text of four chapters of the Anabasis is given entire, with notes and references. Full vocabularies accompany the book.

LIDDELL & SCOTT'S GREEK-ENGLISH LEXICON. The sixth Oxford Edition unabridged. 4to. 1,881 pages.

Morocco back	$10.00
Sheep binding	11.00

The English editions of Liddell & Scott are not stereotyped; but each has been thoroughly revised, enlarged, and printed anew. The sixth edition, published in 1869, is larger by one eighth than the fifth, and contains 1,865 pages. It is an entirely different work from the first edition, the whole department of etymology having been rewritten in the light of modern investigations, and the forms of the irregular verbs being given in greater detail by the aid of Veitch's Catalogue. No student of Greek can afford to dispense with this invaluable Lexicon, the price of which is now for the first time brought within the means of the great body of American scholars.

PLATO'S APOLOGY OF SOCRATES AND CRITO. Edited, for the Use of Schools, by JOHN WILLIAMS WHITE, A. M.

The basis of this work will be the German edition of Dr. Christian Cron. (Platons Vertheidigungsrede des Sokrates und Kriton. Sechste Auflage. Leipzig, Tuebner, 1875.) To the matter contained in Dr. Cron's edition there will be added notes by the Editor and from other sources, analyses, and extended references to Goodwin and Hadley. The book will be for the class-room, and all matter not of direct value to the student will be rigidly excluded.

THE ŒDIPUS TYRANNUS OF SOPHOCLES. Edited, with an Introduction, Notes, and full explanation of the metres, by JOHN W. WHITE, A. M., Professor of the Greek Language and Literature in Baldwin University. 12mo. Cloth. 219 pages 1.12

THE MEDEA OF EURIPIDES. Edited, with Notes and an Introduction, by FREDERIC D. ALLEN, Ph. D., Professor in the University of Cincinnati. 12mo. Cloth. 141 pages 94

SIDGWICK'S INTRODUCTION TO GREEK PROSE COMPOSITION. 12mo. Cloth. 280 pages 1.75

WHITE'S FIRST LESSONS IN GREEK. Prepared to accompany Goodwin's Greek Grammar, and designed as an Introduction to his Greek Reader. By JOHN WILLIAMS WHITE, A. M., Tutor in Greek in Harvard College. 12mo. Half morocco. 305 pages 1.18

A series of eighty lessons with progressive Greek-English and English-Greek exercises. Followed by selected passages from the first two books of Xenophon's Anabasis, and vocabularies.

WHITON'S SELECT ORATIONS OF LYSIAS. Comprising the Defence of Mantitheus, the Oration against Eratosthenes, the Reply to "The Overthrow of the Democracy," and the Areopagitic Oration concerning the Sacred Olive-Trunk. Edited by JAMES MORRIS WHITON, Ph. D. 12mo. 151 pages 94

The grammatical notes deal almost wholly with the syntax, — as befits a work of this grade, — and have been prepared with a special aim to elucidate the usage of the verb. References are made, for the most part, to Goodwin's Greek Moods and Tenses, and Goodwin's and Hadley's Grammars.

LATIN.

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S LATIN GRAMMAR: a Latin Grammar for schools and colleges, founded on Comparative Grammar. 12mo. Half morocco. 290 pages (including supplementary Outlines of Syntax, with new and greatly enlarged Index) . . . . . $ 1.12

The features of this grammar to which we invite attention, are: 1. The scientific form of statement in the Etymology, corresponding to the most advanced views of comparative philologists; 2. The comparison with kindred languages suggested throughout, especially in numerous brief philological notes, and in references to the syntax of Goodwin's Greek Grammar; the grouping and subordination of topics in the Syntax, — which contains nearly 200 cross-references, with upwards of 1,000 citations from classic authors, — so that unusual brevity is attained without sacrifice of completeness.

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S LATIN METHOD: a Method of Instruction in Latin; being a companion and guide in the study of Latin Grammar. With elementary instruction in Reading at Sight, Exercises in Translation and Writing, Notes, and Vocabularies; also "Outlines of Syntax," taken from the Latin Grammar. 12mo. Cloth. 134 pages 75

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S LATIN COMPOSITION: an Elementary Guide to Writing in Latin. Part I. Constructions of Syntax; Part II. Exercises in Translation. 12mo. Cloth. 198 pages 1.12

Part First (which is published separately) consists of thirty progressive Lessons, with full instructions, exercises, and vocabulary; and is designed "to furnish a sufficient amount of study and practice in Latin composition during the last year of preparation for college, or the first of a college course." Part Second consists of about forty exercises in translation, chiefly narrative, adapted to the use of advanced or college classes; with annotated references to the Lessons of Part I., and to the sections of a special Introduction on the Choice of Words, the Form of the Sentence, and Idiomatic Usages.

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S CÆSAR: Cæsar's Gallic War: Four Books. With Historical Introduction, Notes, and a Copperplate Map of Gaul. [With a full Vocabulary by R. F. PENNELL, of Phillips Exeter Academy.] 12mo. Half morocco. 282 pages 1.12
Without Vocabulary 90

The text of this edition is that of Nipperdey, important variations being noticed. The notes are unusually full in historical illustration, derived largely from Mommsen, Long, Merivale, the "History of Julius Cæsar" by Napoleon III., and the excellent school edition of Moberly. In the earlier portions they are especially designed to guide in a systematic and careful study of Latin syntax.

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S SALLUST: The Conspiracy of Catiline as related by Sallust. With Introduction and Notes explanatory and historical. 12mo. Cloth. 84 pages 75

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S CICERO: Select Orations of Cicero, chronologically arranged, covering the entire period of his public life. From the text of Baiter and Kayser. With Life, general and special Introductions, and Index of topics discussed. 12mo. Half morocco. 394 pages . . . 1.12
The text without notes 60

It is the design of this edition to give a full view of Cicero's public career, as orator and statesman, extending through about forty of the most eventful years of the later Republic. With this view, the selection includes the earliest and the latest of his public orations, while the special Introductions cover very fully the intervening political history. Besides the orations more commonly read in schools, are given the Roscius and Sestius (abridged), with the first against Verres and the last Philippic, — thirteen in all, — with one or two short passages of special celebrity, for practice in reading at sight. Especial care has been taken in the department of Antiquities, which has been treated in numerous notes (in smaller type), some of them — as that on the Roman Aristocracy — being brief essays on the several topics.
The Introduction contains a classified list of all the works of Cicero, with the occasions and topics of all of his orations.

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S CATO MAJOR: Cicero De Senectute, a Dialogue on Old Age. With Introduction (on the adoption in Rome of the Greek philosophy) and Notes. 12mo. Cloth. 57 pages . . $ 0.56

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S OVID: Selections from the Poems of Ovid, chiefly the Metamorphoses. With special Introductions, Notes, and Index of Proper Names. 12mo. Half morocco. 283 pages 1.12

The introductions to the passages from the Metamorphoses (23 in number) give the entire argument of the poem, that of omitted portions bracketed. The other selections include those of special interest as illustrating the poet's life; and a list is given of all his writings, with their topics and occasions. The Notes contain brief instructions on scanning at sight.

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S VIRGIL: The Poems of Virgil; Vol. I. containing the Pastoral Poems (Bucolics) and Six Books of the Æneid. Chiefly from the text of Ribbeck, with select various Readings, Introductions, Notes, and Index of Plants (compiled chiefly from Fée's Flore de Virgile, contained in Lemaire's "Bibliotheca Classica Latina") 12mo. Half morocco. 372 pages 1.12

The Notes of this edition (which are brief and very numerous are particularly indebted to Conington, and are designed "to give not only what may serve the learner in the bare understanding of the text; but, along with it, some hint of that wealth of traditional interpretation which is more important, perhaps, in the study of Virgil than in that of any other ancient poet."

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S VIRGIL. With Vocabulary. 12mo. Half morocco. 588 pages 1.40

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S Course No. I. A Full Preparatory Course of Latin Prose; consisting of Four Books of Cæsar's Gallic War, Sallust's Conspiracy of Catiline, Eight Orations of Cicero, and DE SENECTUTE (Cato Major). 12mo. Half morocco. 582 pages 1.88

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S Course No. II. Second Preparatory Course of Latin Prose; containing Four Books of Cæsar's Gallic War, and Eight Orations of Cicero. With Vocabulary by R. F. PENNELL. 12mo. Half morocco. 518 pages 1.88

N. B. Course No. I. is identical with the First Course prescribed for admission to Harvard College. Course No. II. includes the usual amount required at other colleges.

ALLEN & GREENOUGH'S CICERO. Eight Orations of Cicero. With Vocabulary by R. F. PENNELL. 12mo. Half morocco. 358 pages 1.12

ALLEN'S LATIN GRAMMAR. 12mo. Cloth. 182 pages .90

ALLEN'S LATIN LESSONS. 12mo. Cloth. 146 pages . .90

ALLEN'S LATIN READER: Consisting of Selections from Cæsar (the invasion of Britain and account of the Gallic and German populations), Curtius (Anecdotes of Alexander), Nepos (Life of Hannibal), Sallust (Jugurtha, abridged), Ovid, Virgil, Plautus, and Terence (single scenes), Cicero and Pliny (Letters), and Tacitus (the Conflagration of Rome). With Notes and a General Vocabulary. The Notes have been adapted to Allen & Greenough's Grammar. 12mo. Half morocco. 532 pages 1.75

ALLEN'S LATIN SELECTIONS. Containing the first 134 pages of Allen's Latin Reader. With Notes adapted to A. & G.'s Latin Grammar. 12mo. Half morocco. 190 pages 90

ALLEN'S LATIN COMPOSITION. An Introduction to Latin Composition. (By W. F. ALLEN.) New edition, adapted to Allen & Greenough's Grammar. 12mo. Cloth. 118 pages . . . . . $ 0.90

This book includes a careful review of the principles of Syntax (beginning with Indirect Discourse), with exercises in various styles of composition selected from classical authors. Also short exercises for oral practice.

ALLEN'S SHORTER COURSE OF LATIN PROSE. Consisting chiefly of the Prose Selections of Allen's Latin Reader (to p. 134), the Notes being wholly rewritten, enlarged, and adapted to Allen & Greenough's Grammar; accompanied by Six Orations of Cicero, — the Manilian, the four Catilines, and Archias. With Vocabulary. 12mo. Half morocco. 543 pages 1.75

ALLEN'S LATIN PRIMER. A First Book of Latin for Boys and Girls. (By J. H. ALLEN.) 12mo. Cloth. 182 pages 90

This is designed for the use of scholars of a younger class, and consists of thirty Lessons arranged so as to give a full outline of the grammar, with brief Rules of Syntax, Tables of Inflection, and interlined exercises for practice in reading, compiled from Historiæ Sacræ. The reading selections which follow include Dialogues from Corderius and Erasmus (with translation), narratives, nursery songs, mediæval hymns, etc., being made up in great part from modern Latin writers.

ALLEN'S LATIN LEXICON: a General Vocabulary of Latin, with Supplementary Tables of Dates, Antiquities, etc. By J. H. ALLEN. 12mo. Cloth. 214 pages 90

This little dictionary contains "about 15,000 words of common use, besides more than 1,300 proper names or adjectives, and about 200 dates (exclusive of the Tables), covering the more important points of classical history and mythology." It is believed to be complete for the entire introductory course of Latin authors, including Ovid and Virgil.

LEIGHTON'S LATIN LESSONS. Prepared to accompany Allen & Greenough's Latin Grammar. By R. F. LEIGHTON, former Master of Melrose High School. Revised Edition. 12mo. Half morocco. 352 pages . 1.12

This work presents a progressive series of exercises (both Latin and English) in about eighty Lessons, illustrating the grammatical forms and the simpler principles of syntax. Synonymes and Rules of Quantity are introduced from the first. The amount of illustrative matter in exercises for reading and writing or oral practice is very large, including portions of VIRI ROMÆ, and Woodford's Epitome of the First Book of Cæsar. Full Vocabularies (prepared by R. F. PENNELL) accompany the book, with questions for examination and review of the grammar.

The Lessons have been entirely rewritten, considerably simplified, and more carefully graded. With each lesson, definite directions have been given in regard to the amount of the grammar to be learned. By decreasing the exercises to be translated into English, space has been given to increase correspondingly the amount to be put into Latin. Some instruction on the formation of words has been given, and the references to the grammar on that subject largely increased. The vocabularies have also been carefully revised.

MADVIG'S LATIN GRAMMAR. Carefully revised by THOMAS A. THACHER, Yale College. 12mo. Half morocco. 517 pages . . 2.25

A book of the very highest authority in Latin Syntax, and admirably adapted to the wants of Teachers and College Classes.

NEW LATIN METHOD: a Manual of Instruction in Latin on the Basis of a Latin Method prepared by J. H. ALLEN and J. B. GREENOUGH. 12mo. Cloth. 244 pages 94

The "New Method" contains: 1. About thirty ELEMENTARY LESSONS on the forms of the language, and the constructions suggested by the definitions of cases, moods, etc., accompanied by full Paradigms, and Exercises in Latin and English, with partial vocabularies. N. B. This portion of the book can be used independently of the Grammar, and is sufficient for a course of about a year's study — 2. CONSTRUCTIONS OF SYNTAX symmetrically grouped, with full references to the Grammar, each topic being illustrated by numerous examples, with exercises to be rendered into Latin, so as to make a full elementary manual of Latin Composition. — 3. ON READING LATIN: brief sections on the Latin Sentence, with examples of analysis and translation; the Derivation of Words; and Reading at Sight. — 4. READING LESSONS, with Vocabularies, and Tabular List of Synonymes.

WHITE'S JUNIOR STUDENT'S LATIN-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-LATIN LEXICON. By the REV. J. T. WHITE, D. D., of C. C. C. Oxford, Rector of St. Martin, Ludgate, London. Revised Edition. Square 12mo. 1058 pages. Sheep 3.25

"The present work aims at furnishing in both its parts a sufficiently extensive vocabulary for all practical purposes. The Latin words and phrases are in all cases followed by the name of some standard Latin writer, as a guaranty of their authority; and as the work is of a strictly elementary character, the conjugation of the verbs and the genders and genitive cases of the substantives are uniformly added. In the preparation of this portion of the book, DR. WHITE has had the assistance of some of the best scholars both of Oxford and Cambridge." — Guardian.

WHITE'S JUNIOR STUDENT'S ENGLISH-LATIN LEXICON. Square 12mo. Sheep. 392 pages 1 88

We have contracted with Messrs. Longmans, Green, & Co., of London, for the sole agency in this country for the above Latin Lexicons, and shall endeavor to meet the demands of the trade.

ANNOUNCEMENTS OF NEW BOOKS.

In Press,

and to be published without fail in the Fall of 1877.

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE STUDY OF THE RHYTHMIC AND METRIC OF THE CLASSICAL LANGUAGES.

By Dr. J. H. Heinrich Schmidt. To which will be added the Text of the Lyrical Parts of some of the more generally read of the Greek Dramas, with Rhythmical Schemes and Commentary. Edited from the German by John Williams White, A. M., of Harvard College.

Dr. Schmidt's "Leitfaden in der Rhythmik und Metrik der Classischen Sprachen" is a compend of his larger work, brought out in four volumes, 8vo, in 1868–72, entitled "Die Kunstformen der griechischen Poesie und ihre Bedeutung," and is designed as a manual for classes in the Greek and Latin poets. The author has revised the present translation and made important additions. Many illustrations from English poets have been introduced, and the work has been otherwise adapted to the use of English-speaking students. With a full Index. (Nearly Ready.)

In Preparation.

THE PUBLIC HARANGUES OF DEMOSTHENES.

Edited by Isaac Flagg, Ph. D., Professor of Greek in Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

This work will comprise all the demegoriae of unquestioned authenticity, eleven in number. It has been undertaken in view of the fact that several speeches belonging to this head, of great merit and importance, have not as yet appeared in a form convenient for college reading. The commentary, appended to a carefully edited text, will be adapted to the requirements of students well advanced in Greek.

THE FIRST THREE BOOKS OF HOMER'S ILIAD.

By Professor F. E. Anderson and John Williams White, of Harvard College.

PUBLISHED BY GINN AND HEATH, BOSTON.

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE WRITING OF SIMPLE GREEK PROSE.

Intended to follow WHITE'S FIRST LESSONS IN GREEK, and to introduce SIDGWICK'S GREEK PROSE COMPOSITION.

ELEMENTS OF NATURAL PHILOSOPHY.

A Text-Book for Common and High Schools. By PROFESSOR A. E. DOLBEAR, A. M., of Tufts College.

The treatise will differ from most text-books on Natural Philosophy in being based upon the doctrine of the conservation of energy; this will be made prominent in every department of it.

Especial attention will be given to the functions of machines as transmuters of force as well as transmitters of force.

Numerous experiments will be given for the student to perform at home or before the class; also problems to be solved and phenomena to be explained involving principles and laws already learned.

Whenever it is practicable the experimental part will precede the statements of the laws, that is to say, the laws are to be deduced from the experiments performed.

Lastly, the simplest apparatus will be described instead of the more complex and costly, and generally such as can be made by teacher or scholars if it cannot be purchased.

Just Published.

INTRODUCTION TO GREEK PROSE COMPOSITION, WITH EXERCISES.

By A. SIDGWICK, M. A., Assistant Master at Rugby, late Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge, and editor of "Scenes from Greek Plays."

1 vol. 12mo. Cloth. 281 pages.....$1.75

This volume contains 49 pages of Notes on Constructions, "arranged so that the learner may readily refer to them, and find what he is likely to want more easily than he could in a grammar"; 54 additional pages of Notes on Idiom "to guide the student in those places where he is most likely to go wrong, and to suggest to him, without going too much into detail, some ideas on the leading differences between the methods of expression adopted respectively in the English and Greek languages"; and 174 Exercises with footnotes, arranged in four parts, the first two parts consisting of easy connected tales complete in themselves, Part III. containing passages from histories of a kind adapted for more advanced students, and Part IV. consisting of a few passages to be done in the style of Demosthenes and Plato. There are also Lists of Pronouns, Conjunctions, Particles, and Prepositions, a Scheme of the Greek Subjunctive and Optative, and a Vocabulary intended to supply all the commoner Greek words required in the Exercises.

From PROFESSOR F. E. ANDERSON, A. M., of Harvard College.

"I can cordially recommend Mr. Sidgwick's Greek Prose Composition from my experience of its use during the past year with my class as decidedly the best book on its subject that I have ever seen. My pupils and I have liked especially the self-completeness of the book and the carefully composed pieces of entertaining English which have done away with the drudgery heretofore inseparable from this somewhat difficult study."

AN ENGLISH-GREEK LEXICON.

Abridged from the larger work. By C. D. YONGE, M. A., Regius Professor of History and English Literature, Queen's College, Belfast. Author of "A Latin Gradus," "A Latin Dictionary," "Virgil, with English Notes," etc.

New Edition. 1 vol. Square 12mo. Cloth. 485 pages $3 00

To be issued in July, 1877.

ELEMENTS OF GEOMETRY.

By PROFESSOR GEORGE A. WENTWORTH, A. M., of Phillips Academy, Exeter.

This work is based upon the assumption that Geometry is a branch of practical logic, the object of which is to detect, and state clearly and precisely, the successive steps from premise to conclusion.

In each proposition a concise statement of what is given is printed in one kind of type, of what is required in another, and the demonstration in still another. The reason for each step is indicated in small type, between that step and the one following, thus preventing the necessity of interrupting the process of demonstration by referring to a previous proposition. The number of the section, however, on which the reason depends, is placed at the side of the page, and the pupil should be prepared, when called upon, to give the proof of each reason.

A limited use has been made of symbols, wherein symbols stand for words and not for operations.

Great pains has been taken to make the page attractive. The figures are large and elegant, and the propositions have been so arranged that in no case is it necessary to turn the page in reading a demonstration.

A large experience in the class-room convinces the author that, if the teacher will rigidly insist upon the logical form adopted in this work, the pupil will avoid the discouraging difficulties which usually beset the beginner in geometry; that he will rapidly develop his reasoning faculty, acquire facility in simple and accurate expression, and lay a foundation of geometrical knowledge which will be the more solid and enduring from the fact that it will not rest upon an effort of the memory simply.

Paper cover ..... .50

PARALLEL RULES OF GREEK AND LATIN SYNTAX for use in Schools.

Prepared by Instructors in the Classical Department of Williston Seminary, at Easthampton, Mass.

The object of this little pamphlet, prepared by two instructors in Williston Seminary, is to put clearly before their pupils the correspondences and the differences in Greek and Latin Syntax. With this design they have adopted an arrangement in Parallel Columns like that often seen in Harmonies of the Gospels.

When the idioms of the two languages coincide, a single statement extending into both columns serves as the rule for Latin and Greek; being illustrated by examples which take their place in the Latin and Greek columns respectively. When the idioms of the two languages diverge, the statement appears in only one column, a blank being left in the other.

The Syntax of the Cases is treated of in fifty, that of the moods in thirty rules.

ANDERSON—AMERICA NOT DISCOVERD BY COLUMBUS.—A Historical Sketch of the Discovery of America by the Norsemen in the 10th century. By R. B. ANDERSON, with an Appendix on the Historical, Literary and Scientific value of the Scandinavian Languages. New and improved edition. 12mo, cloth...$1.00

"A valuable addition to American history. * * * The book is full of surprising statements, and will be read with something like wonderment."—Notes and Queries, London.

ANDERSON—NORSE MYTHOLOGY; or, the Religion of our Forefathers. Containing all the Myths of the Eddas carefully systematized and interpreted, with an Introduction, Vocabulary and Index. By R. B. ANDERSON, A. M., Prof. of Scandinavian Languages, in the University of Wisconsin. Second edition, Crown 8vo, cloth.....$2.50. | Cloth gilt edges.....$3.00. | Half calf.....$4.50

"Prof. Anderson's work is incomparably superior to the already existing books of this order.—Scribner's Monthly.

"Deeply interesting as well as in a high degree instructive. No such account of the old Scandinavian Mythology has hitherto been given in the English language. Prof. Anderson's interpretations of the myths, throw new light on them, and are valuable additions (as is the whole work) to the history of religion and of literature."—Presbyterian Quarterly and Princeton Review.

ANDERSON—VIKING TALES OF THE NORTH.—The Sagas of Thorstein, Viking's son and Fridthjof the Bold. Translated from the Icelandic by RASMUS B. ANDERSON, A. M., Professor of the Scandinavian Languages in the University of Wisconsin and Honorary Member of the Icelandic Literary Society; and JON BJARNASON; also TEGNER'S FRIDTHJOF'S SAGA, translated by GEORGE STEPHENS. In one volume, 12mo, cloth.....$2.00

"Prof. Anderson's book is a very valuable and important one."—The Nation.

"A charming book it is. Your work is in everyway cleverly done. The quaintly delightful sagas ought to charm many thousands of readers, and your translation is of the best."—From Prof. Willard Fiske, Cornell University.

BLISS—THREE MONTHS IN THE ORIENT.—By O. J. BLISS. Cloth.....$1.25

"We have not for a long time fallen in with a volume of the kind which is a better companion for a Sunday afternoon."—Evening Post, New York.

BURRIS—THE TRINITY.—By REV. F. H. BURRIS. With an Introduction by Joseph Haven, D.D., LL.D. 12mo, cloth. Price.....$1.50

"It is a real and valuable discussion of what has been accounted a fundamental point in theology, and the introduction by Dr. Haven is by far the best presentation, in brief, of the history of this doctrine of the Trinity that we have anywhere met—intelligent, impartial and lucid."—The Morning Star, Boston.

CAREW—TANGLED.—A novel by Rachel Carew. Square 16mo, cloth.....$1.00

"One of the most notable books of the season. The situations are full of genuine fun for the reader. It is a straightforward, honest story, capitally told."—Saturday Evening Herald.

CONE—TWO YEARS IN CALIFORNIA.—By M. CONE. With 15 fine Illustrations, a map of California, and a plan of the Yosemite Valley, 12mo, cloth....$1.75
A thoroughly reliable book for tourists and settlers.

"There is no work of our acquaintance, which presents in better form the advantages and disadvantages of California as a place of settlement. . . . We find it throughout a trustworthy and charmingly written account of a land which holds in its lap possibilities scarcely equaled by any other State in the Union. The volume contains a fine map and many beautiful illustrations."—The Inter-Ocean.

FAWCETT—GOLD AND DEBT—An American Hand-Book of Finance, with over Eighty Tables and Diagrams. By W. L. FAWCETT. 12 mo, Cloth.....$1.75

"Of interest to the general reader, and quite invaluable to the banker and man of public life. . . . To those who want a handy volume of reference upon these important subjects, we can recommend this work."—The Banker and Tradesman, Boston.

FOSTER—PRE-HISTORIC RACES OF THE UNITED STATES.—By J. W. FOSTER, LL. D. 415 pages, crown 8 vo., Illustrated, FOURTH EDITION, Cloth..$3.00
Half calf binding, gilt top.....$5.00 | Full calf, gilt edges.....$6 50

"Those of us who have been wont to look upon these mysterious works (the mounds) as upon the Egyptian Sphynx, as eternal problems, filling the space in unbroken silence, will be surprised and delighted with the revelations with which these pages abound, of the antiquity, design and purposes of the vanished races of vanished centuries."—Portland Transcript.

HOLCOMB—FRIDTHJOF'S SAGA.—A Norse Romance. By ESAIAS TEGNÉR, Bishop of Wexiö. Translated from the Swedish by THOMAS A. E. and MARTHA A. LYON HOLCOMB. 12 mo, Cloth.....$1.50

"The translation is exceedingly well done. . . . This is not the first attempt to reproduce Tegner's famous work in English, but we believe it to be quite the most successful."—Harper's Magazine.

HUDSON—LAW FOR THE CLERGY.—A compilation of the statutes of the States of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, and Wisconsin, relating to the Duties of Clergymen in the solemnization of Marriage, the organization of Churches and Religious Societies, and the Protection of Religious Meetings and Assemblies, with Notes and Practical Forms, embracing a collection of the Common Law of Marriage. By SANFORD A. HUDSON. 16 mo, Cloth.....$1.00

"It contains what every preacher should have. It is a safe guide in securing deeds and titles to property to churches, etc."—Religious Telescope, Dayton, Ohio.

JONES—THE MYTH OF STONE IDOL.—A Love Legend of Dakota. By WM. P. JONES, A. M. 1 vol., small quarto, handsomely bound.....$1.25

"We read it through, beguiled by its melodious lines and the pathos of its simple tale. . . . Its descriptions are fine pictures."—Zion's Herald, Boston.

KIPPAX—CHURCH YARD LITERATURE.—A choice collection of American Epitaphs, with remarks on Monumental Inscriptions and the obsequies of various nations. By JOHN R. KIPPAX, LL. D. 12 mo, Cloth.....$1.50

"A collection remarkable for quaintness and eccentricity."—N. Y. Daily Tribune.

Price, 1 vol., 12 mo, Cloth.....$2.00 | Half calf binding, gilt top.....$3.50
The same, gilt edges..... 2.50 | Full calf, gilt edges..... 5.00

"It has the stimulation of a novel, and is at the same time instructive, judicious and practical. It deals with life as it has been, as it is, and as it ever will be. On whatever page the eye rests, the mind becomes quickened and dignified by the richness and grandeur of his illustrations."—American Christian Review.

"This is the best book on the subject we have ever read. No one can read it without being benefited, and to young men its value can scarcely be estimated. Its chapter on 'money' is worth many times the cost of the work to any one."—Christian Advocate, Buffalo.

MATHEWS—THE GREAT CONVERSERS, and Other Essays.—By WM. MATHEWS, LL. D. SEVENTH EDITION. 1 vol., 12mo.....$1.75

"It is very rarely that so fascinating a work is published, and one of such permanent use to every reader of intelligence. There is not one of the essays which can fail to convey pleasure and profit."—Illustrated Weekly, N. Y.

MILLER—WHAT TOMMY DID.—By EMILY HUNTINGTON MILLER. Fifteenth Thousand, Beautifully Illustrated, 16 mo, paper covers.....50 cents. The same in cloth.....$1.00

"If there is any other way in which fifty cents will purchase as much sustained and healthful amusement as is offered by this little book we should be glad to know it."—John Habberton, in the Christian Union.

MISHAPS OF MR. EZEKIEL PELTER.—Illustrated. THIRD EDITION.....$1.50

"So ludicrous are the vicissitudes of the much abused Ezekiel, and so much of human nature and every-day life intermingle, that it will be read with a hearty zest for its morals, while the humor is irresistible. If you want to laugh at something new, a regular side splitter, get this book."—The Evangelist, St. Louis.

PHELPS—DRAMATIC STORIES for Home and School Entertainment.—By LAVINIA H. PHELPS. 12mo, cloth.....$1 00

"They are easy of representation; the incidents are healthful, the language strong and pure, and the general design advantageous alike to actor and listener.—Boston Commonwealth.

ROBERT—RULES OF ORDER, for Deliberative Assemblies.—By MAJOR HENRY M. ROBERT, Corps of Engineers, U. S .A. TENTH THOUSAND. Pocket size. Cloth..... .75

"After carefully examining it and comparing it with several other books having the same object in view, I am free to say that it is, by far, the best of all. The 'Table of Rules' is worth the cost of the work."—Thomas Bowman, D. D., Bishop of Baltimore M. E. Conference.

SMITH—PATMOS; or, The Kingdom and the Patience.—By J. A. SMITH, D. D., Editor of the Standard, Square 16mo, cloth.....$1.25

"To earnest seekers for higher spiritual attainments the author has rendered a service at once great and beautiful. Originality of thought, beauty and purity of expression and graphic delineations, are among its marked features."—National Baptist, Philadelphia.

TAYLOR—IN CAMP AND FIELD.—By BENJ. F. TAYLOR. 12mo, cloth $1.50

"Each of these sketches is a gem in itself. One may search the annals of war from Tacitus to Kinglake and not find anything finer."—Inter-Ocean.

TAYLOR—OLD-TIME PICTURES AND SHEAVES OF RHYME.—By BENJAMIN F. TAYLOR. Illustrated, Small Quarto, Silk Cloth. FIFTH EDITION. Price, $1.50. The same, full gilt edges and side.....$1.75

"It gives me pleasure to see the poems of B. F. Taylor issued by your house in a form worthy of their merit. * * I do not know of any one who so well reproduces the home scenes of long ago."—John G. Whittier.

TAYLOR—THE WORLD ON WHEELS and Other Sketches.—By BENJ. F. TAYLOR. ELEVENTH EDITION. Illustrated. 1 vol., 12mo.,.....$1.50

"Full of humor and sharp as a Damascus blade."—Presbyterian, Philadelphia. "One of the most elegant as well as pungent and rich specimens of wit and humor, extant." — New York Illustrated Weekly.

TAYLOR—SONGS OF YESTERDAY.—By BENJ. F. TAYLOR. An elegant holiday volume. Beautifully illustrated with numerous designs by Miss Hallock and Messrs. Beale, Bolles, Darley, Eytinge, Moran and Shepard. Octavo, with handsomely ornamented cover in black and gold. Full gilt edges, $3.00; Morocco, $6.00

"The volume is magnificently gotten up, and in binding, paper and illustration compares favorably with anything Eastern publishers can show. . . . There is a simplicity, a tenderness and a pathos, intermingled always with a quiet humor, about his writings which is inexpressibly charming. Some of his earlier poems have become classic, and many of those in the present volume ars destined to as wide a popularity as Longfellow's 'Village Blacksmith,' or Whittier's 'Maud Muller."—Boston Transcript.

WALKER—PHILOSOPHY OF THE PLAN OF SALVATION.—By J. B. WALKER, D.D., with an Introductory Essay by Calvin E. Stowe, D.D. A new edition, with supplementary chapter by the author. 68th Thousand, 12mo, cloth, $1.50

"It is a work of extraordinary power. * * We think it more likely to lodge an impression in the human conscience, in favor of the divine authority of Christianity, than any other work of the modern press." London Evangelical Magazine, England.

WALKER—THE DOCTRINE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT; or Philosophy of the Divine Operation in the Redemption of Man, being volume second of "Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation."—By REV. JAMES B. WALKER, D.D. FOURTH EDITION, Revised and Enlarged. 12mo, Cloth, Price.....$1.50

"Our library contains several treatises on the work of the Spirit by various authors, but none of them are so clear, simple, scriptural and comprehensive as this by Dr. Walker. . . . It is not intended for theologians only or especially, but for all who wish to be well informed on religious subjects."—Christian at Work, N. Y.

E. J. HALE & SON'S LATE PUBLICATIONS.

THE THISTLE EDITION,

The Only Fully Illustrated Edition of

THE WAVERLEY NOVELS

OF AMERICAN MAKE EVER OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC.

Of the text of Sir WALTER SCOTT it is, of course, unnecessary to speak. Of the style of manufacture the volumes now ready will speak for themselves wherever seen.

"They have," says the New York Evening Post, "the best of all good qualities in a printed book—clear, large type—without being expensive, elegant and serviceable."

"An exceedingly beautiful edition, the first volumes of which, now ready, are gems of typographical beauty," says the New York World. "In point of paper, typography and illustration the best we have."

"Printed in type at which feeble eyes will be glad," says the New York Christian Union.

The Philadelphia Episcopal Register says: "A new, positively handsome, generously illustrated and at the same time cheap edition of the Waverley Novels is always a desideratum. These stories never seem to grow old. After reading the best new novel, one returns to them with unbiassed interest and unfailing delight. We are glad to see this new edition of E. J. HALE & SON'S inaugurated, for it promises to answer popular demands which have been met by no previous one. The text of this 'Thistle Edition' is that of the 'Author's Edition' of 1829, while the illustrations, which will amount, in all, to nearly 2,000 in number, are those of the 'Abbotsford Edition'—it combines, therefore, the distinctive merits of these two favorite foreign editions. It also contains copies of the antiquities illustrating the historical events and personages of the novels, which were gathered by the author in his museum at Abbotsford. This is the only extensively illustrated edition ever published in this country, and for clear, bold typography, exquisitely tinted paper and tasteful binding, it has never been equalled."

THE ODD TRUMP.

Octavo. Cloth, $1.25. Paper, 75c.

"Deserving the highest praise. * * Its incidents are all pure: it is the apotheosis of chivalric bravery and courtesy; and is written in elegant English, with a purity of style that is in itself refreshing. * * If this is the first attempt, a new star of the first magnitude has appeared in the galaxy of authors. If an experienced hand has chosen to send forth a venture anonymously to the world, fresh laurels will be added to the wreath, whosoever may wear it."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"So fresh, free, healthy, unconventional and well written that it will be worth while to read it for refreshment; to take the taste of a French novel out of the mouth it is invaluable."—Springfield Republican.

"A most decided success. * * A most delightful book, * * The power to entertain that marks the true story-teller and story-writer."—Indianapolis Journal.

"Bright, and lively from preface to postscript."—Philadelphia North American.

"Of remarkable power, full of vivacity, and interesting to such a degree that the reader is fascinated. * * Full of well drawn characters and stirring scenes. * * No limit to the inventive powers and to the fertile resources of the author."—Richmond Whig.

"Bright, sparkling, dashing, and there is not a dull page in the book.—Raleigh Daily News.

"In most respects excellent; its interest is unbroken, its dialogues bright and natural, and its dramatic passages remarkably vigorous."—Literary World.

"One of the best novels of the day, full of wholesome morality and sound sense, and sustaining the reader's interest to the end, through a chain of stirring incidents."—New York World.

"Odd in its plot, characters, style, and in its very excellency."—Baldwin's Monthly.

"A magnificient volume. We have here the cream of the works of the popular favorite, and it is very rich, and to be pronounced pefect. A handsomer volume, in all respects, seldom has come from the press of any country."—Boston Traveller.

"A Prince among books."—Boston Journal.

"A superb book; really deserving to be called his 'Best Thoughts.'"—N. Y. World.

"Welcome to all lovers of the great English novelist."—Harper's Magazine.

"Indispensable in every library."—N. Y. Herald.

"What Willis used to call a 'take-downable book.'"—N. Y. Christian Union.

"Everything that is good, beautiful and true; everything that is rich, rare and racy; all the soft and tender memories, all the noble and generous impulses in a great heart, are here poured at the feet of the reader, who has but to reach for it and the good things are his."—Lexington (Ky.) Statesman.

"Happily conceived and admirably executed."—N. O. Southland.

"One of the most attractive volumes that can be placed in a library."—Wilmington Journal.

"Pure gems in elegant setting."—Salem Press.

"A remarkably rich treasure-house of good things. Open it anywhere and you are sure to meet some wonderfully funny fragment, which comes to you with as much freshness as though you had never seen it before."—Germantown Chronicle.

"We have never seen a book so full of gems of thought."—Memphis Ledger.

THE MOUNTAIN OF THE LOVERS;

WITH

POEMS OF NATURE AND TRADITION.

By PAUL H. HAYNE.

12mo, Gilt Extra, Gilt Edges, $1.50.

"The man is a Poet. * * As a sonneteer, among the very first of living Bards."—New York Independent.

"The charm which springs from flowing ease of musical diction, brilliant fancy and suggestive thought."—Boston Transcript.

"We never have had on this side the water a hand that could as deftly work up the more subtle aspects of nature, which so many of us feel yet have no power to express. * * Beautiful enough, internally and externally, to grace any lady's drawing-room table; strong and manly, and of nerve enough to be within reach of the hand of the professional or business man, among the tools of his trade."—Louisville Ledger.

"Pure and graceful poetry."—N. Y. Home Journal.

"Gentle, tasteful, refined, harmonious."—Springfield Republican.

"An exquisite volume."—Atlanta Commonwealth.

"Will be read with unalloyed pleasure."—Appleton's Journal.

THE

Poems of Henry Timrod.

EDITED, WITH MEMOIR,

By PAUL H. HAYNE.

One volume, 12mo, 225 pages, cloth, gilt extra, $1.50.

"Genuine poetry, that will be recognized and appreciated by all cultivated minds and gentle souls."—Boston Daily Advertiser.

"Deserves to receive a widespread recognition of its beauty, and a popularity which shall be a fitting monument for its author."—Boston Traveller.

"Had he lived at the North he would have been valued, respected and read, as Whitter is valued, respected and read. We cordially commend the volume to all lovers of poetry, pure and simple."—Boston Globe.

"Entitled to a niche in the temple of fame."—N. Y. World.

"Must find praise everywhere for their beauty, delicacy and singular grace of conception and execution."—Appleton's Journal.

"Abundant harvest of rare poetry." "His nature-poems are of exquisite simplicity and delicacy. Those of love are of an elevation, a purity, a charm, that modern poetry rarely reaches." "'The Two Armies' is a superb war poem, and it is mated by half a score of others."—N. Y. Mail.

"Aglow with the genuine fire of poetry."—N. Y. Telegram.

"The genius of Timrod has met with recognition wherever his poems have been seen."—N. Y. Post.

"An exquisite gem."—Southern Home.

"A dainty little volume, beautifully printed, with just enough exterior adornment, and that in such good taste as fitly enshrines the graceful utterances of one of the truest and sweetest singers this country has given to the world.—Charleston Courier.

No. 630 CHESTNUT STREET.

NOTE

PERHAPS there are no American Productions so favorably and generally known throughout the country, as the

HARDING'S

Standard Editions of the Bible,

AND

PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS.

For fifty years the Harding Bibles have enjoyed an uninterrupted and unprecedented sale, and to-day, as ever, they stand unrivaled. Of the Harding Photograph Albums there can be nothing said to increase their already high distinction, and without a doubt, the "Patent Chain-Back" Album excels all other makes.

To prevent the possibility of competition in either Bibles or Albums, our heretofore unequaled facilities have been vastly improved and increased, as instances:—our Paper Mills run at the greatest rate of speed ever attained; our Board production is not surpassed; our Printing machinery is not excelled, and our Bindery is the most complete institution of the kind in any country. In view of the foregoing facts, and with the aid of same, we claim as a consummation—the cheapest, best, and greatest assortment of Family and Pulpit Bibles and Photograph Albums produced.

We ask a careful perusal of the following pages, and that our patrons and the trade generally consult Terms and Discounts for 1877 before ordering elsewhere.

Evangelical, Explanatory, and Critical Notes, References, Reflections, Commentary, Etc., Etc.

BROWN'S SELF-INTERPRETING

FAMILY BIBLE

Contains an introduction, illustrations, a summary of the several Books, an analysis of each chapter, a paraphrase and evangelical reflection upon the most important passages, and numerous explanatory notes, by the

REV. JOHN BROWN,

(Minister of the Gospel at Haddington.)

The text more fully elucidated by several thousand explanatory and critical notes, and introductory observations on each Book, by the Rev. HENRY COOKE, D. D., LL. D.

TOGETHER WITH THE

APOCRYPHA, CONCORDANCE AND PSALMS IN METRE.

The great demand for a Family Bible containing Explanations, Comments, Reflections, References, and Notes, in fact, the positive need of such a work, we think is more than apparent to every member of the Book Trade, and, in offering this Grand Work, the publishers feel confident of meeting and supplying an actual want.

The Brown's Self-Interpreting Bible is indispensable to every General Reader or Student, and from it any and all readers are enabled to attain an intelligent and practical knowledge of the Word of God.

To place the work within the reach of all, it is issued in the following styles:—

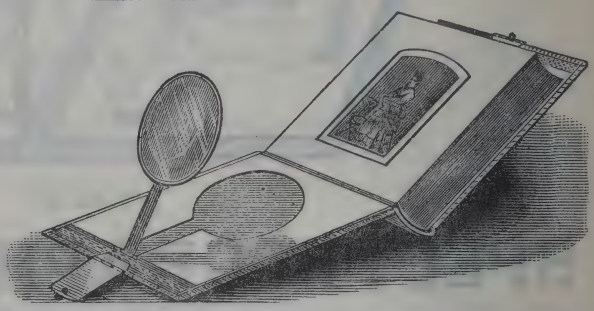
THE STEREOSCOPIC ALBUM.



This is an ALBUM FOR STEREOSCOPIC VIEWS, to which is attached a FIRST-CLASS STEREOSCOPE, made to fold up with the Album. It is a much more convenient arrangement than that afforded by the ordinary stereoscope, as the pictures are always in the right position, and do not have to be moved. When closed, the Stereoscopic Album presents the appearance of a handsome book. The engraving represents the Album open for use. By an ingenious sliding arrangement, the stereoscope can be adjusted to suit the eyes of the person using it.

CHAPTER I.

All religion being founded on our knowledge of God, as the Maker of all things, and of our relation to him, as our sovereign Ruler, we have (1) A general account of the Divine Persons (ELOHIM) creating the heavens and the earth, and (2) An historical narrative of the progressive work of the week—viz. in verses 1 and 2, we have the work of the First Day, the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the production of light; 6–8, on the Second Day, an account of the firmament and its uses; 9–13, on the Third Day, the separation of sea and land, and production of plants; 14–19, on the Fourth Day, the sun, moon, and stars; 20–23, on the Fifth Day, fishes and birds; 24–31, on the Sixth Day, first, beasts, etc., and finally, man in the image of God, with dominion over the creatures.

B.C. 4004.

IN the beginning [a] God created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was [1] without form, and [2] void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep: [3] and the [b] Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 ¶ And God said, [c] Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good:

ment from the waters which were [11] above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament [12] Heaven. [13] And the evening and the morning were the second day. [13]

9 ¶ And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto [e] one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

[e] Job 38. 8. Prov. 8. 29.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; [14] and the gathering together of the waters called he [15] Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth [16] grass, [17] the herb yielding seed, and the fruit-tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree and God divided the [4]light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light Day,[5] and the darkness he called [6]Night. [7]And the [8]evening and the [9]morning were the first day.

6 ¶ And God said, [d]Let there be a firmament[10] in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 ¶ And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, Let there be [f]lights in the firmament of the heaven, to divide [18]the day from the night; and let them be for [19]signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the firma-

[1] Ch. 1, v. 2. Had not yet taken those forms, or arrangements of parts, finally arising from gravitation, or chemical agency. [2] Ch. 1, v. 2. Unfurnished.

[3] Ch. 1, v. 2. Philosophy can explain the observed laws of motion, both on earth and in the heavens; but never can account for its origin. Moses, divinely instructed, ascribes it directly to the Spirit of God. From him originates also every spiritual movement of the soul in returning to God and entering his kingdom. (John 3. 5.)

The heavenly lights, so attractive and glorious in their peculiar arrangements, are signs of the power, wisdom, and goodness of God (Ps. 19. 1); signs of direction by land or sea; signs of the seasons, which are produced by the angle of the earth's axis to the plane of its orbit; signs of days, whereby we count our labor; signs of years, whereby we count our lives. Lord, so teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.

REFLECTIONS UPON CHAP. I.—Stand still, my soul, and consider this wonderful work of God! O how his eternal power and Godhead shine forth in forming so vast, so well-furnished worlds of creatures, rational and irrational, animate and inanimate! What infinite wisdom appears marked in the vast variety, the comely order, and the mutual subserviency of all things to the good of one another, and to his glory! What goodness, in forming such multitudes of beings to partake of his bounty as their all in all! and especially towards man, in forming him after his own image, and in so preparing this lower world to be a commodious lodging for him in his way to the mansions of light! Let me, then, in all things, in heaven, in earth, in air, in sea, and in land; in grass, in herbs, in trees, in sun, in moon, in stars, in fishes, in fowls, in cattle, and creeping things; in angels, and in man, behold the excellencies of my God! Let me enjoy God himself in all things, and all things in God! Let me use them all as his property, his product, and for his glory and honor! And notwithstanding my nothingness, confusion, darkness, and deadness, let me hope that my all-creating God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, will fashion me, as an abridged world, into a monument of redeeming mercy, to the praise of the glory of his grace! Am I a Christian philosopher? Let me, as I have access, contemplate the creatures of God, in their almost infinitely diversified natures, qualities, and uses! Light and celestial luminaries, in their mysterious nature, extensive range, prodigious but duly proportioned distance, rapid motions, and powerful influences—Air, fixed and unfixed, inflammable and uninflammable, in its fluidity, weight, elasticity, and usefulness for forming of wind, promoting of animal life, transmission of light, and the like—Water, in its fluidity, plenteousness, dispersion, saltness or freshness, penetration, and fitness for forming rains, dews, sea-productions; and for promoting trade and intercourse between nations—Earths, stones, metals, moulds, in their adhesion, ductility, forms, colors, and uses—Vegetables, in their structure, growth, curious parts, almost infinitely

PSALM I.

1 The happiness of the godly. 4 The unhappiness of the ungodly.

BLESSED [a]is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ‖ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, [b]nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

2 But [c]his delight is in the law of the LORD; [d]and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree [e]planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not †wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall [f]prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so: but are [g]like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For [i]the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Harper's Half-Hour Series comprises an attractive selection of short stories, brief classics, episodes of history, essays pertinent to the time, which busy men might like to catch up at odd moments for information or pastime.—Home Journal, N. Y.

The handy size of these little volumes, the beautiful style in which they are printed, and the merely nominal price at which they are offered, can not help making the Half-Hours a success.—Boston Transcript.

This "half-hour" book can be put into any pocket and read in almost any place. For example, on the way home from your city office, in street cars and on the railway or steamboats. And while it will go into any pocket, it takes very little out of it.—Methodist, N. Y.

Not long before the fall of the first Napoleon he ordered published a library of small volumes of choice literature to be packed away in his travelling carriage, so that he might always have something at hand with which to amuse himself on his journeys. The Harpers now place within the reach of the smallest purses a library which a Napoleon might be glad to have. —N. Y. Evening Mail.

The attractions of each little book must be sought for within the covers; and the reader, who, on examining the Quaker-like outside, may possibly have been led to the conclusion that the contents must be something of the nature of a religious tract, is agreeably disappointed to find that, apparently, there is no range of subjects which these miniature volumes have not the hardihood to embrace. * * * This dainty phalanx of liliputian volumes, as it adds one recruit after another to its slender file, will undoubtedly be the means of rescuing many a delightful bit of writing from the oblivion into which short essays and articles are too likely to fall.—N. Y. Times.

BEFORE CHRIST cir. 1520.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

God calleth upon Job to answer; 4 and by his mighty works convinceth him of ignorance, 31 and of weakness. [B. C. 1520.]

THEN the LORD answered Job [a] out of the whirlwind, and said,

2 [b] Who is this that darkeneth counsel by [c] words without knowledge?

3 [d] Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and [1] answer thou me.

4 [e] Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, [2] if thou hast understanding.

5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon are the [3] foundations thereof [4] fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof;

7 When the morning stars sang together, and all [f] the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 [g] Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?

bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?

21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days is great?

22 Hast thou entered into [q] the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail,

23 [r] Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?

24 By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?

25 Who [s] hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, or a way for the lightning of thunder;

26 To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man;

27 [t] To satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

28 [u] Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY,

DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, SCIENCE, ART, AND POLITICS.

ESTABLISHED IN 1857. — PUBLISHED MONTHLY.

The corps of writers includes the foremost names in American Literature, LONGFELLOW, LOWELL, WHITTIER, HOLMES, HOWELLS, ALDRICH, JAMES, WARNER, BAYARD TAYLOR, MARK TWAIN, MRS. KEMBLE, MISS PRESTON, MISS PHELPS, MRS. THAXTER, and others.

The four departments of LITERATURE, MUSIC, ART, and EDUCATION are filled monthly by vigorous editorial articles and reviews.

THE LEADING CONTRIBUTORS OF THE ATLANTIC WRITE FOR NO OTHER MAGAZINE, and the Managers propose to keep it where it has always stood, at the head of American Literature.

TERMS. — Single or specimen numbers, 35 cents. Yearly subscription, $4.00, in advance; with life-size portrait of Bryant or Longfellow, $5.00; with both portraits, $6.00.

THE AMERICAN NATURALIST;

A POPULAR ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF NATURAL HISTORY AND TRAVEL.

ESTABLISHED IN 1867.

THIS journal of popular Natural Science is under the editorial management of Dr. A. S. PACKARD, Jr., with the assistance of eminent men of science.

While of a popular nature so as to interest the general reader as well as the young naturalist, it is a journal of science-education and for the use of science-teachers.

THE NATURALIST contains departments of GEOGRAPHY AND TRAVEL, and MICROSCOPY. Arrangements have been made to report the PROCEEDINGS OF SCIENTIFIC SOCIETIES with great promptness. A digest of the CONTENTS OF FOREIGN SCIENTIFIC JOURNALS AND TRANSACTIONS is also given each month, together with the LATEST HOME AND FOREIGN SCIENTIFIC NEWS.

TERMS: — Single numbers, 35 cents. Yearly subscription, $4.00, in advance; with admirable portrait of Agassiz, $5.00. Bound volumes, $5.00; vols. I.–X., $40.00; unbound, $30.00. Back numbers supplied.

THE UNITED STATES OFFICIAL POSTAL GUIDE.

ESTABLISHED IN 1874.

Revised and Published Quarterly by Authority of the Post Office Department.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 29, 1874.

The United States Official Postal Guide, published by Messrs. H. O. Houghton & Co., is compiled and published under a contract made with them by the Postmaster General, in pursuance of an Act of Congress approved June 23, 1874, and is the only publication of the kind so authorized. MARSHALL JEWELL, Postmaster General.

Each number contains an Alphabetical List of Post Offices in the United States, with County, State, and Salary; Money-Order Offices, Domestic and International; Letter-Carrier Offices; Chief Regulations of the Post Office Dapartment; Instructions to the Public; Foreign and Domestic Postage Tables, and other valuable information.

TERMS. — Single numbers, 50 cents. Yearly subscription, $1.50, in advance.

THE AMERICAN LAW TIMES AND REPORTS.

ESTABLISHED IN 1868. — PUBLISHED MONTHLY

THE object of the LAW TIMES AND REPORTS is to place within the reach of every lawyer the Leading Cases upon all questions of a novel character contained in the whole series of current American Reports, in advance of the regular publication. Each monthly part consists of sixty-four large royal octavo pages, divided in two portions, paged independently. The TIMES portion, of sixteen pages, contains RESCRIPTS OF ALL OPINIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES, and a DIGEST OF ALL CASES of value reported in contemporary American legal periodicals, during the preceding month, so arranged that it may be examined with the greatest facility. Also, IMPORTANT UNITED STATES STATUTES, CASES, etc.

The REPORTS occupy the remaining forty-eight pages of each number. These are made up of cases from the United States Supreme and Circuit Courts and courts of last resort of the States, published in advance of the regular series. They are TEST CASES, which decide points that are universally applicable, and they are printed as soon as possible after the decisions are delivered. Frequently more than an entire year is gained in this way.

TERMS. — Single numbers, 50 cents. Yearly subscription, $6.00, in advance. The bound volumes for 1868–1876, being volumes I.–VI., and Vols. I.–III., New Series, will be furnished in law sheep at $6.00 per volume.

THE BOSTON MEDICAL AND SURGICAL JOURNAL.

ESTABLISHED 1828. — PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

The JOURNAL is with one exception the oldest existing Medical Journal, and is thoroughly independent of any local or professional interest. Special attention is paid to the Transactions of Societies, and the reports of Hospital Practice. Reviews of all the new medical books appear promptly. Regular correspondents are employed in various cities in this country and in Europe, and original articles or communications from all quarters are cordially welcomed.

TERMS. — Single numbers, 15 cents. Yearly subscription, $5.00, in advance.

☞ POSTAGE on all the above periodicals is paid by the Publishers. Remittances by mail should be by draft, money-order, or registered letter, to H. O. HOUGHTON AND COMPANY, Riverside Press, Cambridge, Mass.

Published by H. O. HOUGHTON AND COMPANY, corner Beacon and Somerset Sts., Boston,

RIVERSIDE PRESS EDITIONS

OF

SCOTT'S WAVERLEY NOVELS,
THE WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,
THE WORKS OF THOMAS DE QUINCEY.

THE new editions of the above-named works, commenced last fall and since issued in monthly volumes, are designed to meet the wants of all who want the writings of these standard authors in handsome library dress, at a moderate price.

THE WAVERLEY NOVELS. By SIR WALTER SCOTT. Riverside Edition. In twenty-five volumes, with numerous steel engravings after designs by Birket Foster, Darley, Billings, Landseer, Harvey and Faed. 12mo. Price per volume, $1.50.

This edition contains all the latest notes and corrections of the author, an ample glossary, a complete index of all the personages and incidents of the various tales, and some curious additions, especially in Guy Mannering and the Bride of Lammermoor. The notes are at the foot of the page — a great convenience to the reader.

THE WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS. Illustrated Library Edition, in twenty-nine volumes, with biographical and critical Introductions by EDWIN P. WHIPPLE. Over 550 Illustrations on steel by the best English and American artists. 12mo. Price per volume, $2.00.

In addition to Mr. Whipple's admirable Introductions, which give it a peculiar value, this edition contains all the illustrations which have enriched the "Riverside" and "Illustrated Household" editions of Dickens, and some of Dickens's later short stories.

THE WORKS OF THOMAS DE QUINCEY. Riverside Edition. In twelve volumes, crown 8vo, with steel portrait of De Quincey. Price per volume, $1.75.

The Riverside Edition is the only authorized American edition of De Quincey's Works, having been prepared originally with the author's express approval, and being now revised and enlarged so as to include the new material contained in the latest Edinburgh edition which was edited and revised by the author. At the same time the arrangement of the several productions is made more systematic and orderly than was possible during the author's life-time, when the collection was made at different intervals, and under many difficulties. In the final volume an introduction to the series sets forth the plan carried out in this new arrangement, and the same volume also contains a very full index to the entire series, making it the best edition of De Quincey's works ever issued.

TWO STANDARD DICTIONARIES.

DR. WILLIAM SMITH'S DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE.

Comprising its ANTIQUITIES, BIOGRAPHY, GEOGRAPHY, and NATURAL HISTORY.

The only Unabridged, Enlarged, and Corrected Edition is that edited by Prof. HORATIO B HACKETT and EZRA ABBOT, LL. D.

In four volumes, 8vo, 3667 pages. 576 illustrations. Cloth, $26.00; sheep, $30.00; half calf, $36.00; full calf, $45.00.

The grounds of its superiority to the English edition of the same work are these: —

500 more pages and 100 more engravings in the American edition than in the original English.
26 American scholars represented.
More than 1,000 errors of reference corrected.
An Index of Scripture Illustrations, 56 columns, in the American edition only.

"In short, it seems that we have to thank America for the most complete work of the kind in the English, or, indeed, in any other language." — London Bookseller.

 For sale by all Booksellers, and by the Publishers.

KNIGHT'S AMERICAN MECHANICAL DICTIONARY.

A DESCRIPTIVE WORD-BOOK OF TOOLS, INSTRUMENTS, MACHINES, CHEMICAL AND MECHANICAL PROCESSES; CIVIL, MECHANICAL, RAILWAY, HYDRAULIC, AND MILITARY ENGINEERING.

A HISTORY OF INVENTIONS.

GENERAL TECHNOLOGICAL VOCABULARY; AND DIGEST OF MECHANICAL APPLIANCES IN SCIENCE AND THE INDUSTRIAL AND FINE ARTS.

BY EDWARD H. KNIGHT, A. M.,

CIVIL AND MECHANICAL ENGINEER.

This book is intended to be in practical mechanism not only what a lexicon is in a language, — a compendium of names, definitions, descriptions, and uses, — but, in addition, a history of the development of the industrial arts, machines, and tools. It is designed to enable any person knowing the name of an instrument or machine to find information promptly; and is, in scope and method, the first attempt of the kind in this or any other language.

Its scope concerns Agricultural Machinery, Wood, Metal, Glass, Stone, Clay, Cement, and Leather Working; Mining, Hydraulic, Railway, Marine, and Military Engineering; Working in Cotton, Wool, Silk, Flax, Hemp, and Paper; Steam, Air, and Gas Engines, and other Motors; Lighting, Heating, Drying, and Ventilating; Fine Arts; Photographic, Electric, Telegraphic, Optical, Horological, Calculating, Surgical, and Dental Instruments, etc.

The work treats of 20,000 subjects, and is illustrated with 6,000 carefully prepared engravings. It would indeed be correct to say that the illustrations will be fully 15,000 in number, inasmuch as a variety of distinct forms of a machine or tool (sometimes as many as forty) are frequently associated in a single cut, and might, had the object been to spread them out and make a show, have been enumerated as separate figures.

The value of this work, even if there were in print others of a similar nature, would be very great on account of its scope, its great number of illustrations, and the trustworthiness of its author; but at present its value is enhanced by the fact that it has, properly speaking, no competitor. There is published no book of similar intent which is at once so large, so well illustrated, so closely brought down to the present time, and so full of illustrations. It will be as much in place in public and private libraries as will the lexicon and cyclopædia. Dentists, surgeons, philosophers, chemists, engineers, mechanics, and scientific men and students of every grade, will find here described and illustrated more of the instruments and machines peculiar to their professions than can be found in well-furnished stores and manufactories; and they will also find a constant supplementary course of instruction so arranged as to be available for instant reference.

The work has been in active preparation for the past eight years, and is now completed. It makes three handsome octavo volumes, and will be found an invaluable book of reference in the family, the counting-room, and the workshop. No better educational work could be placed before children, adapted as it is to awaken a latent taste which may have an important bearing on their life career. Sold only by subscription.

PUBLICATIONS OF

JANSEN, MCCLURG & CO.,

117 AND 119 STATE STREET, CHICAGO.

JULY, 1877.

BRIEF HONORS; A Romance of the Great Dividable. 12mo., 218 pages. Price $1.00.

"Rare are the men who have never listened to the romance of life insurance as recited by the silver-tongued agent or solicitor. To find life insurance the motive of a written romance, however, is rather startling, and all the more so when the story proves to be readable. The author, who prudently withholds his name from the avengers who must already be frantic to get upon his track, evidently knows New York and its people very thoroughly, and although his style gives no clue to his identity, he is evidently a man of keen observation and ready pen. The book is a sketch rather than a novel, and it contains hardly a superfluous word, so rapid is its action. The motive is the opportunities for fraud which life insurance companies offer to their managers, and the characters are those who will be recognized by every New Yorker as just the men who are naturally suspected of availing themselves of these opportunities. * * * The story is one which will be read with interest by business men to whom books are generally bores, while the habitual novel reader will find its only fault to be in its shortness."—Christian Union (New York).

BROSS.—History of Chicago. Historical and Commercial Statistics; also, What I Remember of Early Chicago; by WILLIAM BROSS, Ex-Lieut.-Governor of Illinois. 8vo., 126 pages. Paper, price 50 cents; cloth, price 75 cents.

"Though written in a plain, business-like style, it is a wonderful book, because it deals with a wonderful history. * * * The author's clear, forcible style, and his habits of observation, quickened by long training in his profession, qualified him for the production of this very interesting volume."—The Interior.

CATON.—A Summer in Norway, with Notes on the Industries, Habits, etc., of the People, the History of the Country, the Climate and Productions, and of the Red Deer, Reindeer, and Elk, by Hon. J. D. CATON, LL.D. 8vo., 401 pages. Illustrated. Price $2.50.

"The tone of the book is frank, almost colloquial, always communicative, and leaves a favorable impression both of the intelligence and good nature with which the author pursued his way through unknown wilds. * * They are excellent specimens of terse and graphic composition, presenting a distinct image to the mind, without any superfluous details."—New York Tribune.

"He is, as far as we know, the first foreign traveler who has given anything like a correct statement of the nature of the union between Norway and Sweden.—The Nation.

CHARD.—Across the Sea, and Other Poems. By THOS. S. CHARD. Square 16mo., 55 pages, tinted paper. Price $1.00.

CORBIN.—Rebecca; or, A Woman's Secret. By MRS. CAROLINE F. CORBIN. 12mo. Ready in September.

Of this book seven thousand copies were sold before the plates were destroyed in the Chicago fire. The new edition will be looked forward to with interest.

CRAWFORD.—A Few Thoughts for a Few Friends. By MRS. ALICE ARNOLD CRAWFORD. Square 12mo., gilt, tinted paper, 162 pages. Price $2.00

FOYE.—Tables for the Determination and Classification of Minerals found in the United States. By JAMES C. FOYE, A. M., Professor of Chemistry and Physics, Lawrence University, Appleton, Wisconsin. Flexible covers, 88 pages. Price 75 cents.

"Following Dana, our chief American authority, and gathering aid from various distinguished European writers, this brief manual aims to furnish the student with such help as is needed in order to determine and classify the minerals of the United States. Some useful hints as to apparatus, and suitable notes upon other matters, precede the tables."—Journal of Education.

GILES.—Out from the Shadows. A Novel; by Miss ELLA A. GILES. 12mo, 317 pages. Price $1.50.

"Miss Giles' first work has had a very large sale, and has attracted the attention of readers and critics throughout the country. Her second book gives evidence of the ripening powers of the authoress, and shows the improvement which she has made as a writer, and a mastery of style and effect which are really uncommon."—Milwaukee News.

GILES.—Bachelor Ben. A Novel; by Miss ELLA A. GILES. 12mo., 317 pages. Price, $1.50.

"A masterpiece of free and natural handling of human life, and marks a new departure in fiction, in that the hero never marries, and the author has attempted to group the sympathies of readers about an unconventional man.'—Home Journal (NEW YORK).

HABBERTON.—The Jericho Road; a Story of Western Life; By JOHN HABBERTON, Author of "Helen's Babies," "The Barton Experiment," etc. 12mo. 222 pages. Price $1.00.

"One of the strongest, most effective, and most affecting tales—a satire on the good Samaritanism of the world we have ever read. It teaches us ill-doing is too frequently the companion of holy talk; that well-doing is better than all the preaching the world can give. No one will deny the story's strength or force, or the eminent ability of the writer."—Boston Traveller.

"The scenes are all located in the west, and to the description of abundant, unconventional, picturesque life, Mr. Habberton brings a pen flowing with humor, and pathos, and shrewd common sense; a pen that delights to puncture hypocrisy and satirize folly, and to commend and glorify charity. * * * * In many respects it is to be rated the best of Mr. Habberton's books."—Albany Evening Journal.

"It cuts like a razor, for the Americans are good at satire, and now and then produce a story of powerful interest. For both these reasons it will be read in England with the same avidity it has met with in the United States of America, and elsewhere. Indeed it is one of those books it is impossible to lay down till the reader has come to the end."—British Mail, London.

HALL.—Poems of the Farm and Fireside; by EUGENE J. HALL. 8 vo., 114 pages. Fully Illustrated. Plain, price, $1.75; full gilt, price, $2.25.

"In vigor and pathos they are certainly equal—we should say superior.—to Carleton's Farm Ballads; in humor scarcely inferior to the Biglow Papers."—Interior.

HAYES.—Electro-Thermal Bath. Therapeutic Use of Faradaic and Galvanic Currents in the Electro-Thermal Bath, with History of Cases; By JUSTIN HAYES, M. D. 12mo. 112 pages. Price $1.25.

"Dr. Hayes sets forth in this little book the advantages of his system. He describes the modus operandi of his cure, and cites many instances in which it has proved successful. * * * Some of the doctor's cures appear to be quite wonderful, and sufferers from disease and over-medication, would do well to study the book."—Inter-Ocean.

HEWITT.—"Our Bible." Three Lectures, delivered at Unity Church, Oak Park, Ill.; by Rev. J. O. M. HEWITT. 12mo. 109 pages. Price, $1.25.

JORDAN.—Manual of Vertebrates. A Manual of the Vertebrates of the Northern United States, including the District east of the Mississippi River and north of North Carolina and Tennessee, exclusively of Marine Species; by DAVID STARR JORDAN, M.S.M.D., Professor of Natural History in Butler University, and in Indiana State Medical College. 1 Volume, 12mo. 342 pages. Price $2.00.

"The purpose of this work is to reduce the labor of classifying and ascertaining the names of species. It fills a place long left unsupplied, and is indispensable to the student. The descriptions are brief, but comprehensive and lucid. It describes 817 species, representing 116 families; and to obtain descriptions of all these, it would be necessary, without this little volume, to possess quite a library, costing many times what is asked for this one book."—Scientific Monthly.

"Dr. Jordan has done himself great credit in the preparation of this volume, and his publishers have done no less. I can and shall heartily recommend the work as the best of its kind I know. The book must come at once into general use, and prove of great service in spreading a knowledge of Natural History and inviting to its study."—Dr. Elliott Coues.

"We know of no similar work which contains so much information on the subject, abreast of the times, systematically and conveniently arranged, and produced at a small price. The book meets a general want."—New York Independent.

LAMARTINE.—Graziella; A Story of Italian Love. Translated from the French of A. DE LAMARTINE; by JAMES B. RUNNION. Small 4to, 235 pages, red line, tinted paper, full gilt, uniform with holiday edition of "Memories" and "Marie." Price $1.50.

"'Graziella' is a poem in prose. The subject and the treatment are both eminently poetic. * * * It glows with love of the beautiful in all nature. * * * It is pure literature, a perfect story, couched in perfect words. The sentences have the rhythm and flow, the sweetness and tender fancy of the original. It is uniform with 'Memories,' the fifth edition of which has just been published, and it should stand side by side with that on the shelves of every lover of pure, strong thoughts put in pure, strong words. 'Graziella' is a book to be loved."—Tribune.

MASON.—Mae Madden; A Story; by Mrs. MARY MURDOCH MASON, with an introductory poem by JOAQUIN MILLER. 16mo., red edges. Price $1.25.

"We have read this little book with great pleasure. * * * It frequently reminds us of Mr. Howell's delicately constructed stories, and in it, as in a mirror, we see reflected that true refinement and culture of the author's mind."—New Haven Palladium.

MASON AND LALOR.—The Primer of Political Economy. In Sixteen Definitions and Forty Propositions, by A. B. MASON and J. J. LALOR. 12mo, 67 pages. Price, 75 cents.

"For a short and comprehensive treatise, we know of nothing better than 'The Primer of Political Economy.' The information is conveyed in a very concise and happy manner. The style is perfectly transparent, and the illustrations admirably chosen. We venture to believe that not a quarter of the men in the Lower House of Congress know as much about Political Economy as can be learned from this compact and interesting little treatise."—Christian Register.

McLANDBURGH.—The Automaton Ear and other Sketches. By Miss FLORENCE MCLANDBURGH. 12mo., 282 pages. Price, $1.00.

"The best idea we can give of the author's style and type of mind is to say that the work holds middle ground between the prose writings of Poe and those of Hawthorne. There is something of the vein and of the vivid powers of Poe, without his wildness and savagery."—Interior.

MILLER.—First Fam'lies of the Sierras. A Novel; by JOAQUIN MILLER. 12 mo., 258 pages. Price, $1.50.

"Mr. Miller has a poet's perception, a novelist's descriptive skill, and a wit's love of humor. Some of the qualities of all these may be found in this book. The life of the early California miners has never to our thinking been more effectually and accurately portrayed than here."—New York Independent.

MÜLLER.—Memories; A Story of German Love. Translated from the German of MAX MULLER, by GEO. P. UPTON. Small, 4 to., 173 pages, red line, tinted paper, full gilt, uniform with "Graziella" and "Marie." Price, $1.50. The same, 16mo, red edges. Price, $1.00.

"'Memories' is one of the prettiest and worthiest books of the year. The story is full of that indescribable half-naturalness, that effortless vraisemblance, which is so commonly a charm of German writers, and so seldom paralleled in English. * * * Scarcely could there be drawn a more lovely figure than that of the invalid Princess, though it is so nearly pure spirit that earthly touch seems almost to profane her."—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

POWERS.—Poems, Early and Late. By HORATIO NELSON POWERS, author of "Through the Year." 136 pages. Price, $1.00.

"'Poems, Early and Late,' by H. N. Powers, will be read with quiet delight by all who have personal acquaintance with this real poet, and most genial doctor of divinity, and by a large number of others besides."—The Advance.

PUSHKIN.—Marie; A Story of Russian Love. From the Russian of Alexander Pushkin, by Marie H. de Zielinska. Full gilt, red line, 210 pages, uniform with "Memories" and "Graziella." Price, $1.50.

"Pushkin, the most eminent of Russian poets and novelists, is a writer little known in translations. He is delightfully introduced to the American public by his tale of "Marie." This novel is of garrison life on the Russian Plains. The whole spirit and atmosphere of the story is fresh and bracing, and we promise the readers of the book a new treat, and one which the German, or even the Norse translations, so multiplied of late years, could not give them."—New York Independent.

"An unadorned record, told in the most charming way, of the adventures of a young Russian officer, who sees service against some rebels, and whose bethrothal to the heroine forms the romantic part of the story. There is plenty of incident, and the narration is so direct and simple, that the reader becomes at once conscious of a master's hand."—The Nation.

"Marie turns out a beautiful creation, full of spirit, sensibility, and intelligence. The story is delightful, and will be welcomed by novel-readers of all grades. It may almost be called a poem in prose."—N. Y. Evening Mail.

SIX LITTLE COOKS; or, Aunt Jane's Cooking Class. 12mo, With illustration. 236 Pages. Price $1.00.

"We have had cook-books and cook-books, but decidedly the most unique of the lot is 'Six Little Cooks, or Aunt Jane's Cooking Class.' The idea is to show the importance of cooking well, and that it need not be the bugbear to young girls that it is commonly thought to be—and indeed is; but, on the contrary, can be easily and pleasantly learned by any one who will take the trouble to try. * * * Aunt Jane has done a good thing in writing out this lively cooking story, and we advise all of our little girls to get the book, and then straightway to imitate Grace and Amy and Mabel and the rest."—The Advance.

"'Six Little Cooks' is a book that will unquestionably delight all the little people into whose hands it may fall. No little girl will be able to resist its fascinations in a literary point of view, and if mother or Aunt Jane be not in sympathy, the the rules and recipes are so plainly laid down that the work may go on all the same."—Chicago Times.

"We have not seen in the whole range of our juvenile literature a more useful and attractive volume for girls than this. It has the charm of a life-like story, and the practical value of a clever essay on the culinary art."—Tribune.

STRAUB.—Crown of Glory. A choice collection of new Songs for the Sunday School and Meetings of Praise, Prayer and Conference; also, A Responsive Service for each month in the year; by S. W. STRAUB. Single copy, 35 cents; $3.60 per dozen.

STRAUB.—Good Cheer. For Singing Classes, Conventions, Day Schools, etc. By S. W. STRAUB. Single copy 60 cents; $6.00 per dozen.

STRAUB.—Convention and Choir; By S. W. STRAUB. Single copy, $1.00; $10.00 per dozen. Ready July first.

This new collection of Music is designed to meet the increasing demand of choirs, conventions, singing classes, and the singing public generally, for more good music. In addition to the contributions of many of our best American composers, many gems from the great English and German writers have been inserted. Specimen pages free. Procure a specimen copy, and you will adopt it.

SWING.—Truths for To-Day. First Series. By PROFESSOR DAVID SWING. 12mo, 325 pages, tinted paper. Price $1.50.

"The preacher makes no display of his rich resources, but you are convinced that you are listening to a man of earnest thought, of rare culture, and of genuine humanity. His forte is evidently not that of doctrinal discussion. He deals in no nice distinctions of creed. He has no taste for hair-splitting subtleties, but presents a broad and generous view of human duty, appealing to the highest instincts and the purest motives of a lofty manhood."—New York Tribune.

SWING.—Truths for To-Day. Second Series. By PROFESSOR DAVID SWING. 12mo, 294 pages, tinted paper. Price $1.50.

This Volume contains the latest discourses of Prof. Swing, some of them preached at the Fourth Church, but most of them spoken at the theatre to the New Central Church. It is universally conceded that these are the finest efforts he has ever made, and the general demand for their preservation in more permanent form than the newspaper reports has led to their issue in this volume. They are selected, revised and arranged for publication by Prof. Swing himself.

SWING.—Trial of Professor Swing. The Official Report of this important trial, 8vo, 286 pages. Price $1.75.

TALES FROM FOREIGN TONGUES—Comprising "Memories" (Max Müller), "Graziella" (Lamartine), and "Marie" (Pushkin). Put up in box. Price per set $4.50. Either volume sold separately. Price $1.50 each.

The series of three volumes form, perhaps, the choicest addition to the literature of the English language that has been made in recent years.

Of "Memories" the Chicago Journal says: "It is dramatically constructed, unflagging in interest, abounding in grace, beauty and pathos, and filled with the tenderest feelings of sympathy, which go straight to the heart of every lover of the ideal in the world of humanity."

Of "Graziella" the Boston Post says: "It is full of beautiful sentiment, unique and graceful in style, of course, as were all the writings that left the hands of this distinguished French author. Its character makes it worthy to be embalmed in its beautifully-wreathed casket."

Of "Marie" the Cincinnati Gazette says: "It is one of the purest, sweetest little narratives that we have read for a long time. It is a little classic, and a Russian classic, too. That is one of its charms, that it is so distinctly Russian. We catch the very breezes of the Steppes, and meet, face to face, the high-souled, simple-minded Russian."

IT WILL PAY.

A WORD TO FATHERS AND EMPLOYERS.

It will Pay to supply yourself, your sons, and your workmen with good books and papers. $10 to $20, or more, expended in this way, will come back every year. Your sons and your workmen will be kept from idleness and mischievous company; they will understand and respect their work more; they will gain new ideas and learn to think and reason better; they will learn to make their heads help their hands; they will labor more intelligently and be happier, because their minds will be developed and they will have something to think about while at work.

Better sell an acre of land, if you have property in land, than not to have these mind-cultivators. Any intelligent man will make more from nine acres than the unintelligent one will from ten acres. Think of this in planning and providing for your sons in the future. Store their growing minds with useful ideas. See to it that interesting and instructive books are always at hand in your home. They will prove of great value to everybody in the household.

It will pay every man, young or old, to provide himself with good books, even if economy has to be practiced in other directions to enable him to do this.

VEGETABLE GARDENING.

Henderson's Gardening for Profit. $1.50

A now well known and standard work on Market and Family Gardening. It is finely illustrated, and is the first book of the kind prepared by a Market Gardener, in this country. The author's successful experience of more than twenty-five years, enables him to give a most valuable record. It is an original and purely American work, and not made up, as books on gardening too often are, by quotations from foreign authors. Everything is made perfectly plain, and the subject treated in all its details, from the selection of the soil to preparing the products for market. By PETER HENDERSON. Cloth, 12mo.

Henderson's Gardening for Pleasure. $1.50

This work is prepared to meet the wants of the amateur in in-door and out-door gardening. It is one of the best guides to Window Gardening we know of. The work includes fruit, vegetable, and flower-gardening, greenhouses and graperies, window gardening, and Wardian cases. By PETER HENDERSON, author of "Gardening for Profit" and "Practical Floriculture." Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

Roe's Play and Profit in my Garden. $1.50

The author takes us to his garden on the rocky hillsides in the vicinity of West Point, and shows us how, out of it, after four years' experience, he evoked a profit of $1,000, and this while carrying on pastoral and literary labors.... It is very rare that so much literary taste and skill are mated to so much agricultural experience and good sense. Cloth, 12mo.

Quinn's Money in the Garden..... $1.50

A Vegetable Manual prepared with a view to Economy and Profit. In this work the author aims to give, in a plain, practical style, instructions on three distinct, although closely connected branches of gardening—the kitchen garden, market garden, and field culture; the only and sufficient credentials for the fitness of his undertaking being a successful practical experience for a term of years. By P. T. QUINN, Practical Horticulturist. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

Gardening for the South..... $2.00

How to Grow Vegetables and Fruits. Though entitled "Gardening for the South," the work is one the utility of which is not restricted to the South. It is an admirable treatise on gardening in general, and will rank among the most useful horticultural works of the present day. To those living in the warmer portions of the Union, the work will be especially valuable, as it gives the varieties of vegetables and fruits adapted to the climate, and the modes of culture which it is necessary to follow. By the late WILLIAM N. WHITE, of Athens, Ga., with additions by Mr. J. VAN BUREN and Dr. JAMES CAMAK. Illustrated. Revised and newly stereotyped. Cloth, 12mo.

Schenck's Gardener's Text Book..... 75

Directions for the Forming and Management of the Kitchen Garden, the Culture and Use of Vegetables, Fruits, and Medicinal Herbs. Cloth, 18mo.

Brill's Farm Gardening and Seed Growing..... $1.00

Seed-Growing is an increasing business in this country, and American-grown seeds are rapidly taking the preference. Heretofore we have had no work that gave directions for growing and saving the seed and preparing it for market. To the farmer who wishes to grow his own seed, this book will be found a profitable investment. A Book useful for every farmer, gardener, and tiller of the soil. By FRANCIS BRILL. Cloth, 12mo.

Onions: How to Raise them Profitably. 20

Being the Practical Details, from Selection of Seed and Preparation of Ground to Harvesting and Marketing the Crop, given very plainly by Seventeen Practical Onion Growers of long experience, residing in different parts of the country. No more valuable work of its size was ever issued. Paper Cover, 8vo.

Compton's Cultivation of the Potato. 25

$100 Prize Essay. Prize offered by W. T. Wylie, and awarded to D. H. Compton, with an article, How to Cook the Potato, by Prof. Blot. Illustrated. Paper Cover, 8vo.

Gregory on Squashes..... 30

This little Treatise, which no Farmer or Gardener ought to be without, tells all about selecting the soil for Squashes; how much manure is necessary; how to prepare and plant; about hoeing and cultivating; setting of the fruit; ripening, gathering, storing, care during winter, etc. By JAMES J. H. GREGORY. Paper Cover, 12mo.

Buist's Family Kitchen-Gardener. $1.00

An excellent Practical work, though an old one, containing Plain and Accurate Descriptions of all the Different Species and Varieties of Culinary Vegetables, with their Botanical English, French, and German names, alphabetically arranged; with full directions for the Best Mode of Cultivating them in the Garden or under Glass. By ROBERT BUIST. Cloth, 12mo.

Cobbett's American Gardener..... 75

A Treatise on the Laying Out and Management of Gardens. Though an old work, it is one which will find a place in every considerable library, as the production of a remarkable man. While it is marked by the author's peculiarities, it is so full of plain common sense, that it is worthy of being kept in print. By WILLIAM COBBETT. Cloth, 12mo.

Jacques' Manual of the Garden, Farm, and Barn Yard..... $1.75

Embracing the Cultivation of Vegetables, Fruit, Flowers, all Field Crops, Details of Farm Work and Rearing Domestic Animals. New and Revised Edition. Cloth, 12mo.

CATTLE, SHEEP, HORSES, AND SWINE.

CATTLE.

Allen's American Cattle.....$2.50

Their History, Breeding, and Management. This book will be considered indispensable by every breeder of live-stock. The large experience of the author in improving the character of American herds adds to the weight of his observations, and has enabled him to produce a work which will at once make good its claims as a standard authority on the subject. An excellent feature of the volume is its orderly, methodical arrangement, condensing a great variety of information into a comparatively small compass, and enabling the reader to find the point on which he is seeking light, without wasting his time in turning over the leaves. By LEWIS F. ALLEN. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

Dadd's American Cattle Doctor.....$2.50

A Complete Work on all the Diseases of Cattle, Sheep, and Swine, including every Disease peculiar to America, and embracing all the latest Information on the Cattle Plague and Trichina; containing also a Guide to Symptoms, a Table of Weights and Measures, and a List of Valuable Medicines. By GEO. H. DADD, V. S., Twenty-five years a Leading Veterinary Surgeon in England and the United States, and author of the 'American Reformed Horse Book.' Octavo. Illustrated.

Dadd's American Cattle Doctor....$1.50

DADD, M.D., Veterinary Practitioner; giving the necessary information for preserving the Health and Curing the Diseases of Oxen, Cows, Sheep, and Swine, with a great variety of original Recipes, and valuable information on Farm and Dairy Management. Cloth, 12mo.

Youatt and Martin on Cattle.....$1.50

Being a Treatise on their Breeds, Management, Diseases; a full history of the various races; their origin, breeding, and merits; their capacity for Beef and Milk. By W. YOUATT and W. C. L. MARTIN. Edited by AMBROSE STEVENS. Cloth, 12mo.

Guenon's Treatise on Milch Cows....75

An interesting work, giving new and peculiar directions, and many illustrative engravings, for determining by natural marks or external signs, the quality and quantity of milk a cow will give, length of time she will continue in milk, etc., with introductory remarks of forty pages on the Cow and Dairy. Cloth, 8vo.

Quincy on the Soiling of Cattle....$1.25

Illustrated from Experience, and an Address containing Suggestions believed to be useful to all farmers. By a mistaken notion, that a considerable extent of land is requisite to enable a farmer to keep many head of cattle, a most wasteful proportion of it is sometimes retained for the sole purpose of pasturage; and thus, compared with its inherent productive power, made useless. This little book cannot fail to be read with interest by many a farmer. By JOSIAH QUINCY, with a Memoir of the author, by EDWARD QUINCY. Cloth, 12mo.

SHEEP.

Stewart's Shepherd's Manual.....$1.50

A Practical Treatise on the Sheep, designed especially for American shepherds and farmers. It is intended to be so plain that a farmer, or a farmer's son, who has never kept a sheep, may learn from its pages how to manage a flock successfully, and to be so complete that even the experienced shepherd may gather some suggestions from it. The results of personal experiences of some years with the characters of the various modern breeds of sheep, and the sheep-raising capabilities of many portions of our extensive territory and that of Canada; and the careful study of the diseases to which our sheep are chiefly subject, with those by which they may eventually be afflicted through unforeseen accidents; as well as the methods of management called for under our circumstances, were finally gathered into the shape in which they are here presented. By HENRY STEWART. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

Randall's Sheep Husbandry.....$1.50

With an account of the different Breeds of Sheep; Selecting the Best for Wool and for Mutton; Rules for Crossing; Practical Details for Rearing; Summer and Winter Management; Treating Diseases; with Chapters by HENRY S. RANDALL and G. W. KENDALL on Sheep Husbandry in Texas, with Portraits of different Breeds, Illustrations of Sheep Folds, and other Articles in Sheep Husbandry. Cloth, 8vo.

Randall's Fine-Wool Sheep Husbandry. $1.00

Giving Prominent Characteristics of Different Breeds; Principles of breeding correctly: practical and concise rules for Selecting the Best, and making the best Crosses for Wool and Mutton. By Hon. HENRY S. RANDALL, LL. D. Cloth 12mo.

SWINE.

Swine Husbandry.....$1.75

A Practical Manual for the Breeding, Rearing, and Management of Swine, and the Prevention and Treatment of their Diseases. While written from a Western breeder's standpoint, the usefulness of the book is by no means limited to any section of the country. It is the fullest and freshest compendium relating to Swine Breeding yet offered. By F. D. COBURN, a Western Practical Farmer and Breeder.

Harris on the Pig.....$1.50

The points of the various English and American breeds are thoroughly discussed, and the great advantage of using thorough-bred males clearly shown. The work is equally valuable to the farmer who keeps but few pigs, and to the breeder on an extensive scale. By JOSEPH HARRIS. With numerous Illustrations. Cloth, 12mo.

Youatt and Martin on the Hog....$1.00

A Treatise on the Breeds, Management, and Medical Treatment of Swine, with directions for salting pork, and curing bacon and hams. By WM. YOUATT, V. S., and W. C. L. MARTIN. American edition, edited by Ambrose Stevens. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

POULTRY.

Wright's Practical Poultry Keeper. $2.00
A complete and standard Guide to the Management of Poultry, for domestic use, the markets, or exhibition. This book is a valuable manual for everybody who feeds chickens or sells eggs. It suits at once the plain poulterer who must make the business pay, and the chicken fancier whose taste is for gay plumage, and strange, bright birds. These chapters were written with the intention of producing a manual so plain, minute, and practical, that any one could, by using it as a guide, with no previous experience with poultry, become at once successful in producing eggs, young chickens, and fat fowls for market. Beautifully illustrated. By L. WRIGHT. Cloth, 12mo.

FRUIT.

Fulton's Peach Culture.....$1.50
Among the fruits, the Peach, if not the most, is one of the most important of all. It is so easily raised, comes into bearing so soon, and is so delicious as well as beautiful, it is impossible that it should not be a favorite. Living in the very center of the peach-growing district; sharing the common interest felt in the subject; deeply impressed with its importance to the individual planters themselves, and also to the community at large; and believing that a lasting benefit could be done to both, the author has been induced to prepare this work on peach culture. By JAMES ALEXANDER FULTON. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

Quinn's Pear Culture for Profit.....$1.00
If one wishes to raise pears intelligently, and with the best results, he must know first the character of his soil, the best mode of preparing it, the best varieties to select under existing conditions, the best mode of planting, pruning, fertilizing, grafting, and utilizing the ground before the trees come into bearing, and finally of gathering and packing for market. The hope of furnishing practical information on all these points has induced the author to endeavor to draw for others the same lessons which years of practical experience have afforded him. Illustrated. By P. T. QUINN, Practical Horticulturist. Cloth, 12mo.

Barry's Fruit Garden.....$2.50

Notices by the Press: "The author writes from his own practical experience; and that experience is of no ordinary character, being the result of more than thirty years' work at the head of the largest nursery in America, where every operation is conducted with eminent skill."—"It explains all the minutiæ of fruit-gardening, even to the implements, copiously illustrated by engravings, so that the merest novice need not err; gives descriptions of all the different kinds of fruit that can be raised in our climate, in every stage of their lives, from the germ to the fruit-bearing period, with instructions in pruning and grafting, in a most satisfactory manner. The chapter on grapes alone is worth more than the price of the book."—"Mr. Barry has long been known as an authority upon fruit culture, and this volume of 490 pages, with a full and carefully prepared index, gives the latest results of his experience." By P. BARRY. Illustrated. Cloth,12mo.

Warder's American Pomology.—Apples. $3.00

This volume has 744 pages, the first 375 of which are devoted to the discussion of the general subjects of propagation, nursery culture, selection and planting, cultivation of orchards, care of fruit, insects, and the like; the remainder is occupied with descriptions of apples. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

Mohr on the Grape Vine.....$1.00

This is a very plain discussion of the structure of the Vine, and the principles involved in its pruning, training, and cultivation generally. As the propagation of American varieties is different from that pursued in Europe, the translator has given an account of our methods, and added brief notes on the American varieties. By Prof. FREDERICK MOHR. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

Fuller's Grape Culturist.....$1.50

This is one of the very best of works on the Culture of the Hardy Grapes, with full directions for all departments of Propagation, Culture, etc., with one hundred and five excellent engravings, illustrating the various operations of Planting, Training, Grafting, etc. By ANDREW S. FULLER, Practical Horticulturist. Cloth,12mo.

Fuller's Small Fruit Culturist.....$1.50

Mr. Fuller has been so long identified with the culture of small fruits, that it is unnecessary to speak of his qualification as a teacher. This book covers the whole ground of Propagation, Culture, Varieties, Packing for Market, etc. The work is most abundantly illustrated. By ANDREW S. FULLER. Cloth, 12mo.

Fuller's Illustrated Strawberry Culturist, 20

A practical little work, meeting with universal favor. It gives a full list of varieties. Paper Cover, 12mo.

The Thomery System of Grape Culture.50

Cultivation of the Vine upon Trellises in Northern and Central France, according to the New Methods in use at Thomery. From the French, by M. DU BREUL, Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

My Vineyard at Lakeview.....$1.25

This book is especially valuable as giving an account of the processes actually followed in celebrated Grape Regions in Western New York, and on the shores and islands of Lake Erie. It tells just what the beginner in grape culture wishes to know, with the charm that always attends the relation of personal experience. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

Chorlton's Grape Grower's Guide.....75

Intended especially for the American Climate; being a practical Treatise, with Engravings, on the Cultivation of the Grape-Vine in each Department of Hot-House, Cold Grapery, etc.; with Plans for the Construction and Heating. By WM. CHORLTON. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

The Dead Shot.....$1.75
Or, Sportsman's Complete Guide; a Treatise on the use of the Gun, with Rudimentary and Finishing Lessons in the Art of Shooting Game of all kinds. By MARKSMAN. Cloth, 12mo.

Thrasher's Hunter and Trapper....$1.00
In this little work, Mr. Halsey Thrasher, an old hunter and trapper, relates his experience. When a boy, like many others, he became fond of a gun and trap, and his first success, as he tells us, was in making a steel trap in the blacksmith's shop where he had been placed to learn a trade. From his earliest exploits, of catching foxes, to the time when he became an expert trapper of the bear and hunter of the deer, very much, of course, was learned, and in his book this is all told in a manner that cannot fail to interest all who would care to hear an old hunter's story. The best modes of hunting and trapping are given, with hints about guns, rifles, and traps, and directions for tanning skins, etc. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

Gun, Rod, and Saddle.....$1.00
Nearly fifty practical articles on subjects connected with Fishing, Shooting, Racing, Trotting, etc. Cl. 12mo.

CHEMISTRY AND SCIENTIFIC AGRICULTURE.

Johnson's How Crops Grow.....$2.00
A Treatise of the Chemical Composition, Structure, and Life of the Plant. This book is a guide to the knowledge of agricultural plants, their composition, their structure, and modes of development and growth; of the complex organization of plants, and the uses of the parts; the germination of seeds, and the food of plants obtained both from the air and the soil. Very full and accurate tables of analyses are given, and tables of the proportions existing between different principles, oily, starchy, or nitrogenous, in the same or different plants. The book is an invaluable one to all real students of agriculture. With Numerous Illustrations and Tables of Analysis. By Prof. SAMUEL W. JOHNSON, of Yale College. Cloth, 12mo.

Caldwell's Agricultural Qualitative and Quantitative Chemical Analysis$2.00
This work is very thorough, beginning with the preparation of reagents, and giving the most approved method of manipulation. Professor Caldwell modestly calls himself the editor, but his book shows that he has not contented himself with editing the works of others, but has given much of his own experience. Edited by C. C. CALDWELL, Professor of Agricultural Chemistry in the Cornell University. Cloth, 12mo.

Johnson's How Crops Feed.....$2.00
A Treatise on the Atmosphere and the Soil, as related to the Nutrition of Agricultural Plants. The work entitled "How Crops Grow," has been received with very great favor, not only in America but in Europe. It has been republished in England under the joint Editorship of Professors Church and Dyer, of the Royal Agricultural College at Cirencester, and a translation into German has been published at the instigation of Professor von Liebig. This volume—the companion and complement to the former—has been welcomed by those who appreciate the scientific aspects of Agriculture, and are persuaded that a true Theory is the surest guide to a successful practice. Illustrated. By Prof. SAMUEL W. JOHNSON, of Yale College. Cloth, 12mo.

Johnston's Elements of Agricultural Chemistry.....$1.50
The writer, in addition to a complete Treatise upon the Elements of Agricultural Chemistry, suggests modes of thought calculated to lead the reader constantly to reflection. Exact analyses are given of the various substances used as manure, thus giving aid to answer such inquiries. By JAS. F. W. JOHNSTON, M.A., F.R. SS., L. and E., etc., etc. Cloth, 12mo.

Waring's Elements of Agriculture..$1.00
A Book for Young Farmers. Contents: The Plant. The Soil. Manures. Mechanical Cultivation. Analysis. Horace Greeley says of this book: "Though dealing with facts unfamiliar to many, there is no obscure sentence, and scarcely a hard word in the book; its 254 fair, open pages, may be read in the course of two evenings, and thoroughly studied in the leisure hours of a week; and we pity the man or boy, however old or young, who can find it dull reading. Hardly any one is so wise that he will not learn something of value from its perusal; no one is so ignorant or undeveloped that he can not generally understand it; and no farmer or farmer's son can study it thoroughly without being a better and more successful cultivator than before." By GEO. E. WARING, Jr. Carefully Revised. Cloth, 12mo.

Johnston's Agricultural Chemistry.$1.75
Lectures on the Application of Chemistry and Geology to Agriculture. With an Appendix, containing the Author's Experiments in Practical Agriculture. By JAS. F. W. JOHNSTON, M.A., F.R. SS., L. and E., etc., etc. Cloth, 12mo.

Nichols' Chemistry of the Farm and the Sea.....$1.25
With other Familiar Chemical Essays. The aim in this work has been to present scientific facts and principles in a familiar way, so as to interest and instruct those not specially acquainted with matters of Science. By JAMES R. NICHOLS, M.D. Cloth, 12mo.

Norton's Elements of Scientific Agriculture.....75
A valuable and popular Treatise on the Connection between Science and the art of Practical Farming. By the late JOHN P. NORTON, M.A. Cloth, 12mo.

Boussingault's Rural Economy.....$1.60
Rural Economy in its relations with Chemistry, Physics, and Meteorology; or Chemistry Applied to Agriculture in the Principles of Farm Management, the Preservation and Use of Manures, the Nutrition and Food of Animals, and the General Economy of Agriculture. By J. B. BOUSSINGAULT, Member of Institute of France, etc. Translated, with Introduction and Notes, by GEORGE LAW, Agriculturist. Cloth, 12mo.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Allen's New American Farm Book...$2.50
Allen's American Farm Book, (the former edition of the present volume), has been one of the standard farmers' hand-books for twenty years; it is still a valuable book, but as its author, Mr. R. L. Allen, could not give time to its revision, this was undertaken by his brother, Hon. Lewis F. Allen, the distinguished farmer of Erie county, editor of the American Shorthorn Herd-Book. The present edition of the work is greatly enlarged, and full of suggestions from the rich experience of its editor and reviser, and is called the NEW AMERICAN FARM BOOK. Originally by RICHARD L. ALLEN, Revised and greatly enlarged by LEWIS F. ALLEN. Cloth, 12mo.

Thomas' Farm Implements and Machinery, $1.50
The principles of their construction and use; with simple and practical explanations of the laws of motion as applied on the Farm. This work has been most carefully revised by the author. It is much enlarged, and a great part has been re-written, while the illustrations, before abundant, now number two hundred and eighty-seven. There is not an agricultural writer that could be named more respected than John J. Thomas, or one whose judgment and freedom from personal bias in discussing new implements could be more implicitly relied upon. With 287 Illustrations. By JOHN J. THOMAS. Cloth, 12mo.

The Tim Bunker Papers, Or Yankee Farming.....$1.50
This book is an attempt to represent the average wisdom of the Connecticut farmer, and the steady progress this class is making in rural improvement, and in the comforts and moralities of social life. The incidents herein recorded are fictitious in form rather than in fact, for they are the results of personal experience and observation, and are meant to represent the true drift of farm life in the land of Steady Habits. This is a valuable book, giving many practical useful hints, told in a way to please, to be understood, and to "stick." Finely Illustrated. By TIMOTHY BUNKER, Esq., of Hookertown, Conn. Cloth, 12mo.

American Weeds, and Useful Plants.$1.75
An important Work for every Cultivator—Farmer, Gardener, etc.; being an Enumeration and Description, (with accurate illustrations), of the WEEDS and PLANTS found in American Fields and Gardens, which meet the observation, or require the attention of Cultivators; with practical suggestions for their Eradication when needed. While practical in its character, it includes both the common and botanical names and characters of the Weeds and Plants, with a Popular Account of the Structure of Plants. By WM. DARLINGTON, M.D., and Prof. GEO. THURBER. Thoroughly Illustrated with 277 Engravings. Cloth, 12mo.

Broom Corn and Brooms, Paper cover, 50 Cloth, 75.
A Treatise on Raising Broom-Corn and Making Brooms on a Small or Large Scale. Written and compiled by the editors of the American Agriculturist. Waring's Earth Closets: How to Make them, and How to Use them.....50

It is sufficiently understood, by all who have given the least thought to the subject, that the waste of the most vital elements of the soil's fertility, through our present practice of treating human excrement as a thing that is to be hurried into the sea or buried in underground vaults, or in some other way be put out of sight and out of reach, is full of danger to our future prosperity. Supported as the arguments in this little work are by the most imperative agricultural and sanitary considerations, it is believed that they will commend themselves to the approval of all, in both town and country, who have the well-being of society at heart. Paper Cover, 8vo.

Willard's Practical Dairy Husbandry. $3.00

FLORICULTURE.

Henderson's Practical Floriculture. .$1.50

A Guide to the Successful Propagation and Cultivation of Florists' Plants. In this work, which has everywhere become so deservedly popular, not only is the whole "art and mystery" of propagation explained, but the reader is taught how to plant and grow the plants after they have been propagated. The work is not one for florists and gardeners only, but the amateur's wants are constantly kept in mind, and we have a very complete treatise on the cultivation of flowers under glass, or in the open air, suited to those who grow flowers for pleasure, as well as those who make them a matter of trade. The work is characterized by the same radical common sense that marked the author's "Gardening for Profit," and it holds a high place in the estimation of lovers of floriculture. The new edition has been thoroughly revised by the author, and much enlarged by the addition of valuable matter. Beautifully Illustrated. By PETER HENDERSON, Author of "Gardening for Profit." Cloth, 12mo.

Parsons on the Rose.....$1.50

A Treatise on the Propagation, Culture, and History of the Rose. New and Revised Edition. The Rose is the only flower that can be said to have a history. It is popular now, and was so centuries ago. In his work upon the Rose, Mr. Parsons has gathered up the curious legends concerning the flower, and gives us an idea of the esteem in which it was held in former times. A simple garden classification has been adopted, and the leading varieties under each class enumerated and briefly described. The chapters on multiplication, cultivation, and training, are very full, and the work is altogether one of the most complete before the public. Illustrated. By SAMUEL B. PARSONS. Cloth, 12mo.

Breck's New Book of Flowers, or Flower Garden.....$1.75

In which are described the various Hardy Herbaceous Flowers, Annuals, Shrubby Plants, and Evergreen Trees, with Directions for their Cultivation. New edition, revised and corrected. By JOSEPH BRECK. Cloth, 12mo.

Cloth, 12mo.

LANDSCAPE GARDENING.

Weidenmann's Beautifying Country Homes.....$15.00

This magnificent work is illustrated not only with numerous fine wood-engravings, but also with seventeen full-page and seven double-page colored lithographs of places already improved, showing Buildings, Walks, Trees, Shrubs, etc., in short, bringing the places directly to the eye of the reader. It embodies the results of a long practice in landscape architecture and rural adornment, and while its teachings are in accordance with the received rules of art, they are thoroughly practical in their character. It is the most elegant, and most useful work on the subject ever issued in the country. The work, both in its letter-press and colored lithographs, is beautifully printed, and it is elegantly bound in beveled boards. An elegant Quarto volume. Cloth, 4to.

Downing's Landscape Gardening...$6.50

A Treatise on the Theory and Practice of Landscape Gardening, adapted to North America; with a view to the Improvement of Country Residences. Comprising historical notices and general principles of the art, directions for laying out grounds and arranging plantations, the description and cultivation of hardy trees, decorative accompaniments of the house and grounds, the formation of pieces of artificial water, flower gardens, etc.—with Remarks on Rural Architecture by the late A. J. DOWNING, Esq. With a Supplement, containing some remarks about country places, and the best methods of making them; also an account of the newer deciduous and evergreen plants, lately introduced into cultivation, both hardy and half-hardy, and a second Supplement, bringing down to the present time some brief account of the various trees and shrubs which have been introduced since the former Supplement was published, (in 1859), by HENRY WINTHROP SARGENT. Beautifully Illustrated, with thirty-nine engravings on wood, six on stone, and six on steel, one of which is a fine portrait of the author. Cloth, 8vo.

Cleveland's Landscape Architecture $1.50

As Applied to the Wants of the West. With an Essay on Forest Planting on the Great Plains. The object of the author is to show that, by whatever name it may be called, the sub division and arrangement of land for the occupation of civilized men, is an art demanding the exercise of ingenuity, judgment, and taste, and one which nearly concerns the interests of real estate proprietors, and the welfare and happiness of all future occupants. By H. W. S. CLEVELAND, Landscape Architect. Cloth, 12mo.

CRANBERRIES.

Eastwood's Cranberry Manual.....75

Giving directions for the cultivation in different localities, with illustrations and descriptions of varieties. By BENJ. EASTWOOD. Cloth, 12mo.

EVERGREENS AND SHADE TREES.

Hoopes' Book of Evergreens.....$3.00
This valuable work posts up the present state of our knowledge upon the cone-bearing plants, or Coniferæ, of the botanist. Mr. Hoopes is one of those persons rarely met with—a practical cultivator, and a man of science at the same time. While his work gives us all the Coniferæ arranged in the classification of the botanist, it at the same time treats of the experience, not only of the author, but of American cultivators generally, with this large and important family of plants. By JOSIAH HOOPES. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

Warder's Hedges and Evergreens...$1.50
This is the only book wholly devoted to the Cultivation, Pruning, and Management of Plants suitable for American hedging, especially the Maclura, or Osage Orange; illustrated with engravings of plants, implements, and processes; to which is added a Treatise on Evergreens, their varieties, propagation, culture, etc. By J. DRAINING AND IRRIGATION.

Waring's Draining for Profit, and Draining for Health.....$1.50
The author of this work has been, practically, very successful as a draining engineer, and few, either in this country or abroad, have such monuments of their skill to point at as he, the most important of which is the New York Central Park. This book is a very complete and practical treatise, the directions in which are plain, and easily followed. The subject of thorough farm drainage is discussed in all its bearings, and also that more extensive land-drainage by which the sanitary condition of any district may be greatly improved, even to the banishment of fever and ague, typhoid and malarious fever. By GEO. E. WARING, Jr. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

French's Farm Drainage.....$1.50
The Principles, Process, and Effects of Draining Land with Stones, Wood, Drain-Plows, Open Ditches, and especially with Tiles; including Tables of Rainfall, Evaporation, Filtration, Excavation, Capacity of Pipes, cost and number to the acre. With over 100 illustrations. By Judge FRENCH, of New Hampshire. Cloth, 12mo.

Stewart's Irrigation for the Farm, Garden, and Orchard.....$1.50
This work is offered to those American Farmers, and other cultivators of the soil, who, from painful experience, can readily appreciate the losses which result from the scarcity of water at critical periods, as well as to those enterprising pioneers whose efforts are showing it to be possible to reclaim from sterility the so-called "Great American Desert." The information here given has been acquired during years of observation and study, and to some extent from rude but effective practice. By HENRY STEWART. Fully Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo.

MANURES.

Bruckner's American Manures; and Farmers' and Planters' Guide.....$1.50 Comprising a description of the elements and composition of Plants and Soils, the theory and practice of composting; the value of stable manure and waste products, etc. Also, chemical analysis of the principal manufactured fertilizers, their assumed and real value, and a full expose of the frauds practiced upon purchasers.
